First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Suzanne Gilbert, a parishioner, saw a need in 2020 when we moved confessions to the classrooms. The need was to have one or two people present to welcome, guide, and converse with those preparing for confession.

Suzanne is still offering to serve as Hospitality for those who come to confessions on Saturdays from 3:00 - 4:00 pm. Suzanne provides comfort to those who might be nervous or need to be assured that a guidance card is there for anyone needing extra help.

Over the years she has come to know the people who come to confessions and continually makes new connections every Saturday. The act of welcoming is for the greater good, rather than trying to go back to the small confessionals. Thank you Suzanne for offering true hospitality to those who come to know the beautiful mercy of God each week.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

The Bread of Life

The Gospel this week comes from John 6 which is commonly known as "the bread of life discourse." Over the next few weeks we will continue reading from John and the bread of life discourse. These readings offer us a unique chance to pause and reflect on the meaning and significance of the Eucharist. Back in 2019 there was a pew study done that revealed only about a third of Catholics believe in the true presence of Christ in the Eucharist. In response, the US began a movement for Eucharistic revival in the country and culminated in a Eucharistic Congress that was held this past July. The mission of the Eucharistic revival is to reignite a passion and devotion for the Eucharist, promote understanding, and allow people to have a personal encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist.

The readings the church provides us over the next few weeks is the perfect opportunity to reflect on how the Eucharist plays a role in our life. The Eucharist is the source and summit of our faith. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself.

The Eucharist is the reason we gather every week. God wants to feed us and nourish us but we also have a role to play. Mass isn't just about the priest coming up and talking, but we are called to participate as well. Once you were baptized you were baptized as priest, prophet, and king. You were baptized with a common priesthood to make sacrifice and bring your offerings to God. We participate in the Mass by bringing our offerings and prayers to God, by giving thanks, and by listening and being present.

It is interesting to note in the offertory, the priest prays, "Blessed are you Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness, we have received this bread we offer you: fruit of the earth and work of human hands. May it become for us the bread of life." In this prayer, we recognize God's creation of wheat and grapes are now shaped by human work into bread and wine. These prayers show the offerings are only possible with both divine and human work. The bread and wine represents the call and our response to be "co-creators" with God and "co-redeemers" with Christ.

This week I invite you to reflect on the Eucharist. Maybe read the entirety of John 6 on your own time and reflect on the words of Jesus. Maybe consider spending time in adoration in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament this week. Maybe it is reading a book about the Eucharist. Whatever it may be, consider the Lord's invitation to prayer this week and think about what the gift of the Eucharist means to you.

Funny & FACT

"What did the flowers do when it was time for Mass to start?"

"They rose."

There's a lot of movement during a Catholic Mass — standing, sitting, kneeling. Standing is a sign of respect and wonder, so it's a fitting prayer posture at Mass.

Rest: Make sure your children get enough of it.

Children need plenty of sleep under normal circumstances (nine hours per night is recommended) but especially during stressful times. To help your children sleep soundly, reduce their television & screen time and have them avoid caffeinated drinks late in the day. Quieter activities, like reading will help them wind down.

Emphasize your children's strengths.

You should encourage your children to use this strength in a positive way. Spending time with friends also helps to lessen stress.

Look to healthy outlets for stress.

Physical activity is not only an important component of physical health. It also can help children cope with mental stress. You can also encourage your children to listen to music or find hobbies that make them happy.

AXE their bad mood by getting outside.

Being outside can boost your children's mood. Taking a few extra minutes to spend time outdoors each day can make a big difference in your child's state of mind.

Attention all 4th & 5th graders, ROCK45 is for YOU!! ROCK45 is ministry to 4th & 5th graders, which includes games, service, fun, fellowship and faith building! ROCK45 resumes in September, on Monday nights from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. We'd love to have YOU join us!

Registration for all formation programs will begin on August 5. Formation team members will be available before & after all Masses the weekends of August 10/11, 17/18 & 24/25 to answer any questions.

Here's what parents & kids are saying about ROCK45...

"I really like going to ROCK45 and look forward to going so I can meet other kids my age & have fun with them. My favorite part is meeting new people." - Luke, 5th grader

"ROCK45 breaks open the word of the Lord at a child's level and makes it easy for them to comprehend. My daughter counts down the days each week until they meet on Monday nights. The activities that the children are a part of are fun, engaging and enjoyable. As a parent, I also enjoy being a part of some of the activities by volunteering. We love ROCK45!"
- Dori, ROCK45 Parent

Fall Registration starts next week! All middle school youth, grades 6-8, are invited to attend EDGE on Monday nights from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. We gather on select Mondays starting in September. EDGE offers an interactive, fun, and developmentally appropriate way for middle schoolers to engage with the Word of God, the Sacraments and the teachings of the Catholic church. Through small group experiences, they will deepen their relationships with Christ and each other. Save your Monday nights this fall to grow closer to Christ!
