First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

At the 10:30 am Christmas Day Mass, I took the opportunity to express appreciation for the great work that many people did in making the Christmas week a special celebration.

There are people whose roles are in a public setting that their work gets noticed by the parish community. It is wonderful when people take the opportunity to express their gratitude to those whose efforts are noticed. I have personally experienced many parishioners over the years who express their appreciation not only to me, but to the parish staff or parishioners in leadership/service roles. I witness this so many times and that is a great gift of our community.

Now at the Mass, I mentioned the people who I would refer to as the “offensive linemen” of the parish, whose roles are vital but are not easily noticed by the people. Without the service of such people there would be so much missing from our experience. We were able to express our thanks to the many men and women and youth who worked behind the scenes to make Christmas a positive experience for the great crowds that were present.

Even though there were many people and groups, one ministry in particular I would like to give a shout out to is The Art and Environment Committee, under the direction of our Liturgist, Nic Cortez. This group is responsible for the church being decorated appropriately for the different seasons of the church year. They did another wonderful job with our Christmas environment as they set up the banners, flowers, manger scene, lights and other items. Also, with the help of our maintenance crew, it made our environment beautiful for Christmas.

To all the “offensive linemen” in our parish who work so hard behind the scenes, just remember the leadership here knows that nothing could ever be accomplished without these parishioners coming forward to serve.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

Happy New Year! I hope the 2023 year has started off well for you all. Many of us start our new year with resolutions, goals, new energy toward something new. It is a time to reflect, possibly restart something that has fallen away, change our priorities and sometimes it's a time to let go of the old (you fill in the blank) and bring in the new. For me, my BIG change thus far is changing roles at the church.

Allow me to tell you a little about my journey. I moved to AZ as a baby and have lived here off and on most of my life. AZ is my home, my family is here, my in-laws are here six months out of the year and my community is here. I didn't recognize how important a community, a faith community, was until later in my life. Sixteen years ago I started serving the youth of the parish. In 2007, I started ministering to our teens as a Core Member with Life Teen. I loved it so much that I joined the staff in 2013. Two months after taking the leap of faith to start a new career I found out I was pregnant with my identical twin girls, Abigail and Haley. For those who know me, know this was a lifelong desire that hadn't happened for my husband, Mike and I. I was a much older mom and God blessed me in so many ways through pregnancy. Many of you have observed, enjoyed and also walked with me as my girls have grown up. I tell you this because you, my faith community, are so important in my and my family's life! I have leaned on you during hard times and have celebrated the joys of life with you too.

Why did I make the switch you may ask. It was a hard decision because I still love ministry, I have loved getting to know every youth that has come through our formation programs during my time at the church. My girls are growing and need me in a new way. My new role as Coordinator of Stewardship will allow me to serve the wider community of St. Patrick in a way I never imagined. I am so excited to start this new year in a new role and see where God leads me. I hope you will walk alongside me as you always have.

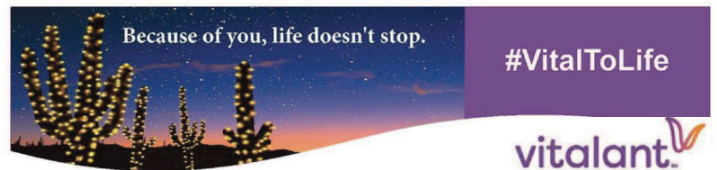

Smiles and Blessing to you all and may 2023 be our best year yet!

Cancer Related Fatigue: There is Hope!

Cancer-related fatigue (CRF, sometimes simply called "cancer fatigue") is one of the most common side effects of cancer and its treatments. Many people feel physically, emotionally and mentally exhausted most of the time, but there is hope!

Taylor Fitzgerald, a Physical Therapist at Honor Health, will offer different options that may help relieve some of the symptoms of CRF, including:

- Exercise recommendations both pre and post cancer related treatments including chemotherapy, radiation, and surgery
- Types of exercises that are beneficial
- Energy conservation techniques
- Knowing your limits while undergoing systemic chemotherapy, radiation, and post surgically

TAYLOR FITZGERALD specializes in oncology rehabilitation at HonorHealth. She graduated from NAU with her Doctorate in Physical Therapy in December of 2019 and in March of 2020 began working with the cancer population. Prior to and throughout school she has felt a pull toward the cancer community and she is looking forward to sharing her knowledge with our participants.

Our Program Serves anyone with cancer and their loved ones at any stage, any diagnosis, at any age, from diagnosis through survivorship.

Our Program is Always based on research, led by professionals, virtual and in person, and free to participants.

ATTENTION PARENTS

PARISH VERIFICATION INFORMATION

from the Diocese Catholic Schools Office

For parents registering their children for the 2023-2024 school year, please note: In order to receive the school's reduced Catholic Tuition Rate, your pastor must determine whether your family meets the criteria set by your parish for Registered, Active, Participating members. The definition of registered, active and participating varies by parish, but usually includes attending Mass regularly as well as contributing online or with an envelope to the offertory along with participating in the ministry life of the parish. If you have questions about your family's status, please contact the Parish Office.

Note: All Diocesan high school students receiving the reduced tuition rate for the coming year must have their status verified by their home pastor.

For St. Patrick Catholic Community Parish School Verification, parishioners must be registered, active and participating members for a minimum of six months prior to submitting their form for verification. For further requirements, please contact Torri Winn at twinn@stpatcc.org.

Social Justice

Labor Trafficking is a sub-category of human trafficking that many face because of vulnerable situations. Many are migrants who are seeking a better quality of life due to poverty, famine, war, and economic instability. Those traffickers that prey upon them take advantage of their undocumented status because they know that victims are too afraid of authority figures to report any illicit behavior or practices brought upon them. "A study of 554 labor trafficking cases over a ten-year period found tactics such as restriction of movement, withholding of documents, use of threats to family members, and physical/sexual abuse were common means of controlling the victim" (ASU School of Social Work, Gnaedig, Kaleff, & Newlon, 2019).

It is not uncommon for an individual, who agreed to be smuggled in order to seek a better life, to then be a victim of a "bait and switch" deception scheme. Promises are made that employment with a fair wage with housing is set and waiting for the person. Everything instantly gets changed and they are sent to work for an employer with unfair practices and/or unhealthy working conditions. They are made to feel that they need to pay additional "fees" now that they are in the U.S. This is known as debt bondage.

Smuggling has now turned into trafficking. Pay is withheld, documentation or ID is confiscated so they cannot identify themselves, and threats are made to the person or their families. Most are not aware of any labor laws. There are no workman's rights should one get injured on the job, which means no paycheck either. This causes a person to work while injured which perpetuates into negative health issues. Isolation becomes prevalent because of language barriers, lack of knowledge of surrounding areas, or having no socialization outlets.

What can we do? Educating ourselves is the first step. Watch in this week's Connection for a link composed by the ASU School of Social Work. Also, look at personal consumer habits. It is difficult to track the supply chain to the end-user most times, yet there are some websites that can help: Shop Ethical (ethical.org.au), The Art of Simple (theartofsimple.net), and Free World (slaveryfootprint.org).

If you suspect Human Trafficking, call the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888, Text 233733 or visit humantraffickinghotline.org.

ROCK45

WE'RE BACK!!! We are excited to see our ROCK45 kiddos this Monday, Jan. 23 for our NEW YEAR KICK-OFF, 6:30 - 8:00 pm in the church narthex.

A SHOUT OUT to the ROCK45 kiddos and families who set their Saturday morning alarms for an early wake up, and ventured down to St. Vincent de Paul's Hearts and Hands Service Opportunity on Jan. 7. What a great way to bring Jesus' love and goodness to the world, and a great way to start the New Year!

EDGE

EDGE kicks off Monday, January 23, in Fenlon Hospitality Center.

The EDGE is the designated ministry for all 6th, 7th, and 8th graders to grow in their Catholic faith and have a lot of fun.

Please contact EDGE Coordinator, Thomas Bestul, at tbestul@stpatcc.org if you have any questions!

LIFE TEEN

Life Teen returns tonight in our Fenlon Hospitality Center following the 5:00 pm Youth Mass. We meet until 8:15 pm. Dinner is always served, so bring a friend and come join the fun!

Please save the date of March 3-5 for our Spring Retreat! Sign-ups will be happening this week so check our website for more information!
