First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Christians call this week, Holy Week. It is a time to remember the saving deeds of our Savior, Jesus Christ. I invite all parishioners to make this week different than the other weeks throughout the year.

Palm Sunday, also known as Passion Sunday, as the Passion of our Lord Jesus is proclaimed at the gospel time. It sets the tone for these special days. Our Parish Reconciliation Service will be this coming Wednesday, March 27 from 6 - 8 pm in the church. There will be nine priests available for two hours straight and we hope this will move people to take the opportunity to celebrate this great sacrament.

Holy Thursday, March 28 at 7 pm, we will have the Mass of the Lord's Supper, the washing of the feet, and the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament after Mass until 11 pm. On Good Friday, March 29, we will have the Stations of the Cross at noon and our Good Friday service will be at 7 pm with holy communion. Saturday, we will have the Easter Vigil at 7 pm, the most beautiful Mass of the entire year, where we will welcome the elect and candidates to full initiation into our Catholic family. On Easter Sunday we will have Mass at 8:30 am, 10:30 am, and 12:30 pm.

Most of Jerusalem, at the time of Jesus, was unaware of what was happening right in their midst, the salvific acts of Jesus Christ. We want to be sure that no parishioner is unaware that this week recalls that saving act of Jesus.

Blessings this Holy Week.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Palm Sunday: Welcoming Christ

Over the past few weeks of Lent our readings have been guiding us to the hill of Calvary where we see the fulfillment of God's love for us on the cross. On Palm Sunday we celebrate Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem. We hear about the crowds that gathered around and praised Jesus. They laid down their cloaks and laid palm branches at his feet singing "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord". They have all seen and heard about the many miracles he performed, from giving sight to the blind man to the raising of Lazarus from the dead. Yet as we know this praise and celebration of Jesus quickly turns to betrayal and mockery as he is led to the cross. What a difference from the palms and flowers to the crown of thorns he wore on the cross. It makes you think, what happened to all those people, where did they go? Then again think about how commonly in our own lives we follow a similar path. We go from praising God at Mass, then the reality of life leads us astray.

The beauty of it all, and the beauty of the Passion, is the constancy of Jesus' love and fidelity. The crowd turns on Jesus, Judas betrays him, Peter denies him; yet Jesus endures it all and dies on the cross for our sake. In response to it all Jesus says, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do". Love, compassion, and forgiveness; those are at the center of the Passion. We should never lose sight of that.

It's interesting to note in Mark's account of the Passion we begin with Jesus and the woman with the alabaster jar. The woman comes before Jesus and breaks the jar open and proceeds to anoint Jesus with costly oil. The disciples criticize her for wasting the oil, but Jesus commends her for doing what she could. She may not have had a lot to offer but she offered what she could. And she offered something that was precious to her. Do we make the same effort to offer what is precious to us or do we simply offer the Lord whatever is convenient? Notice, Jesus says "wherever the gospel is proclaimed to the world, what she has done will be told in memory of her". Because of that simple act of generosity and kindness this woman is forever remembered.

Showing love and compassion for another person makes a difference. For example, think about the love and kindness your parents showed you. Maybe think about a kind act a stranger did for you. Maybe a friend who offered you comfort in a time of need. Although they may seem like small acts, those things make all the difference. As Easter draws ever closer let us realize the passion of the Lord directs us to have an ever greater love for one another.

Stewardship

Jesus, you are my model for humility, my model for obedience. Grant me the grace to exemplify the same humility in my own life. When I am tempted to turn away from you, and disobey your command, lead me back to you. Amen.

What more can be said of these readings? Almost all of us are familiar with the story of the Passover meal (the Last Supper), the events in the Garden of Gethsemane, the betrayal, the fake trial, the denial by Peter, the scourging, the condemnation by Pilate and the people, and the Crucifixion. So, perhaps the question to ask is, "why do we still stop to read and meditate upon them? What more is there to be gained?"

This is the question we should prayerfully consider the posture we should take this week. What more does the Holy Spirit want to reveal to us about God's love? What more might we get out of the Holy Week activities at our parish or in our own personal prayer if we make time to read the gospel outside Mass in the coming days? Will Isaiah's prophecy, or St. Paul's letter to the Philippians come even more to life after reading Christ's Passion? What if we spend a half hour just reading and praying the entirety of Psalm 22, the first line of which our Lord quoted while upon the Cross?

Make time to enter into these readings in the next week or so. Journal about them. Use them when praying the Sorrowful Mysteries. Try lectio divina and put yourself into each scene: ask yourself what it looks like, what it smelled like, and what it felt like at that moment upon which you're meditating. Really take your time. God will undoubtedly bless your efforts and, eventually, your Easter celebration.

BLESSING OF THE EASTER BASKETS

on Saturday, March 30 at 11 am

Outside the main entrance to the church.

History and Tradition:

Święconka, meaning "the blessing of the Easter baskets," is one of the most enduring and beloved Polish traditions on Holy Saturday. While originally observed by Polish people in the U.S., it has grown in popularity.

The Treasured Polish Custom of
"ŚWIĘCONKA"

The tradition is said to date from the 7th century in its basic form, the more modern form containing bread and eggs (symbols of resurrection and Christ) are said to date from the 12th century.

Baskets containing a sampling of Easter foods are brought to church to be blessed on Holy Saturday. The basket is traditionally lined with a white linen or lace napkin and decorated with sprigs of boxwood, the typical Easter evergreen. Poles take special pride in preparing a decorative and tasteful basket with crisp linens, occasionally embroidered for the occasion, and boxwood and ribbon woven through the handle. Observing the creativity of other parishioners is one of the special joys of the event.

The foods in the baskets have a symbolic meaning:

- * Eggs - symbolize life and Christ's resurrection
- * Bread - symbolic of Jesus
- * Lamb - represents Christ
- * Salt - represents purification
- * Horseradish - symbolic of the bitter sacrifice of Christ
- * Ham - symbolic of great joy and abundance.

The food blessed in the church remains untouched until Sunday morning.

Remember to bring your basket to be blessed.

Social Justice

As we enter into Holy Week, the Social Justice and Outreach staff would like to share this meditative prayer with all of you as we prepare ourselves for the Risen Christ:

Risen Jesus, assure me of the promised joy implicit in your risen life.

Reenergize my spirit when it creeps into the cave of gloom. Bring it forth into the light of your radiance.

Reestablish attentiveness to the wonder found in nature's continual unfolding of the season, each one with its own inherent beauty.

Reinvigorate a desire to enter each day confident of your grace to maintain a positive perspective, no matter what unexpected turbulence or distress confronts me.

Renew an ability to find satisfaction in my faith without having to poke continually at truths that remain unsolved.

Resist my attempts to foster complete control, and thus I miss the adventure of risk-taking and the invitation to step out of tightly bound securities.

Reclaim love grown cold or dormant due to neglect, misperception, or the deluge of overwork that quickly steals affection from my heart.

Restore balance and order in my mind. Clear it of tangling thoughts, judgments, and issues that stealthily poison my enjoyment of life.

Resurrect the undivided passion I once had for bringing the best of my inner goodness to each and every part of what claims my attention.

Reveal what keeps playfulness from emerging, forfeiting the freedom to express the laughter hiding inside of me.

Release the door of my heart to let me enter the tender moments and unforeseen experiences holding great happiness if only I am open to them.

Remind me to rejoice at the little lifts of joy that I may quickly pass by without noticing or offering thanks.

Reach me with your Eastering joy. Amen
