First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

The seasons of Lent (40 days) and Easter (50 days) are movable on the Church calendar. This year Lent begins this Wednesday, February 14, with Ash Wednesday, while Easter will be March 31. This is really early for us.

Many people will be coming to church to receive ashes on their foreheads and the ashes will be made in the sign of the cross. At our parish we ask everyone a question, "will you turn away from sin, and be faithful to the Gospel?" This gives everyone an opportunity to say "yes" to the discipline of Lent.

We offer two Masses that day, 8:00 am and 12:05 pm (live stream/on demand). Ashes will be distributed during the Mass. We offer what is called Word Services, this means prayers, the Ash Wednesday scriptures, a homily, blessing of the ashes and then distribution of ashes. The Word Service takes about one half hour. We offer 6:30 am (daily Mass chapel) 10:00 am, 4:15 pm and 5:30 pm (all in the church).

We have one priest for confession from 1:00 - 3:00 pm on Ash Wednesday.

We will have a Lent/Easter bulletin available to hand out with all the information about Lent/Easter. There is a resource table in the Narthex for more materials to have and even to send to loved ones.

I invited everyone to be open to the disciplines of Lent so that at Easter we have grown even more in our faith.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY MARY PERMODA, Director of Pastoral Activities

Your Stewardship has allowed us to host these two great Diocesan events:

Charity and Development Appeal Training! Over 80 people attended from around the Diocese to be trained to roll out CDA in their own parish!

Catholic Charities Community Services Philanthropy Training! Catholic Charities Staff, Board of Directors Members, Diocesan Employees and St. Patrick Staff attended this great event to learn the state of charitable giving now and how to enhance our skills and build relationships!

Lenten Almsgiving - Ash Wednesday is this week!

The practice of almsgiving is to not only bring us closer to understanding our dependence on God, but also to bring the love of God to others. THANK YOU for your commitment to this Lenten practice through our global - Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowls, local - Habitat for Humanity banks, and parish - Catholic Charities Counseling. You will receive Almsgiving information in the Lenten mailing if you are a registered parishioner. If you are not registered, you can pick up your supplies in the Narthex at the almsgiving table.

The almsgiving collection is Palm Sunday the weekend of April 23/24 before and after all the Masses. There will be a table outside the church for your convenience. We hope this Lenten almsgiving practice is a way to grow closer to our loving God who is never out done in generosity. Thank you in advance!

MARK YOUR CALENDARS! PARISH SPRING LISTENING SESSIONS ARE AROUND THE CORNER!

What is a Listening Session?

This is a small group of 8-10 people with a facilitator who leads the group through listening to each other on a specific topic.

Our Spring Listening Sessions will take place after all Masses February 24/25, Monday morning February 26 after 8:00 am daily Mass and Tuesday evening at 6:30 pm. You will have a choice of three topics:

How has any of the challenges of mental health issues impacted you or someone you know? From your perspective, what would help and support look like?

The charisms of women are already present and at work in the Church today. What can we do to support them and to learn what the Spirit wants to teach us through them?

What have been the joys and sorrows you have experienced in the Catholic Church?

LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO MAKE OUR CHURCH STRONGER! BRING YOUR LISTENING EAR!

Stewardship

There was quite possibly no worse disease to be afflicted with in all the Bible, than leprosy. Beyond the physical trauma caused by this skin affliction, mental anguish was also a huge factor, since those who fell ill were completely ostracized by the community.

Because it was such a contagious and disastrous disease, lepers were forced to live outside the community so they wouldn't infect others. They had to signal others of their approaching presence by screaming, "Unclean! Unclean!" as we hear in this week's first reading. The leper lived a life of quiet desperation, unable to enter the Temple to worship, interact with loved ones, or have normal relationships.

The fact that Jesus stretches out his hand to the leper in the gospel is more than a mirror break of social and religious convention; It was like signing his own death warrant! The astonishment that falls the crowd here affirms the stigma that accompanied leprosy. The immediate cleansing of the leper demonstrated God's power over not only the disease but also cultural norms and religious laws.

Jesus did not perform this miraculous healing to draw attention to himself, as evidenced by his admonition not to tell anyone what happened. Christ wanted his Father to get all the glory, just as St. Paul spoke about in the second reading. We must not get weighed down by human pride and cultural thinking. Instead, we should put our energy into making sure our actions always point back to God (as we hear in the psalm) and seeking his glory.

- Are you detailed?
- Do you enjoy working with computers?
- Do you get satisfaction from organizing, arranging and putting things in order?
- Do you have 2-3 hours to spare on Monday afternoon?

If so, then Wall Street (our Administrative Team) needs your gifts and skills to help out in the parish office.

If computers aren't your 'thing' but you'd still like to help out, we are in need of one or two people to help with filing and/or calling and following up with parishioners during the week. Hours and days are flexible

Prayer for the Charity and Development Appeal

Generous and loving God, You call us to be disciples of your son Jesus, and good stewards of all your many gifts. Open our minds and hearts to a greater awareness and deeper appreciation of your countless blessings.

Transform us through the power of your Spirit to nurture a stewardship way of life marked by faith-filled prayer, service to our neighbor and generous sharing.

Teach us to be faithful servants of your gifts.
 With Mary's help, may we return ten-fold the gifts entrusted to us.

Amen

THE LORD heals THE BROKENHEARTED

"He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. He tells the number of the stars; He calls each by name."
- Psalm 147:3-4

Rebecca has helped hundreds of children find loving homes through the CDA-supported Catholic Charities' Foster Care program. It was her role in this program that inspired Rebecca and her husband, Jason, to foster 21 children and adopt their youngest daughter.

Fr. Shea is a joyful priest whose seminarian journey was funded by the CDA. As pastor of St. Daniel the Prophet Parish, he finds great fulfillment in being an instrument in the Sacraments – a meeting place where Jesus tends to the suffering and broken hearts of all who approach His mercy.

Through the Charity and Development Appeal you provide countless opportunities for our brothers and sisters in Christ to encounter our Lord, who heals the brokenhearted. Thank you for your generosity, and thank you for the gift you are to the Diocese of Phoenix!

God bless you,

+John P. Dolan
Bishop of Phoenix

The Lord truly heals the brokenhearted, and you are part of that right here in our local church!
Through your gift to the CDA, you support countless seminarians, priests, deacons, the elderly and vulnerable, those without a home or a meal, pregnant mothers, Catholic school students and college students, parishes, missions and so many more. Thank you!

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Gale Sayers, Running Back for the Chicago Bears

(Born) May 30, 1943 -
(Died) September 23, 2020

"You're gonna rock the boat, Sayers. And the people out there are already seasick..." (from the movie Brian's Song, when Gale Sayers was told he was going to room with white roommate and fellow running back Brian Piccolo when traveling for road games).

Titled "I Am Third," Gale Sayers wrote his autobiography when he was 27 years old. It encapsulates the relationship between him and teammate Brian Piccolo as well as the discrimination and injury struggles that Gale endured playing in the NFL. His novel was also the inspiration for the movie "Brian's Song." The title of the autobiography is based on the philosophy: My Lord is first, my friends are second, and I am third. The book was written after both a devastating knee injury Gale suffered in 1968 and Brian Piccolo's death from cancer in 1970.

Born in Wichita, Kansas, Sayers came from a family that struggled financially and ended up moving nine times in eight years. He had attended a two-room schoolhouse in Speed, Kansas which is ironic, seeing that he eventually went on to play at the University of Kansas in 1961 and acquired the nickname "The Kansas Comet" because of his agility and speed on the playing field. Sayers never did finish college but was signed by the Chicago Bears to a four-year contract in 1965 for $25,000 per year! He won the NFL Rookie of the Year honors in 1965 and set numerous records, including scoring six touchdowns in a mud soaked game against the S.F. 49ers.

Life turned sideways for Sayers in 1968 when he suffered extensive ligament damage to his knee during a game which nearly ended his career. Yet, his tenacity to return helped him to persist and play again. It was fellow roommate, friend, and teammate Brian Piccolo who advocated and inspired Gale to get his career back on track. In 1969, Sayers was awarded Comeback Player of the Year. It was almost unheard of in those days for a white man and a black man to room together, yet their friendship endured. They rocked the boat and their friendship endured. Sayers went on to play until 1972 and retired from the NFL at the age of 29.

Gale was married to his second wife Ardythe Bullard for 47 years before his death in 2020 from complications of Alzheimer's Disease. They were philanthropists that supported causes through the Gale Sayers Foundation for underserved students, the Boys & Girls Clubs, Boy Scouts, and the American Cancer Society.

Children's Liturgy of the Word is looking for caring adults who can help facilitate the program during Sunday Mass times. No prior knowledge is needed and training is provided. Please contact Yasmine Rodriguez (yrodriguez@stpatcc.org) at the parish office if you would like to find out more about CLOW.

February 11~ CLOW & Young Disciples at 8:30 & 10:30 am Mass

Young Disciples is a program for potty-trained preschool aged youth, 3-5 years old to encounter the gospel through story, puppets, drama and song. This week we did not meet due to our Family Mass, but NEXT week Young Disciples will be back! Please note Young Disciples is always looking for caring adults to lend a hand. Call the Parish office to find out how you can become involved!
