First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

During the season of Lent people look for ways to deepen their faith by works of charity, fasting and praying. I would remind parishioners of one way that parishioners can pray during Lent.

Our Blessed Sacrament Chapel is open during the hours that our campus is open. The maintenance crew opens the chapel first thing in the morning and it remains open until the last event on campus has concluded. The entrance to the chapel is on the south side of our main building with a sign that says chapel. The chapel has the tabernacle in the middle surrounded by seating and kneelers. There is no other activity in that sacred space but to pray and be present before the Blessed Sacrament. We invite people to stop by for some prayer time in quiet reflection.

The Blessed Sacrament chapel is located in the middle of our campus as a sign that everything we do is centered on Christ. Parishioners for years have come at all hours of the day and evening to pray. We invite parishioners to consider some time to stop and take time to leave the busyness of life, and center our lives in Jesus.

Blessings to everyone during our Lenten journey.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Have you sat in Mass and wondered what is going on with the blinking ceiling light? After many attempts to solve this problem, we finally had to rent a high lift to get up to the light. As you can see we have some brave facilities team members (thank you Steve Head and Alvaro Lopez!) who not only fixed the blinking, but also changed out all the church ceiling lights to LED lights!

...and then there was (no blinking) light!!!

Thank you!!!

EMERGENCY FACTSHEET
EARTHQUAKES
FEBRUARY 2023

CRS Partners Already Responding in Turkey and Syria
CRS supports local partners to provide urgent relief following deadly earthquakes

Search and rescue operations continue after a 7.8-magnitude earthquake hit Adana, Turkey, heavily damaging infrastructure on early morning.

On February 6, a 7.8-magnitude earthquake devastated large areas of southern Turkey and northwest Syria. The death toll has surpassed 19,000 and continues to climb. Thousands of people have been injured and many are trapped beneath the rubble. The earthquake is the worst to strike Turkey in this century. Within the subsequent 24 hours, the region experienced multiple aftershocks and a second 7.5-magnitude quake.

Areas most affected in Turkey include Kahramanmaraş, Hatay, Osmaniye, Adiyaman, Gaziantep, Şanlıurfa, Diyarbakır, Malatya and Adana. Northern Syria was heavily affected in Aleppo, Idlib, Hama and Latakia. Lebanon experienced limited damage, mostly in the northern city of Tripoli.

Across affected areas, apartment buildings and schools have been leveled. Telecommunications are disrupted, preventing families from identifying and accounting for missing loved ones. In Syria, displaced people are seeking shelter in schools and community centers in areas already devastated by years of war. Across southern Turkey, schools are closed, airport transportation is impaired and hospitals have been declared unusable. Compounding these challenges are extreme winter temperatures. Southern Turkey and northern Syria are experiencing snow and sleet, with more freezing temperatures likely in the days to come. Among the most pressing needs communicated by our partners are safe shelter, food, medication, and winter supplies such as blankets to keep families warm.

DRIVE A GOLF CART

Change a life!

Why Drive? It's rewarding...

- To assist those who truly need help getting to the church.
- To be an ambassador of our faith community to out-of-town visitors.
- To serve families with kids. Kids love to ride the carts and it enhances their liturgical experience. (Who knows, it may be the reason they bring their own family to church when they grow up.)
- People often are disoriented by the large sections of parking and they value the personal assistance to safely find their way back to their car.
- You're already coming to Mass, why not try serving in a ministry while you're here?

Christ in Our Neighborhood

Prayer

God our Father, help us to hear your Son. Enlighten us with your word, that we may find the way to your glory. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Commentary

1st Reading: Genesis 12:1-4

Our readings today, beginning with Genesis, invite us to listen up!

Abraham received a call from God while in the land of Ur of the Chaldeans (Iraq, along the Persian Gulf).

God initiates a covenant with Abraham and his descendants with a promise that he will make of them a great nation.

Abraham, the Patriarch of our faith, is honored as one whose faith begins with listening to God. He hears God's call and he responds. "Abraham went as the Lord directed him."

Lent invites us to put God first in our lives and listen to the Lord. In order to respond to God's call, we must use our ears to listen. In order to listen, we must take the time to quiet ourselves and be present to the Lord.

Listen Up! God is calling us to do His will!

Question

Do I have a quiet place in my home - a meditative place - where I can focus my attention on God?

Commentary

2nd Reading: 2 Timothy 1:8-10

Listening to God is more than just hearing God speak to our hearts. True listening requires trusting in God. Many of us may hear a homily at Mass that could change our hearts. But, unless we place our trust in what we hear, we cannot respond. For example, we hear that we must love our enemies. These words sound nice but fall on deaf ears - unless we actually make an attempt to "love our enemies."

St. Paul's letter to Timothy encourages us to not only hear the Gospel (the Good News) of Jesus, but to place our trust in it. The temptation is to trust only in our own works and designs for our lives. Instead, Paul invites us to place our trust in the saving work and grace of Jesus who destroyed death and offered life eternal.

After all, who among us - using our own designs - can conquer death or fight our way into heaven? Only Jesus can! This is why we must listen to Him and trust in Him alone.

If we trust that Jesus conquers death and gives life, then why would we fail to listen to him and trust him in other things that affect our life?

Listen Up! Jesus is calling to trust in Him!

Question

How have I trusted God lately?

The commentaries over these 6 weeks of Lent are presented by Bishop John Dolan of the Diocese of Phoenix.

Commentary

Gospel: Matthew 17:1-9

The Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke each have the Transfiguration account. In each of the Gospels we read about the appearance of Moses and Elijah and Peter's response, "It is well that we are here." Also, in each account, Peter expresses a desire to make three booths for Moses, Elijah, and Jesus.

Only Matthew (not Mark or Luke) inserts the words, "He [Peter] was still speaking, when" God spoke from a cloud. In Matthew's Gospel, God interrupts Peter and tells him to listen to Jesus.

When we have something to say, we don't want to be interrupted. Lent, however, challenges us to stop talking and to Listen up! In these forty days of Lent, God wants to interrupt our normal way of doing things and listen to His Son!

The Gospel tells us that when the disciples heard the voice of God, they fell on their faces in awe. Lent challenges us to be in awe with the voice of God and of his Son. To be awestruck is to be alert to the fact that God is speaking.

This Lent, we should allow God to interrupt us - even disrupt us.

Listen up! God may just have something to say!

Question

This Lent, in what way am I allowing God to interrupt - disrupt - my normal way of life?

This Week's Task

Find time this week to visit the church and sit quietly before the Blessed Sacrament. Try not to say anything! Simply place yourself before the presence of God and listen to Jesus speak to your heart. Let Him interrupt your busy thoughts.

If you can't make it to church this week, try to find a quiet place at home and simply rest in the quiet.

Group Prayer

The leader invites each member to pass around a crucifix. The participants are invited to venerate the cross with a kiss or some other form of reverence. As a member holds the cross, he/she will say:

Lord of Abraham,

help me to trust in You.

Father of Jesus, help me to listen

as I place my trust in You!

The leader will then guide the group in praying Psalm 33.

Psalm

Response: Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Upright is the word of the LORD,
and all his works are trustworthy.
He loves justice and right;
of the kindness of the LORD the earth is full.

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him,
upon those who hope for his kindness,
To deliver them from death
and preserve them in spite of famine.

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Our soul waits for the LORD,
who is our help and our shield.
May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

Conclude with an OUR FATHER

Social Justice

During this last weekend of Black History Month, we recognize an individual local to Arizona, Calvin Coolidge Goode. Calvin was born January 27, 1927, in Oklahoma and died December 23, 2020, at the age of 93 years old. His family moved to Gila Bend, AZ when he was very young. His family worked in the agricultural fields picking cotton mostly. He graduated from the 8th grade but there were no local high schools that allowed Black students to attend so the family moved to Prescott. However, Calvin became very ill and it was a family decision to move to Phoenix for health reasons. Once there, Calvin attended Carver High School, a segregated school, and graduated in 1945.

He furthered his education and received his BA in business and MA in Education from Arizona State University. Although his parents were strong proponents of education, they themselves were never able to study beyond grammar school. Calvin got hired by Carver High School where he was an accountant until the school closed in 1954. He then was hired by the Phoenix Union High School District.

In 1971, he ran for a seat on the Phoenix City Council and won. He served 11 terms as a councilman for a total of 22 years. While in this position, he advocated for improvements in neglected parts of the city, job training in the community, improved programs for youth, and programs to ensure that women and minority-owned businesses would receive a proportionate share of city business and policy attention. Calvin also played a major role in developing policy which prohibited workplace discrimination against gays, lesbians, and minorities. He strongly advocated for the Martin Luther King, Jr. state holiday, championed a wide range of renewal programs, and served on school boards. To honor him, the City of Phoenix named a downtown municipal building in his name.

Calvin married his wife, Georgia, in 1960, and together they raised three sons. He lived in the same house in the Eastlake Park neighborhood (near 15th Street and Jefferson) for over 65 years! His favorite quote...."God is good."
