Easter 2023

FROM THE Pastor

Dear Friends,

One of the most beautiful things about Easter Sunday is how the many houses of God are filled with his people. Resurrection still touches the hearts of people and reminds us that the ones we have lost through death are welcomed into God's Kingdom and one day we shall see them again. You will notice a very large candle near the altar during the 50 days of Easter called the "Paschal Candle." In Hebrew "Paschal" means Passover and we believe that Jesus passed over from death to life. At our baptism we receive a candle lit from the Paschal Candle to remind us that we will share in a death like Jesus and we will also share in his Resurrection.

At St. Patrick one notices the round altar, reminding us that the table is accessible from every side. It is at the center of our entire sacred space. The altar belongs to the baptized, all of us. Underneath our altar are three angels holding up the table of the Lord. These angels represent that, at the same time we eat the heavenly bread, all the people who have gone before us eat the same bread at the heavenly banquet. We are connected to the people who have died, we have not lost them. The Church in Heaven is connected with us, the Church on earth. This is exactly what our faith teaches and believes. Even though Easter Sunday is a big day for many people, the Church offers 50 days of Easter celebration! So the flowers will remain, the Paschal Candle remains in front, and we hear of the Resurrection appearances of Jesus. What a great reminder that 40 days of Lent leads us to 50 days of Easter where we celebrate well these sacred mysteries.

As you read this, please remember you never lose your place at the table of the Lord. The Lord invites us to eat and then live the Gospel of Jesus Christ out in the world. I hope that those who have been away from the table will consider eating the bread of life together in community and with those who have died and gone to the heavenly banquet. We have not lost our loved ones who have gone home to the Lord.

Happy Easter everyone and blessings on these 50 days of Easter!

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric Tellez, Pastor

GATHER • PROCLAIM • BREAK

During the Easter season we are focusing on the theme SEND. Throughout the pages of this bulletin you will find different "Send Stories" shared by the staff. How and where is God sending you?

Our Pillars

We hope that everyone will find these principles alive at St. Patrick. These five foundational areas, or pillars, are emphasized in all we do at St. Patrick.

LITURGY

We are committed to celebrating the sacraments well. The Second Vatican Council documents on liturgy clearly speak of full, active, and conscious participation in the liturgy, not mere spectatorship.

HOSPITALITY

We are challenged by our faith in Christ to acknowledge the presence of the person; to be inclusive in our attitude toward every person, and to be aware of the dignity of every person.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

We reach out in relationship with those we assist. This can then lead to systemic change and “right” justice. With God as the priority in our lives, concern for our neighbor’s lack of basic needs is our mission. However, our response should not simply be one of charity. Our parish commits both energy and resources to bring about justice in response to what the Church teaches for Gospel living.

FORMATION

We are formed and shaped in the image of Jesus Christ. From the smallest child, to preschool, elementary, middle school, or high school youth, up to the most mature adult, formation is to be first and foremost the transformation of one’s heart and mind to know Jesus Christ and live in that relationship. It is through this journey that we can learn the doctrine of our Catholic faith.

STEWARDSHIP

We are stewards, and as Christians we realize that what we have does not belong to us, but to God. Eighty times in the New Testament the word “steward” or “stewardship” is used; a reminder for us to be careful stewards of all that we have been given. This way of life needs to be the core of what we claim to be.

Baptism - Break - Renew

I was at the edge of the river where water was lapping over my shoes. I was trying to get a good angle to take a picture. Father Bob was out in the middle of the Jordan dressed in a long white alb and over knee deep in the water. There were dozens of baptisms going on all around him. Every once in a while he would kick or shake his leg. When he later came out of the water, I asked why he was shaking his leg. He told me that there were small fish nipping at his ankles.

So when John the Baptist was in that very same river with Jesus hundreds of years ago, were there little fishes also? Probably. So many people have entered a new state of grace in that river. They found a way of regeneration. Without realizing it "the face of the earth is renewed"! Renewal was the theme for the day. Later, Maggie and I would be just West of the Jordan in the town of Canaan where dozens of couples renewed their wedding promises.

But from Baptism to Renewal there is something. There is what I call the "Break!" For the most part it is a very soft, subtle thing, symbolizing purification or regeneration. But what an interesting thing is this word "break."

We "break" bread. We have breakfast. To rest, we take a "break". After a long hot spell, the temperature drops and there is a "break" in the weather. Someone seems to have no luck so they say "they can't catch a "break". Waves "break" on the rocky shore. A detective says, "It was a nice "break" in the case. A dejected love thinks "break" my heart. When we play a game of pool, we "break" the triangle formation of balls and the balls scatter all over the table. So in all of these "breaks" we go from one condition to another.

During the recent funeral of Queen Elizabeth there was one ritual that showed the Lord Chamberlain holding up what is referred to as the Queen's Wand or Queen's Stick. The Lord Chamberlain held the Stick above his head and snapped the stick in half. It is called the "Breaking of the Queen's Stick." The pieces are then placed on the coffin of the Queen. This is to indicate that the Ruler is gone and the Lord Chamberlain is no longer in that position. A new Ruler will pick a new Lord Chamberlain.

So, in Baptism we go from one state to another, from one condition to a new condition. The "break" is not even noticed. It is so smooth and soft and embracing. In Baptism, it is renewing and SENDING us on our Way!

Where is God sending me?

"I have no idea... what I do know... is that where I am going has something to do with where I have been. Looking over the last 5-10 years I have been introduced to a world I did not want to know and people I did not want to meet. What I do know... is that this world and the people in it have changed me. Changed me in a good way - not without pain, tears, disillusionment, confusion, grief and anger. From all those things have come transformation, to the fruits of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. The loss in our lives can lead us to where God wants to send us. So whether your path is smooth like the yellow brick road or bumpy with twists and turns, open your heart to where you have been and you will find where you are being sent. Thank you Christopher (1985 - 2020) for teaching me this valuable lesson." - Mary Permoda

A Prayer of Unknowing My Lord God, I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. Nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think I am following Your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please You does in fact please You. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that, if I do this, You will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it. Therefore I will trust You always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for You are ever with me, and You will never leave me to face my perils alone. Amen. (Thomas Merton)

Easter Meal Blessing

Creator God and Lord of Life, you who call forth from the darkness of death
all those who love you, we rejoice, on this Easter Sunday, in the resurrection from the dead of our Lord, Jesus Christ.
Visit our home and this table with your bright blessing of peace and life.
We pause in the midst of this prayer to remember all the holy dead of our family who live now in you and who await the final and glorious resurrection of the dead.

May they and we,
because of our faith in you, our God, taste in the victory of life over death.
May the Risen Christ, our Lord and Savior, be our guest as we celebrate his resurrection with this Easter Sunday dinner.
Bless those whose work to prepare this meal has truly been a work of prayer, and bless all of us who shall share it with Easter love and joy.

May you, then, bless this table and this food, and each of us in your holy name.

Amen.

Our kids, especially our youngest, might notice someone suffering. This created an opportunity for conversation with our kids, asking them things like: 'What do you think it would be like if you didn't have a home? What might be hard to do? How might you feel if you didn't have...' We've dedicated time to serving with St. Vincent de Paul and their Hearts and Hands program for some hands on experience preparing services for the poor. We've held donation drives at our home and really encouraged our kids to take the lead. ## The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

Preparation of the Gifts & Offering

LIVING HOPE

Phil Wickham | Brian Johnson

How great the chasm that lay between us
How high the mountain I could not climb
In desperation, I turned to heaven
And spoke your name into the night
Then through the darkness
Your loving kindness
Tore through the shadows of my soul
The work is finished, the end is written
Jesus Christ, my living hope

Who could imagine so great a mercy?
What heart could fathom such boundless grace?
The God of ages stepped down from glory
To wear my sin and bear my shame
The cross has spoken, I am forgiven
The king of kings calls me His own Beautiful savior, I'm yours forever
Jesus Christ, my living hope

Hallelujah, praise the one who set me free Hallelujah, death has lost its grip on me
You have broken every chain
There's salvation in your name
Jesus Christ, my living hope

Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence, the roaring lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Then came the morning that sealed the promise
Your buried body began to breathe
Out of the silence, the roaring lion
Declared the grave has no claim on me
Jesus, yours is the victory

Communion Songs

CHRIST IS RISEN

Matt Maher | Mia Fieldes

Let no one caught in sin remain
Inside the lie of inward shame
But fix our eyes upon the cross and run to him who showed great love and bled for us, freely you've bled for us

Christ is risen from the dead trampling over death by death Come awake, come awake
come and rise up from the grave
Christ is risen from the dead
we are one with him again
Come awake, come awake
come and rise up from the grave

Beneath the weight of all our sin
You bowed to none but heaven's will No scheme of hell no scoffer's crown
No burden great can hold you down
In strength you reign
Forever let your church proclaim

*O death where is your sting
O hell where is your victory
O church come stand in the light
The glory of God has defeated the night
Singing O death where is your sting
O hell where is your victory
O church come stand in the light
Our God is not dead he's alive he's alive*

BECAUSE HE LIVES

Maher | Tomlin | Carson | Cash | Gaither | Ingram

I believe in the Son
I believe in the Risen One I believe I overcome by the power of his blood

Amen, Amen. I'm alive, I'm alive because he lives
Amen, Amen.

Let my song join the one that never ends
Because he lives

I was dead in the grave
I was covered in sin and shame
I heard mercy call my name
He rolled the stone away

*Because he lives I can face tomorrow
Because he lives every fear is gone
I know he holds my life, my future in his hands*

Song of Praise

O COME TO THE ALTAR

Elevation Worship

Oh, what a Savior. Isn't He wonderful?
Sing Hallelujah, Christ is risen
Bow down before Him
For He is Lord of all
Sing Hallelujah, Christ is risen

Final Prayer

Please join us in reciting this prayer

Good and gracious God, we give you praise
for the greatest sign of new life;
the resurrection of your son,
our Lord Jesus Christ.

The sadness and despair of his death has given way to the bright promise of immortality.

For the resurrection is our guarantee that justice will triumph over treason, light will overcome darkness, and love will conquer death.

As we celebrate,
may we live the promise given to us in Baptism, by imitating the life of Jesus in reaching out to the poor, the marginalized, and the least among us, as we strive to be neighbor to all we meet.

We praise you in this Easter season.
Change our lives;
change our hearts to be messengers of Easter joy, hope and peace.

We ask this through Christ our Risen Lord.

Amen.

Sending Forth

Easter Vigil Gospel: Luke 24:1-12

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, approached, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His appearance was like lightning and his clothing was white as snow. The guards were shaken with fear of him and became like dead men. Then the angel said to the women in reply, "Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you." Then they went away quickly from the tomb, fearful yet overjoyed, and ran to announce this to his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them on their way and greeted them. They approached, embraced his feet, and did him homage. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

Commentary

The two women return to the tomb most likely anticipating that they will find the crucified body of Jesus. But instead they encounter an angel, a sign that God is at work. The earth shakes as a sign that things will never be the same. The angel sits on the stone as if to indicate that tombs going forward will forever remain open for they no longer have a purpose. The frightened women then twice receive a command that all of us are supposed to hear: Stop being afraid! God has defeated death. In the resurrection there is no place for fear, only joy. Go forth and spread the good news.

GIVING | PRAYING | SERVING

During Lent we were invited to reflect on the Paschal Mystery by our Lenten sacrifices of almsgiving, prayer, and fasting. Now we are invited to reflect on Jesus' Resurrection and the gift of eternal life that he gives to us.

Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. In the Easter Gospel we hear about how the disciples found the tomb empty three days after Jesus' death. We are also told that they do not yet understand the Scriptures or that Jesus had been raised from the dead.

That understanding gradually unfolded for the disciples as they began to experience the risen Lord. Similarly, our understanding of Jesus' Resurrection unfolds for us throughout our lives. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

In the weeks ahead, we will hear how the first disciples moved from confusion, doubt, and skepticism to faith. Their experience can teach us how we too might receive this gift of faith from God.

Sent in Service

When we break something, it usually splinters into several pieces. Some small, some big. The beauty about our work in Social Justice and Outreach (SJO) here at St. Patrick Catholic Community is that the word “break” takes on a little different, but positive, connotation. After we gather and hear the word, we break bread together as a community. It is in this break that we also allow the readings we heard and the bread we consumed to penetrate our minds and hearts.

What is the gospel asking of me today and the coming week? Where in the wider community am I being called?

A big part of being Church is acknowledging that it is alive and not dormant. It serves the wider community rather than itself. Our Catholic Social Teaching tells us that participation and collaboration with those in government, nonprofits, and other faith organizations is essential. We are one unified faith community that brings its gifts to the most vulnerable in our society. During your BREAK from the word, discern where the Living Christ is SENDING you during this Easter Season.

Many of us have a voice of justice to share and talents of charity to lend from our own lived experiences. Nothing is too big or small when promoting the common good.

Easter blessings from all of us in SJO.

- Richard DiCarlo
