First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Our parish had the honor to host our parishioners and guests for our annual Fall Festival. It was great to see our campus filled with people enjoying the Halloween holiday, eating some good food and seeing the children in their costumes receiving candy from the Halloween themed cars.

I want to express my thanks to the parish staff for working hard in making sure the details were given attention. We thank the parishioners who helped with providing candy and even their decorated cars. To the Men's Club for donating and organizing the food and being present to the community.

The role of the parish community is to let the greater community know we welcome them to our campus and community. That we are built to serve the greater community and provide a safe place for families to gather and celebrate this time of year.

I want to also express my thanks to staff member Carol LoPorto and the Social Justice/Outreach staff members for making sure our annual Interfaith Breakfast was a success. We had 150 people from different denominations, people from the private and public sector gather for information on resources that are available for those with mental health needs. We saw many in attendance take notes and speak with the different non-profit organizations that were present to help all church communities be aware of all that is available.

There are more great events coming to our parish before the end of the year.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

Knowing God is an attractive quality. Consider that phrase. Think about people in your life who seem to really “know God” well. Perhaps it’s your pastor, someone who works at your parish or school. It could be your favorite speaker or author... that soul who just seems to know God on a level that you desire to know Him.

Whoever the person, when we encounter souls who seem to have a deeper connection to the Lord, it is natural for us to be drawn to them. This is how so many preachers and leaders of different denominations can amass such huge followings, given their charisma and giftedness. The problem, however, is when those who seem to “know” God lose touch with Him on a personal level. The first reading gives a stern warning to those priests entrusted with preaching God’s truth but who, instead, seek personal glory or comfort. Christ points to the Pharisees and Scribes — all learned men — who lord their knowledge of God’s laws over the people even though they are personally far from the Lord in their own hearts. The psalmist praises the children of God who find their peace solely in the proximity and care of their parent. St. Paul carries on that same imagery of a child beloved by God and praises those followers who put up with hardship because they received not just “words about God” but the Word of God (Jesus). The Thessalonians are praised for their faithfulness to God and their humility in “knowing Him.” When we know who God is, we also discover who we are.

Ask yourself if people are drawn to you because of your faith, and then consider how well you turn that attention back to the Lord. For if people come to you seeking Christ and only find you, what have you accomplished? As Jesus reminds us, our leadership is rooted in our service, “The greatest among you must be your servant.”

St. Patrick Just Coffee Ministry will be selling coffee in the Narthex November 11 and 12. Our parish has partnered with the Mexican Cafe Justo cooperative farmers since 2007. Their mission is to provide high quality, certified organic, freshly roasted coffee to customers for a price that is fair and just. The Just Coffee ministry supports this cooperative which provides Mexican workers with livable wages, job opportunities, and keeping families together on their home land.

This faith-in-action ministry at St. Patrick addresses immigration, trade imbalances, and poverty in third world countries. All workers and families receive healthcare and pensions, and profits are reinvested in their local communities. The farmers are proud of their coffee, and have their names on the bags. They earn over twice the amount per pound offered by the international corporations. You are not just buying coffee, but you are buying Just Coffee, which is Fair Trade. Please support this Ministry by purchasing this excellent coffee.

We are also in need of additional volunteers to help sell coffee once a month at any Mass you select. Contact Richard DiCarlo at rdicarlo@stpatcc.org, or 480-998-3843 ext.107.

Tax Credit Ministry Weekend takes place
this weekend on November 4 and 5!!!

Several different organizations will be visiting our parish to share with you information about their mission and how directing your state charitable tax donation can benefit both you and their organizations.

Each organization will have a table set up outside of the church doors after all Masses to help you decide where to put your dollar-for-dollar AZ tax credit. Yes, dollar-for-dollar. This means, the Arizona State Tax Credit program allows you to make a donation to an eligible organization and receive a dollar-for-dollar credit against Arizona state taxes owed. You don't have to pick just one. Remember to always check with your tax professional for specific questions.

Walking with Purpose-Opening Your Heart: The Starting Point

This study explores the fundamental questions of our Catholic faith and our relationship with Jesus Christ. Join us as we examine the core questions that we need to wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us:

- How do I get my priorities in order?
- I've been going through the motions in my spiritual life—how does it relate to my day-to-day life?
- How do I get to know Christ in a personal way?

You are welcome to join us on Mondays from 10:00 - 11:30 am, House of Mercy, Bldg E, Pope Francis Room.

For more information, contact Patrice Morace at walkingwithpurpose@stpatcc.org.
