First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

There are three sacraments that, when received, we are fully initiated into the Catholic family. The sacraments are Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. Eucharist completes initiation. Confirmation can be very confusing for many people as Bishops in their own Diocese can set the age requirement to receive Confirmation. Traditionally it was right at baptism, as a sealing of the Holy Spirit received with baptism. Different decisions for each Diocese cause some people to miss or not receive the sacrament of confirmation. So every year at this time we invite any baptized adult who has not been confirmed to please contact us for a very brief preparation and to receive the sacrament at Easter time. If any parishioner knows people who have missed this sacrament, it might be a good opportunity to invite them to inquire about receiving this sacrament.

You may contact Lenny Kelly at the parish office or email him at lkelly@spatcc.org, to have a conversation on how to begin this process for Confirmation. We are glad to help people participate in the sacramental life of the community.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Angelic Doctor: St. Thomas Aquinas

On Tuesday the 28th, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas. St. Thomas is considered a doctor of the Church because of his extensive contributions to theology and our understanding of the faith. The story of his life is really quite amazing and his dedication to prayer and seeking the truth is equally extraordinary.

One of his most well-known works is called the Summa Theologica. The very structure of the Summa can teach us a lot. Aquinas follows a cycle beginning with God, then goes on to discuss creation, man's purpose, Christ, and then the Sacraments which lead us back to God. Interestingly enough, Aquinas doesn't begin with Christ and doesn't even discuss his impact until the end of his work. Aquinas begins with "beatitude," that is the perfect fulfillment of humanity and the ultimate goal of human life. He begins with this understanding of God and beatitude and secondly moves on to the means by which man can reach that end. This reflects the journey of faith for many as we first discover who God is and then journey closer and closer to him.

For Aquinas, man himself has a distinct knowledge of God which allows him to reach his end by use of his intellect and will. This becomes the crux of Aquinas' work. Humans are unique in their ability to reason, consequently it is proper to their rational nature that they tend towards an end by directing themselves by actions through use of their free will. Our knowledge of God, our use of reason, and our free will are all necessary to know God and grow in closer union with him. Our understanding of God, our faith, and the way we choose to act are all aspects of us living out the gospel.

For Aquinas, faith and reason are intimately connected to one another. Although he spent much of his life writing many great works, at the heart of his writing is the intimate relationship he had with God. We can learn from Aquinas because he shows us we should never be afraid to ask questions. Especially when it comes to our faith, we should never be afraid to ask questions. As Catholics we believe faith and reason go hand in hand. There is no contradiction between the two.

As another week goes by, I pose these questions: What are you doing to learn more about your faith? What questions do you have about an issue of the Church, and what are you doing to find the answer?

If you are interested in learning more about your faith, St. Patrick is currently offering a series called Catholic 101 for those interested in learning more about theology and the teachings of the Church. Classes are Wednesdays from 6:00 - 7:30 pm until February 26. For more information you can contact Lenny Kelley at lkelley@stpatcc.org.

Stewardship

Giving

Catholic stewardship is the faithful practice of recognizing all we have as gifts from God and responding with gratitude by sharing those blessings. Through time, talent, and treasure, we actively participate in building God's kingdom, supporting our parish, and helping those in need. Giving joyfully and generously of our financial resources is a powerful way to express our trust in God's providence and deepen our discipleship, allowing us to live out our faith in service to others. Giving in stewardship is not only an act of generosity but also a profound way to grow closer to God, as it invites us to align our priorities with His will. Through joyful giving, we become instruments of His love, spreading hope and blessings to those in our parish and beyond.

Catholics who need To be Confirmed

This message is for you!

Have you been BAPTIZED but never received your CONFIRMATION? Now might be the right time to receive your final Sacrament of Initiation.

All you need to do is show up on Feb. 15, from 9:00 am to 12:00 pm with your Baptism Certificate, sponsor (if they can come), and Birth Certificate. If you need a bit more time to get your Baptism Certificate or Birth Certificate, Dr. Lenny will work with you to get it done.

Dr. Lenny Kelley is doing a one-morning Sacrament of Confirmation workshop for all Baptized Catholics. I know many of you have been thinking about receiving your Confirmation for some time because you have told me. Now is your chance.

The Actual Confirmation will happen at the Easter Vigil (April 19) or when the Confirmation Mass is scheduled by the Diocese of Phoenix Bishop's office (TBD).

What do you need to do to receive your Confirmation?

1. Register by emailing lkelly@stpatcc.org with the subject line reading "Adult Confirmation."
2. Get your Baptism Certificate from the parish you were baptized.
3. Send your Baptism Certificate to lkelly@stpatcc.org or bring it with you on Feb. 15.
4. Attend the Easter Vigil or when the Bishop is here (TBD), and receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

If you have any questions, please contact

Online Giving Transition

Thank you to those givers that have already made the switch to our new online giving platform!

As mentioned last week, St. Patrick has partnered with a new online giving platform that is simple and secure to use, fully integrated with our member database and will save us administrative costs.

If you are a current recurring giver through WeShare (our old giving platform) or ACH through St. Patrick, you should've received an email on Friday, January 24 letting you know how to transition your recurring giving to the new platform.

If you have questions or need help with this transition, please reach out to:

Laurie Coffman at lcoffman@stpatcc.org ~ 480-264-4126
or Sue Orlando at sorlando@stpatcc.org ~ 480-264-4119

We'll also be available after all Masses this weekend (January 25/26) and next weekend (February 1/2) to answer any questions and to offer help.

Social Justice

They offer a range of services, including counseling, education, material assistance, and referrals, aiming to empower women to make informed decisions and to provide emotional and practical support during pregnancy and beyond. The Aid to Women Center is committed to providing compassionate care no matter the circumstances. Their goal is to educate, support, and encourage women and families through pregnancy. They understand that an unplanned pregnancy can be intimidating, but it is a journey that no one should have to travel alone. By donating to this amazing organization through the baby bottle drive you can be a part of making sure expecting mothers receive the care they need.
