First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

This year marks the 25th anniversary of our Knights of Columbus council. Over the many years our council has served our community with their presence, supporting our many events, ministries and needs. The Knights of Columbus is also an organization that serves the greater community with works of charity, education, family support, and life issues. These are just some of the outreach the Knights offer to many people.

My years in the seminary were supported by the Knights of Columbus council in Flagstaff, Arizona. Throughout my eight years of schooling, they offered financial and spiritual support to me. They even gave me the gift of my first chalice. Having that great experience, I desired to have a council at St. Patrick, and thanks to those men, a council was formed at St. Patrick.

This Sunday at our 10:30 am Mass the Knights will be present and their Chaplain, Deacon Jim, will offer a blessing on behalf of the community.

We all are grateful for all they do. As I kiddingly remind them, the Knights do more than just give out donuts after Mass. There is so much more they do for all of us.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

BY ERIC TAMAYO,

St. Benedict: Radical Hospitality

At one time or another in life, we have all experienced the feeling of being the new person in a crowd of strangers. Maybe it was going to a party or maybe it was going to a new parish for the first time. It can be an uneasy feeling not knowing anyone, not knowing where to go, or not knowing what to do. In those moments the kindness of a stranger can completely change our experience. Feelings of loneliness or anxiety can be transformed to feelings of acceptance, welcome, and love. The kindness and hospitality of a stranger can go a long way and it is exactly what Jesus challenges us to do in today's Gospel, "love one another as I love you."

A great example of what hospitality looks like comes from St. Benedict and his rule of life. According to St. Benedict, hospitality is much more than a gesture but a disposition of the heart. True Benedictine hospitality requires that we welcome the stranger, not only into our homes, but into our hearts. Radical hospitality is about going the extra mile, it goes beyond friendly. Radical hospitality should be intentional as to lead others to feel noticed, comfortable, accepted, and valued. Maya Angelou once said, "people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

In his rule of life St. Benedict explains, "Hospitality is the way we come out of ourselves. It is the first step toward dismantling the barriers of the world. Hospitality is the way we turn a prejudiced world around, one heart at a time." If we truly want to love as God loves, it requires us to welcome every stranger as we would receive Christ. At its center, Benedictine hospitality calls us to notice those God has placed in our path and with prayer, humility, and love, be willing to be present to them. We are challenged by our faith in Christ to acknowledge the presence of the person, to be inclusive in our attitude toward every person, and to be aware of the dignity of every person.

Here at St. Patrick, hospitality is one of the pillars of our community. We have a number of ministries that strive to make hospitality a priority, from our calling ministry, hospitality ministers, to our golf cart ministry. If you are interested in joining one of these ministries, contact the parish office for more information. One ministry that prides itself on radical hospitality is our golf cart ministry which offers rides from the parking lot, to and from the church. To keep this ministry alive the Men's Club have graciously purchased a new golf cart for the parish. On behalf of the entire St. Patrick community, we would like to thank the Men's Club for their generosity and their support of radical hospitality. As St. Benedict shows us, if we all make the effort we can transform the world, even if it is just one heart at a time.

Stewardship

Reading a compliment under a picture or post on social media, receiving an unexpected card or flowers, getting bumped up to first class on a flight, hearing an affirmation for a job well done from your boss...these are just a few examples of how nice it is to feel special. The Lord tells us to prefer the seat of least honor, but in our own human condition (and fallen nature), we usually prefer the VIP status. Who doesn't want to feel like a VIP, especially in God's eyes?

The Israelites had always been God's Chosen People. They'd survived the ups and downs, and enslavement, the desert wanderings, and the glory days, the destruction of their cities, and the rebuilding. They survived all of this on the promise that God would send a messiah to save them. Little did they know that he would also save the entire world. Imagine the surprise of devout Jews-turned-Christians when, all of a sudden, they weren't God's only children anymore. Consider how hard it must've been to hear that "in every nation, whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him," as Saint Peter makes clear in the first reading. No more only-child status. This was a tough pill to swallow for the Jews, yet welcome news for Gentiles — their hated enemies!

This is why the psalmist says that the Lord "has revealed to the nation his justice." This is why St. John had to constantly remind people to "love one another" in his writings as we hear in the second reading and echoed again in the gospel. This, too, is why the gospel reminds us that God is our father and that we are no longer called slaves, but friends and children. It's not that we are no longer special in the eyes of God; it's that each of us is equally special in the eyes of the Father.

Get on the Bus AZ

Friday, May 10

The Get on the Bus Story

For the incarcerated, no one suffers more than the children. Get on the Bus AZ was founded in 2017 when Fr. Eric and Mary Permoda met with the Get on the Bus team in CA and brought the program to St. Patrick. It has grown ever since thanks to our compassionate and supportive parishioners and other ministries of our parish.

St. Patrick Catholic Community this year will host 79 families with caregivers and children to visit their Mothers on May 10 - a Mother's Day reunion. For some, it has been a very lonely time and for others it will be the first time they have reunited with their Mom since her incarceration. Our purpose is to prevent recidivism and reunite families to prevent children from entering foster care.

Will you join us in this prison ministry? You can donate to Get on the Bus with a charitable contribution to St. Patrick Catholic Community and noting "Get on the Bus" on your check.

We appreciate all your generous help and loving hearts. The stories from these families define gratitude. The hosting involves buses, food, transportation, t-shirts, supplies and a whole lot of love.

Please visit getonthebusaz.com for more history and information.

Social Justice

"The National Weather Service issued an excessive heat warning for Central Arizona and surrounding areas. High temperatures will range from 110-120 degrees. The extreme temperatures Arizona faces in the summertime are difficult for some populations to escape. Those who are homeless, for instance, can have a difficult time finding refuge from the heat and staying hydrated throughout the day."

Do these words sound familiar? We hear them several times throughout the brutal summer months here in the Valley. And these months are quickly coming upon us. It gets especially difficult for those experiencing homelessness when the evenings and mornings do not cool down. We have the responsibility to provide for the immediate needs for those who do not have access to clean drinking water. It can be a life and death situation for many in our communities. According to the AZ Dept of Health Services, nearly 2,000 people go to the emergency room for heat-related illnesses. Some never recover. Last year in the Phoenix Metro area alone, there were 600+ deaths due to the extreme heat.

As we begin our Annual Hydration Water Drive here at St. Patrick Catholic Community, please consider making a donation or pick up an extra case of water the next time you are at the store. Our efforts here touch the most vulnerable in our society.

To make an online donation to the water drive, please visit stpatcc.org/waterdrive.

"We must speak of man's rights. Man has the right to live. He has the right to bodily integrity and to the means necessary for the proper development of life, particularly food, clothing, shelter, medical care, rest, and, finally, the necessary social services."

Pope John XXIII, Peace on Earth

Just Coffee Ministry

The Just Coffee ministry will be selling the Café Justo brand coffee next weekend on May 11 & 12. You are invited to stop by the table in the Narthex.

Selling this Café Justo coffee product supports the farmer cooperative in Mexico and provides their workers with livable wages and job opportunities, ultimately keeping families together on their own land. This is a faith in action ministry at St. Patrick that addresses immigration, trade imbalances, and poverty in third world countries. All workers and families receive healthcare and pensions, and profits are reinvested in their communities.

We are in need of ministers to help this coffee ministry continue. Contact Richard DiCarlo at rdicarlo@stpatcc.org, or 480-998-3843 ext. 107.
