First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Every Catholic parish receives the challenge to go beyond its own walls and be willing to serve the community at large. This comes from the Gospel and also our Catholic writings. We look within our community to be nourished, inspired, and motivated to go out into the world to make the presence of Christ known.

Our Catholic Diocese is a fast-growing Diocese, and there is always a need to develop, grow, and be a Church that serves the entire state and beyond. Since the early 1970's, our Diocese has asked all Catholics to support our faith services through an annual Campaign called CHARITY AND DEVELOPMENT APPEAL (CDA). Since the beginning, Catholics and others have given millions of dollars to equip our Catholic Community to meet the needs we find in our area.

I am grateful that my formation to become a priest was supported through CDA and continues to support priestly formation even today. There are parishes that need extra assistance as they find themselves serving an economically challenged area. The many vulnerable groups are children, the elderly, veterans in need, the homeless, and the hungry. Important human support services of all types are served by the CDA.

I am an annual giver to the CDA. I have seen firsthand the tremendous good this campaign does for the Catholic Community it serves, not only Catholics but anyone who finds themselves in need.

Next Sunday at all our Masses we will present the CDA which will help you become even more aware of all the good that comes from supporting the CDA. The Diocese is still growing and we strive to meet the needs of all who live in our Diocese and State.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Mental Health: You Are Not Alone

Our mental health is much like our physical health, they are intimately connected to one another and both need our attention and care to live a fruitful and fulfilling life. Mental health has become a growing topic of interest as more and more people are discovering the importance and value of mental health care. In fact, statistics show one in every five people struggle with some type of mental health issue in a given year. One of the most important messages for those struggling with mental health is to know you are not alone. This is the message St. Patrick hopes to promote while offering a place of healing, education, and advocacy for those who are struggling with mental health challenges. As a community of faith we still have a long way to go promoting mental health awareness and reducing the negative stigma surrounding mental health.

Mental health is something that affects us all whether we realize it or not. It could be the recent death of a loved one, trauma, Alzheimer's, dementia, substance use disorders, or anxiety; we all need support and guidance. The unfortunate reality is many who struggle with mental illness will never seek help due to stigma, income, or physical limitations. St. Patrick has a long history of supporting mental health and continues to support organizations who look to connect people with the resources they need.

I am happy to announce two upcoming events within the area of mental health. On February 14, from 2:00 - 3:00 pm, in the House of Mercy, there will be an Alzheimer's and Dementia Presentation from ASU. Learn about groundbreaking Dementia and Alzheimer's research, including prevention strategies and the latest practice in minimizing memory decline.

Then on February 18, in Fenlon Hospitality Center, from 10:00 am - 3:00 pm, there will be a Hero's Wellness Forum. This is a community event for first responders and veterans to learn about mental health, self-care, and other support resources. Lunch will be provided and you can register using the QR code found in the bulletin. If you are interested in Mental Health Ministry, connecting people with mental health resources, and would like to be a part of planning future mental health events, you can contact Eric Tamayo at etamayo@stpatcc.org.

May we continue to "look twice" until we see Christ in all those we encounter, especially those struggling with mental health challenges. As a community, may we continue to spread the Gospel message of hope and love letting others know they are not alone.

Stewardship

Stewardship

In Luke 5:1-11, we see the story of Jesus calling His first disciples. Simon Peter and his fellow fishermen had worked all night without success, yet at Jesus' command, they lowered their nets again—and caught so many fish that their nets began to break. The miraculous catch of fish reminds us that when we allow God to direct our efforts, He provides generously. Stewardship is not about scarcity or fear but about faith in God's abundant provision.

Like Peter, we may feel unworthy or unsure, but Jesus reassures us: "Do not be afraid." When we trust Him with what we have, He transforms it into something far greater than we could ever achieve on our own. Stewardship is not just about giving—it is about surrendering our lives to His call and trusting Him with the results.

St. Martin de Porres:
A Life of Compassion and Service

St. Martin de Porres (1579–1639) was a Dominican lay brother from Lima, Peru, known for his deep faith, humility, and compassion. Born to a freed African woman and a Spanish nobleman, Martin faced prejudice and discrimination due to his mixed-race heritage. Despite these challenges, he became the first black saint of the Americas, celebrated for his selfless service to the poor, sick, and marginalized.

Martin entered the Dominican Order at the age of 24, initially serving as a lay brother, which allowed him to live a life dedicated to prayer, service, and caring for the needs of the marginalized. He was particularly known for his work with the poor, the sick, and animals. Martin cared for the homeless, nursed the ill, and even tended to animals in need, often performing miracles of healing.

His deep spiritual life was characterized by simplicity and humility. Martin is often depicted in religious art with a broom, symbolizing his humble service, and surrounded by animals, reflecting his love for all creatures.

Martin de Porres was beatified in 1837 and canonized by Pope John XXIII in 1962. He is the patron saint of social justice, race relations, and those suffering from poverty and illness. His life serves as an enduring example of love, humility, and the power of service to others.
