First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

I am grateful for the response of parishioners to support the Charity and Development Appeal (CDA) for our Diocese. This appeal helps every parish look beyond their own parish community and offer support to all Catholic parishes, schools and all kinds of institutions and organizations. The support goes not only to those of the Catholic faith, but to many people the Church serves no matter who they are.

At our Masses last Sunday, we introduced our new Coordinator of Stewardship, Laura Whitney. She has served in our community for many years in different ministries and now she helps guide the parish in our mission of Giving, Praying and Serving.

I gladly support the CDA every year and I make it my commitment to preach at every Mass that particular weekend. I have received the benefits from CDA from years past, but I have also witnessed the great work that CDA does spiritually, mentally and physically to serve all of God's people.

I appreciate whatever support you offer to CDA and our parish family.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

The St. Francis Xavier Music Ministry is inviting musicians from all across Phoenix to join them for this concert, forming a new ensemble called the Phoenix Worship Collective. The evening will consist of charismatic worship music followed by an opportunity for healing prayer. Inspired by the new Office of Mental Health Ministry in our Diocese, we invite all those who are in need of physical, spiritual, emotional, or mental healing to come and pray with our prayer teams. We will also have special guest speakers who will speak on the healing power of God.

Remember that when we worship, God heals! We look forward to seeing you on Friday, February 17!

Saturday, February 18, 2023, 8:30am -1:00pm – Justa Center & Andre House

Justa Center

"Justa was a woman with a problem. Her daughter was mentally ill. As a single mother, she wasn't able to care for her daughter and keep her job. Eventually, they lost their housing and were unsheltered.

Justa had the audacity to ask Jesus for help, and when denied, she challenged his answer. She became the first non-Israelite woman to enter into what would become Christianity. The brief encounter can be found in the Christian New Testament book of Matthew, chapter 15 verses numbered 21-28. "

"Justa Center provides life-sustaining resources, services, and support to assist homeless seniors on their path back to housing, and supportive services to help prevent seniors from becoming homeless."

Andre House

"André House is named after St. Brother André Bessette, C.S.C. Br. André lived in Montreal, Canada and served at the college de Notre Dame run by the Congregation of Holy Cross. Br. André's main ministry at the school was to serve as the porter, the doorman. In that capacity he would welcome people to the school, run errands, and overall serve as a minister of hospitality. As he interacted with people, they would share their stories and sometimes ask for prayers. Br. André would pray with them, and also encourage people to pray to St. Joseph. Through these prayers, many healings took place."

Andre House was started by two Holy Cross priests and the original house at 1002 W Polk, Phoenix, AZ. The house was started as a descendant of the philosophy of the Catholic Worker and Dorothy Day.

The original soup line as told by Br. Richard Armstrong started with a Christmas turkey made into soup and served to the community.

André House strives to be a ministry of hospitality and love. A ministry of presence in serving guests; the community and each other. A ministry rooted in faith.

St. Joseph the Worker

“At SJW, our mission is to connect the Valley’s disadvantaged, homeless, and transitioning individuals to quality jobs. We do this by providing support, resources, and tools necessary for becoming employable. SJW hopes that by creating this connection, they will become independent and lead healthier lives that benefit their community and families.”

“In 1988, a group of André House volunteers serving dinner in the park responded to the cries of the homeless: “we want to work but don’t have the tools.” A few months later, Father Michael Baxter opened St. Joseph the Worker. Since that time, SJW has helped over 35,000 individuals experiencing homeless and other life transitions become employed. We continue to dispense the resources needed to remove employment barriers and create success.”

St. Vincent de Paul Society

“The Society of St. Vincent de Paul harnesses the power of community and partnerships to feed, clothe, house and heal individuals and families in our community who have nowhere else to turn for help. As important, SVdP provides meaningful opportunities for volunteers to serve their neighbors in need with love and compassion.”

St. Vincent de Paul has been serving our community throughout central and northern Arizona since 1946. Programs include:

- Services for people experiencing homelessness.
- Medical and dental care for uninsured patients
- Charity dining rooms that serve thousands each day.
- Food boxes for hungry families.
- Thrift stores throughout the region.
- Housing and shelter for vulnerable unhoused individuals.
- General assistance for families and individuals living in poverty.

Maggie’s Place* date to be announced.*

Transportation and fellowship provided departing from St. Patrick Catholic Community.

“...22 Years of Serving Moms. Maggie’s Place is an organization committed to serving mothers – upholding dignity, providing support for those experiencing barriers to thriving, and building an inclusive, trauma-informed community. Being founded in the spirit of Catholic social teaching, our core values of love, hospitality, community, and excellence derive from these principles. As we have grown over the years, we have remained true to our core values and mission, while proactively seeking to be a community that welcomes and integrates moms, staff and AmeriCorps members from all faith traditions and walks of life around our common purpose.”

Social Justice

During Black History Month, it is important to recognize those who took the road less traveled. Jackie took the bumpy road so that others behind him could better traverse their path towards success in sports and everyday life. The road was not easy for Jackie, but his efforts and fortitude set the tone in advocating for the dignity of the person and dignity of the rights of workers in his chosen field.

Jackie was born on January 31, 1919 in Georgia but grew up in Pasadena, California raised by a single mother of five. He attended UCLA and excelled in football, basketball, track and field, and baseball. From there he went into the Army. Little known fact was that he was court-martialed (but honorably discharged) for standing up for his rights and refusing to move to the rear of a military bus. In 1945, he was invited to join the all-white Dodger farm team, the Montreal Royals. His first professional game with the Dodgers was with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947 and went on to win Rookie of the Year. In 1955, the Dodgers beat the Yankees in the World Series for their first championship.

Upon retiring from baseball in 1957, Jackie continued to be a leader in the Civil Rights movement. He was the first African American to be hired to serve in a VP position for Personnel at a company called Chock Full O'Nuts. He continually fought to improve working conditions. In continuing his advocacy efforts, in 1963 he was a speaker at a famed rally in Washington, DC. He was a well known syndicated columnist where he encouraged people in his N.Y. community to become active in politics and business. In 1964, he co-founded the Bank of Harlem and in 1970 he founded the Jackie Robinson Construction Company.

Jackie had a short-lived life with his decade long battle with diabetes. He died in 1972 at the age of 53 years old. Major League Baseball retired his #42 jersey number across the league. His name will forever be remembered as a person who had the courage to break barriers.

"The most luxurious possession, the richest treasure anybody has, is his personal dignity." Jackie Robinson

A much appreciated THANK YOU to all of you for your wonderful response regarding your mindfulness and awareness for the food donations to our weekend food bins. Not only has the quantity of food been remarkable, but there has been a significant, positive shift of contributions towards healthier non-perishable food choices for those we serve. This indeed does recognize the dignity of the person and their daily needs. Keep up the great work St. Patrick parishioners!!
