First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

I have always loved the word table. Once, I saw one of the most beautiful tables I had ever seen in Los Lunas, New Mexico. It was a large oak wood round table surrounded by a number of oak wood chairs. It was a special table placed in the middle of the restaurant. The word I feel most comfortable using to describe our most important liturgical furniture item is table, the table of the Lord. It is a place where we gather as a community to feast, to dine with the Lord. A communion that takes place, which invites us into an intimate relationship with our creator.

The altar belongs to the baptized and is accessible to the people of God.

This Sunday, Mother's Day, we have a tradition of inviting all mothers in the parish to come forward and surround the table of the Lord during the eucharistic prayer. The faces of all the women are an amazing sight to behold. The joy of being close to the table, surrounded by women who have so many stories of motherhood. Their voices in prayer responses, singing our hymns, truly give glory to God. I am grateful that so many women choose to come forward without hesitation to be a visible witness to the community that women are so vital to the life of the Church.

This Mother's Day, we bless, we honor, and we give thanks to all the mothers.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Good Shepherd Sunday

This fourth Sunday of Easter marks Good Shepherd Sunday. One of the most memorable images of Jesus is that of the good shepherd. The image of Jesus with his sheep as he carries a lamb with him. There is certainly a bit of sentimentality with that image, but it also speaks to a truth about who Jesus is. He is the Good Shepherd.

But, what makes the good shepherd “good”? The gospel specifies a couple reasons: first, his willingness to lay down his life for his sheep, and the second, the fact that he knows his sheep personally, he recognizes their voices, and they know him. Jesus’ love and willingness to lay down his life for our sake is why we gather here every week. If Jesus didn’t sacrifice his life on the cross we wouldn’t be here. Without the crucifixion we don’t have the resurrection. And without the resurrection we remain captive to our sins. Jesus tells us directly, “there is no greater love than to lay down your life for your friends.” It is such an inspiring thing to see someone lay down their life for another person. On this Mother's Day weekend I invite you to think about parents who love their children and are willing to do anything for them. Each day parents lay down their life for their children. Parents who wait in lines and traffic to pick up their kids each day or bring them lunch. Parents who stay up to help them with their homework. That is love. This is part of what it means to be a good shepherd. Christ laid down his life for our sake and we are called to do the same. And that doesn’t just mean with our family members either, it includes every person that we encounter. Despite age, race, or religion, we need to be the good shepherd to all people.

The second trait that makes Jesus a good shepherd is he knows his sheep and they know him. God knows everything there is to know about us. He knows the intention within our heart, and he knows the number of hairs on our head. The point is the love of God is something that is personal. When God speaks it is always personal, direct, and with purpose. We are by nature ordered to God. We are born to hear him. We are the only creatures on this planet that are created to hear the voice of God. There is a saying, God created us with two ears and one mouth so that we would know we need to listen twice as much as we speak. Having some silence in our day and making time for prayer is the only way we will hear God speaking to us. There is no shortcut and there is no other way, we need to pray, and we need to listen. Today, take confidence in calling Jesus the good shepherd, he is good for a reason.

Stewardship

John 10:27-30 speaks of the deep relationship between the Good Shepherd and His sheep—how they hear His voice, follow Him, and are protected in His care. This passage highlights the essence of stewardship as a calling rooted in love, trust, and responsibility. In many ways, mothers reflect this kind of shepherding in their daily lives, guiding their children with wisdom, nurturing them with sacrificial love, and protecting them with unwavering devotion. Just as Jesus assures that no one can snatch His sheep from His hand, so too do mothers fiercely guard the well-being of their children, spiritually and physically. Their stewardship is not only practical but deeply spiritual, as they lead by example in faith and care. In honoring mothers, we recognize the sacred role they play as shepherds within their families, mirroring the heart of the Good Shepherd Himself.

Sending our condolences

To our friends at St. Patrick Catholic Community, The Center for Jewish Philanthropy of Greater Phoenix joins you in mourning the death of Pope Francis, a good friend to the Jewish community and those of many faith traditions.

Pope Francis repeatedly condemned antisemitism as a "sin" and reiterated his belief that we are siblings in faith. He also lived out this belief in fraternity in faith through his life of service.

Pope Francis was dear friends with Abraham Skorka, the Chief Rabbi of Argentina, and the two coauthored the insightful book "On Heaven and Earth." They shared in decades of dialogue about matters of faith, life, and leadership and modeled the best of friendship between our communities.

Pope Francis will be remembered with love for his tireless work to expand upon "Nostra Aetate," the landmark document which transformed Catholic-Jewish relations 60 years ago. His work to build bridges cannot be overstated. May we build upon this remarkable legacy through collaboration between our communities.

Please know that we are here for you however possible during this time of grief, both to join you in commemorations for Pope Francis and for more personal moments of reflection. May the memory of Pope Francis ever be a blessing.

*With our sincerest condolences,
Jennifer Starrett on behalf of the Center for Jewish Philanthropy of Greater Phoenix*

Life Teen Summer Camp is around the corner, happening July 6 - 11 in Julian, CA! This is an unforgettable week where teens will encounter Christ through the sacraments, powerful prayer experiences, small group discussions, and dynamic speakers who foster authentic community. Beyond the spiritual, campers will also enjoy ropes courses, obstacle challenges, messy games, free time, and three delicious meals plus a snack each day. We'll depart the morning of July 6 and return the evening of the 11th.

Scholarships are available, so please don't hesitate to reach out if cost is a concern-we want every teen to have the opportunity to go! To register go to our website stpatcc.org/ltcamp.
