First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

I want to thank all our parishioners and friends who helped make our Vacation Bible School (VBS) a great success last week.

Diane Kar was a staff point person in addition to other staff members who supported VBS in many ways. There were over 160+ middle school, high school, and adults who gave of their time to make sure the children had a great week.

These type of events that happen in our parish happen because people work together and, whether it is work that is known by everyone or work that is necessary behind the scenes, everyone's work makes great things happen.

Our parish community expresses gratitude for all who made our VBS a great experience.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

Have you ever slothfully “wobbled” away from the Thanksgiving dinner table and thought to yourself, “I’m never eating again”? Perhaps you began to wish you’d worn sweatpants as the button on your pants was one exhale away from breaking free and potentially harming nearby relatives. No matter how full you were, eventually, you ate again. The food, no matter how tasty, only satiated your hunger temporarily.

The Israelites understood hunger and thirst far better than we do. When we pick up this story in Deuteronomy (our first reading) we are being reminded of their wanderings in the desert for 40 years, where they survived, daily, on manna and water provided by God. This daily bread may have sustained them physically, but their life depended on this bread and was, thus, very much day by day. This was the backdrop Jesus reminds the people of in the Gospel.

During this Bread of Life discourse, Christ draws on Israel’s history to give them a glimpse at their (and our) future. The Living Water and Bread of Life was offering them food and drink that will never run dry, never leave them hungry or thirsty again. Christ isn’t offering a temporary solution to physical hunger but an eternal solution to spiritual hunger: God’s literal and glorified flesh and blood — that is the cup we partake in and the bread we share.

So perfect and filled with love is God that He offers us this gift not once, but repeatedly. The Father calls the family together to His table weekly — daily, in fact — to partake in heaven while still on Earth. Perhaps that is why the Greek word for thanksgiving is eucharistia because we are sent forth from His table so full that everyone around us is in danger of coming into contact with His great love.

How do you approach Holy Communion? What does it mean to you to know that Christ abides in you? Do you view your relationship with Christ as something vital to your survival?

Social Justice

As our Water Drive 2023 comes to a close this weekend, we want to thank you for your continued generosity and participation towards this annual drive. Parishioners of St. Patrick Catholic Community have responded to this call over the years in the form of prayer, donating water cases, or monetary donations. You have all played an active role in this participation, ensuring that our parish continues to nurture and broaden relationships with outside agencies who provide this "gift of life" to the most vulnerable in our community.

In turn, thousands of lives are touched and sustained through organizations like André House, St. Vincent de Paul, City of Phoenix, and the water stations that are set up through the numerous municipal governments.

We as Christians are called to cultivate active partnerships with our local government and nonprofit organizations to ensure that nobody is denied this precious gift that ensures the dignity of life. Once again, you have answered the call and....Thank You!!

"....An important aspect of the declaration is that the right to water applies to everyone without discrimination. An individual's right to water must not be interfered with due to one's ability to pay, thereby preventing the poor from being excluded..." United Nations Declaration

ROCK45

ROCK45 is off for the summer and will resume in the Fall. In the meantime, we'll share some fun, creative ways to nurture your tweens faith this summer. Enjoy!

BLESSINGS FROM "A to Z"

While we head to camp or venture out on road trips during the summer, we play an easy alphabet game. For every letter of the alphabet, we try to state an attribute of God or name a blessing He has given us. Next, we name family members, friends, teachers and neighbors, and pray for them. The time passes quickly when everyone remembers God's character, His blessings and our friends.

- Joanna Heiser

EDGE

If you have any questions about EDGE for 6th, 7th and 8th graders, please contact the EDGE Coordinator, Thomas Bestul, tbestul@stpatcc.org.
