First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

When one finds oneself dealing with a serious issue, crisis, or serious health concern there is so much to deal with. One can become occupied with the many tasks that need to be done and full attention must be given to the most important things to do.

In the midst of everything, we might want to remember that when one is unable to come to Mass regularly for serious reasons, it is good to call the Parish Office and request Holy Communion be brought to the person(s). The Ministry of Care is made up of trained parishioners, who can bring Communion, prayers, and spiritual items to those who are homebound, in care facilities, hospitals, and other places of care. I have come across people who have gone many weeks or even months without receiving Holy Communion. Sometimes they are overwhelmed with all that is happening or unfortunately one assumes that no one is available to bring Communion to them.

So I remind all parishioners who might find themselves, family members, friends, or neighbors who are unable to attend Mass for serious reasons, to please call St. Patrick and request the Ministry of Care to bring Communion. Holy Communion might be just the right thing for those who feel lonely, separated from others, or in need of healing.

I am grateful to all the Ministers of Care who give their time to visit the sick and homebound. They do make a big difference to those in need.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Family Promise: Countering a Culture of Indifference

Over the past few years Pope Francis has made it a point to talk about the growing culture of indifference we are facing around the world. With so much happening around the world it can be easy to feel hopeless, criticize, or simply feel indifferent to the hardships people are facing. Indifference has long been a challenge to overcome, but with modern technology it has become easier than ever for us to isolate ourselves, to retreat into our own world or a world accessible only to those who think exactly the same way we do. Pope Francis directs us to the parable of the Good Samaritan, to approach a stranger with compassion and a tender heart. In societies often polluted by a culture of indifference and waste, he said that "as believers, we are called to go against the tide with a culture of tenderness, that is, of caring for others as God has cared for us: for me, for you, for each one of us."

who are looking for stable housing. In June, with the help of over 80 ministers, we hosted five families along with their children on campus in the House of Mercy. I would like to thank all the ministers who gave of their time, staying overnight, offering haircuts, providing home cooked meals, and all those who accompanied these families on their journey to find housing. Families were excited to have simple amenities like snacks and drinks available, simple things that many of us might take for granted.

The way we put an end to a culture of indifference begins with compassion and acts of charity. If you sense a growing feeling of indifference in your life

It can become easy to take the little blessings we have in life for granted. Simple things like a roof over our heads, food in the refrigerator, or clean clothes to change into. Programs like Family Promise seek to develop comprehensive, holistic solutions for families facing homelessness. Over 80% of families in Family Promise's shelter program exit to stable housing. St. Patrick is proud to partner with organizations like Family Promise in hosting families consider becoming involved in a ministry or organization that seeks to help those in need. If you are interested in making a difference in someone's life, I encourage you to consider being a part of the Family Promise ministry as we hope to host more families in the future. You can contact the parish office or email cjada@stpatcc.org for more information. Even if it is one family or one person at a time we hope to change the culture of indifference by showing others that they have dignity and they are loved.

Funny & FACT

"What is a confectioner's favorite feast?"

"Our Lady of Mount Carmel."

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is a special Marian devotion for many people, and Carmelites in particular. Carmelites bless the Church with their dedication to prayer, community, and service.

Are you having trouble hearing during Mass?

If you or someone you know is having trouble hearing during the Mass, talk to one of our Hospitality Ministers! We have nine assisted listening devices to help you hear better and enter deeper into prayer. There are two options to choose from: A standard ear piece that is placed in the ear, or a T-coil neck loop that is placed around the neck and connects directly to your hearing aids!

Please refer to your audiologist to ensure your hearing aids are T-coil compatible.

That Man is You! stands out as a unique men's program, offering an experience unlike any other.

- It tackles real issues facing real men.
- It looks at the leadership role that has been entrusted to men and addresses the temptations and struggles men face in a culture that attacks authentic manhood.
- Finally, it helps formulate a plan that allows men to overcome these obstacles.

If you are interested in joining That Man is You!, please join us on Wednesday mornings at 6:30 am in the House of Mercy (Pope Francis room). We will be done by 7:50 am.

Social Justice

Our Annual Back to School Drive will run from July 13 - July 28, 2024

Unfortunately, parental incarceration is only one of a series of separations and stressful situations facing children who have a parent or both parents involved in the criminal justice system.

Some of the common emotional consequences that children face because of this are: chronic sleeplessness, difficulties concentrating, and depression. Many times this is caused by the child internalizing problems who may blame themselves for their parent being in jail.

The most common burden and social stigma associated with this issue is embarrassment and ridicule. Many times they are teased or bullied at school thus leading to low self-esteem. Others may react with anger, defiance, or a desire to retaliate against those who reject or taunt them.

Many families are strained for money so this time of year is a huge financial sacrifice, especially if the parent is incarcerated hours and hours away. There are also instances when a prisoner has been moved and the family is not notified.

Our annual parish Back to School Supply and Gift Card Drive will run until July 28. School supplies will go to assist St. Matthew and Roadrunner Elementary schools. Any gift cards we collect will assist those children preparing for school who have a parent who is incarcerated and distributed to them by the Diocese Prison Ministry staff.

Please see the flyer on Page 10 for details and more information.

We thank you for your continued support and generosity for those in our community who are in need.

Water safety tips for swimmers of all ages

Learn to swim

Teach children at an early age – it's the best defense against drowning

Pool barriers/fences

Install a fence that surrounds a residential pool on all sides to keep wandering children out

Avoid alcohol

Designate a "water watcher" who is not distracted or under the influence of drugs and alcohol to watch swimmers

Use the buddy system

If one person has a problem in the water, the other may be able to help

Vigilant supervision

If it looks like a swimmer needs assistance, intervene immediately

Don't hold your breath

Avoid games where you hold your breath underwater for long periods of time

Looking for a way to "unplug" and engage the imagination?

Growing up our children loved to listen to Adventures In Odyssey, which is an award-winning, original audio drama series created for ages 8-12 and enjoyed by the whole family. Many a lazy summer day in the Kar house was filled with listening to these adventures. The episodes teach lasting truths and bring biblical principles to life, with just the right balance of fun, faith and imagination.

The adventures often start with grandfatherly Mr. Whittaker ("Whit") who runs an ice cream shop called Whit's End. Young friends from all over town come to Whit for advice, and his employees (perky Connie Kendall and genius Eugene Meltsner) often learn as much as the kids! And Wooton Bassett, the zany, fun loving mailman, helps the kids in his own unique way.

You can find out more about Adventures in Odyssey online, at adventuresinodyssey.com. Tune into an episode while creating Legos, coloring, doing crafts or riding in the car. - Diane Kar

Fall Registration is coming soon! All middle school youth of the parish, grades 6 - 8 are invited to attend EDGE Monday nights from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. We meet on select Mondays starting in September. EDGE always involves the opportunity to break open the word of God in a way that is interactive, fun and developmentally appropriate for middle school youth. Through small group experiences middle schoolers grow deeper in their relationship with Christ and one another. Save Monday nights this fall to grow closer to Christ!

Hello everyone, we hope you are having a blessed summer! We have some great summer nights planned for our teens on July 21 and 28 at the youth garage!

We are excited that again this year we are taking 15 teens to California for summer camp. We can't wait to share some highlights with you in the coming weeks. Stay cool!
