First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

This weekend at our Masses, we presented to the parish the opportunity to share with all our brothers and sisters throughout our Diocese through the Charity and Development Appeal (CDA).

Born and raised in Arizona, I saw first hand when Phoenix became a Diocese in 1969. Before that, Phoenix was part of the Diocese of Tucson. The first Bishop of Phoenix was Bishop Edward McCarthy. I met him a couple of times at my childhood parish and he was a very nice man. He was the one who introduced the CDA to our Diocese as there was a great need to build and develop the Church in Phoenix.

Every year the Phoenix Diocese calls on its families to remember our relationship to others beyond our own parish walls. This appeal is made to support charities that serve many people; who need many types of assistance such as smaller parish communities who need support. My priestly formation was paid for by the people of Phoenix, and every year I am honored to speak at all Masses to thank the people who gave, which supported me personally. On our parish website is the CDA video, which is excellent and was shown at our Masses.

Next week and the following weeks parishioners have the opportunity to bring back their pledge cards and place them in our offertory baskets at any time. I invite all of you to join me in thinking about a gift to the CDA which serves not only Catholics but all people who live in our Diocese area. We “give thanks” to God for the opportunity to care for others.

NEXT SUNDAY IS A HOLY DAY AT ST. PATRICK, THE SUPER BOWL. THE 5:00 PM SUNDAY MASS MOVES TO 12:30 PM THAT DAY ONLY. YOU ARE INVITED TO WEAR A FOOTBALL JERSEY, FOOTBALL HOODIE OR SHIRT TO MASS THAT WEEKEND. IT WILL BE PART OF THE HOMILY MESSAGE NEXT SUNDAY.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY MARY PERMODA,
Director of Pastoral Activities

SPRING PARISH LISTENING SESSIONS - WE CONTINUE TO BECOME A SYNODAL CHURCH

What is Synodality? Synodality means journeying together as the People of God. It indicates a way of listening to each individual person as a member of the Church to understand how God might be speaking to all of us.

What is the purpose of Synodality?

Synodality is a way of “journeying together” – of living out our faith – that calls for speaking and listening to one another and the Holy Spirit in order to find a path forward in addressing the issues facing the Church in our day as we work to carry out our mission of making known the Good News of salvation in Jesus ...

How do we do it?

One way is through Listening Sessions. This is a small group of 8-10 people with a facilitator who leads the group through listening to each other on a specific topic.

Our Spring Listening Sessions will take place after all Masses February 24/25, Monday morning February 26, after 8:00 am daily Mass and Tuesday evening, February 27 at 6:30 pm. You will have a choice of three topics:

- How has any of the challenges of mental health issues impacted you or someone you know? From your perspective, what would help and support look like?
- The charisms of women are already present and at work in the Church today. What can we do to support them and to learn what the Spirit wants to teach us through them?
- What have been the joys and sorrows you have experienced in the Catholic Church?

LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE OUR CHURCH STRONGER! BRING YOUR LISTENING EAR!

SUPPORT OUR ADVERTISERS!

Stewardship

Our readings today remind us that Christ came to serve. The world often encourages us to look inward — for ways that someone or something can better serve us. Countering this typical mindset, Jesus' entire life was focused on others. He came to fulfill His Father's mission — the salvation of mankind. He labored for this mission by becoming the humblest of servants. This is made evident in our Gospel today. Let us recall that as disciples of Christ, we are called to be imitators — to labor for our Father's mission by becoming humble servants.

Healing people was a central part of Jesus' ministry. In today's Gospel, He heals Simon's mother-in-law from a fever, in addition to those who are diseased and possessed. Jesus was becoming well known from these miracles as Simon says to Jesus, "Everyone is looking for you." Jesus did deserve all glory and honor — yet, He did not seek after the praise. Rather, He responded by saying, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also." Jesus was already looking to whom He could serve next.

As Christian stewards, we too are called to be humble servants who labor for our Father's mission. We should strive to imitate Christ — the Perfect Steward — Who was constantly aware of the needs of those around Him and put His gifts to good use. For us, this begins right here in our home, parish, and community. It doesn't need to be complex, but rather, very simple — to live each moment in awareness of our Father's mission and in gratitude for all He has given us. When we intentionally live each moment for Christ, even the ordinary moments are made significant.

Jesus tells us that the way to be attentive is through prayer. Before Jesus made the decision to go to the nearby villages to preach, He first went off to pray. It is through prayer that Jesus could hear what His Father was asking of Him. We, too, are called to spend time in daily prayer — we will then become aware of the opportunities to serve the Lord.

Let us commit to finding some quiet time this week to pray. Let us ask the Lord — how can I serve You better throughout my days? And let us pray, 'Make me humble, Lord.'

Are you detailed?
 Do you enjoy working with computers?
 Do you get satisfaction from organizing, arranging and putting things in order?
 Do you have 2-3 hours to spare on Monday afternoon?

If so, then Wall Street (our Administrative Team) needs your gifts and skills to help out in the parish office.

If computers aren't your 'thing' but you'd still like to help out, we are in need of one or two people to help with filing and/or calling and following up with parishioners during the week. Hours and days are flexible

Please contact Sue Orlando at 480-998-3843 x-119 or sorlando@stpatcc.org for more information.

Prayer for the Charity and Development Appeal

Generous and loving God, You call us to be disciples of your son Jesus, and good stewards of all your many gifts. Open our minds and hearts to a greater awareness and deeper appreciation of your countless blessings.

Transform us through the power of your Spirit to nurture a stewardship way of life marked by faith-filled prayer, service to our neighbor and generous sharing.

Teach us to be faithful servants of your gifts.
 With Mary's help, may we return ten-fold the gifts entrusted to us.

Amen

ST. PATRICK
CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
CHRISTIAN DISCIPLES IN MISSION

Undies Sundays!

Every Sunday during Lent we will be collecting NEW white underwear for men and women at all Masses. Please drop your donations off in the baskets in the church.

The underwear collected will be distributed to the homeless community through our partner agencies: André House, Catholic Charities, St. Vincent de Paul, Paz de Cristo, and Monte Vista Baptist Church.

Lenten Almsgiving

Almsgiving is our response to God that comes out of our prayer and fasting. It is an expression of our gratitude for all we've been given and an understanding that works of charity and the promotion of justice is all of our responsibility. In our almsgiving, we are called to keep in mind local, global and parish needs. We encourage you to consider the three-legged stool when you discern your almsgiving this Lenten season.

Local

Habitat for Humanity:

Supports affordable housing in Central Arizona. Habitat brings people to build homes, communities, and hope. They believe in a world where everyone has a place to call home. Follow along in the Habitat Lenten calendar and fill up your Lenten banks to help support this organization.

Parish

Catholic Charities

Community Services:

Supports counseling services for parishioners in need. Catholic Charities offers quality behavioral health services, which can be a life affirming and often life changing gift. Consider supporting these services by designating part of your Almsgiving by placing it in the Catholic Charities envelope.

Global

CRS Rice Bowl:

Supports Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the official humanitarian organization of the Catholic community in the US. CRS assists poor and suffering people in 91 countries on the basis of need, without regard to race, religion or nationality. You can download the app at crsricebowl.org.

"Almsgiving helps us to experience giving freely, which leads to freedom from the obsession of possessing, from the fear of losing what we have, from the sadness of one who does not wish to share his wealth with others."

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Carter G. Woodson,
American Historian and Author

Born Dec. 19, 1875 - Died April 3, 1950

The observation of Black History Month dates back to 1915, when Carter G. Woodson, now known as the 'Father of Black History,' created an organization called the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History. In 1926, Woodson initiated the first Negro History Week in February. Woodson chose February specifically because it covered the birthdays of Frederick Douglass (February 14) and Abraham Lincoln (February 12).

From a poor family, Carter Woodson supported himself by working in the coal mines of Kentucky and was thus unable to enroll in high school until he was 20. After graduating in less than two years, he taught high school, wrote articles, studied at home and abroad, and received his Ph.D. from Harvard University (1912). In 1915 he founded the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History to encourage scholars to engage in the intensive study of the black past.

Woodson was dean of the College of Liberal Arts and head of the graduate faculty at Howard University, Washington, D.C. (1919–20), and dean at West Virginia State College, Institute, W.Va. (1920–22). While there, he founded and became president of Associated Publishers to bring out books on black life and culture, since experience had shown him that the usual publishing outlets were rarely interested in scholarly works on blacks. He never married and had no children.

"What we need is not a history of selected races or nations, but the history of the world void of national bias, race hate, and religious prejudice."

— Carter G. Woodson

Heart Health Month Know the Difference

Cardiovascular Disease, Heart Disease, Coronary Heart Disease

Cardiovascular Disease The big umbrella

Cardiovascular disease is the term for all types of diseases that affect the heart or blood vessels, including coronary heart disease (clogged arteries), which can cause heart attacks, stroke, heart failure, and peripheral artery disease.

1 in 3 deaths

More than 800,000 people die of cardiovascular disease every year in the United States.

Coronary Heart Disease A type of heart disease

Coronary heart disease is often referred to simply as "heart disease," although it's not the only type of heart disease. Another term for it is coronary artery disease.

About 366,000 Americans die from coronary heart disease each year.

Heart Disease A type of cardiovascular disease

"Heart disease" is a catch-all phrase for a variety of conditions that affect the heart's structure and function. Keep in mind — all heart diseases are cardiovascular diseases, but not all cardiovascular diseases are heart disease. The most common type of heart disease is coronary heart disease. In fact, when people talk about "heart disease" they often mean coronary heart disease.

Coronary heart disease occurs when plaque (a combination of fat, cholesterol, calcium, and other substances found in the blood) builds up in your arteries. You may have heard this called clogged arteries or atherosclerosis. The plaque reduces the amount of oxygen-rich blood getting to your heart, which can cause chest pain (also called angina). Plaque can also lead to blood clots, which block blood flow and are the most common cause of a heart attack.
