First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

There are people who feel most comfortable in receiving parish information from the bulletin. It is a resource that they are familiar with yet others are using good technology in receiving information. I would encourage as many parishioners as possible to sign up to receive our weekly email connection sent every Thursday. It is the latest information from the parish and there are videos and links to help guide parishioners who might be interested in events or serving.

Here is how successful our email connection is. Most businesses and organizations that send emails to share information usually have about 25% of people opening their email. That is the average. For St. Patrick, we have over 60% of people opening our weekly email connection. That is a remarkable stat according to those who understand that business. So it would make sense to sign up and receive the weekly email connection. Simply go to stpatcc.org/connection and sign up. If help is needed, please feel free to contact the parish office. We'll be glad to offer the 'how to' information.

The bulletin is still available for people who need it. It is helpful in bringing information to the homebound or those in the hospital or care facilities.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Choosing the Better Part

Today's Gospel with Mary and Martha is a familiar passage that often causes a bit of tension within ourselves. For those who have ever hosted a party before; you know exactly what I mean. There is a lot of work involved in hosting a gathering. It doesn't seem fair that Martha does all the work while Mary sits. Frustrated, Martha appeals to Jesus to send Mary to help her. But instead of scolding Mary, Jesus gently corrects Martha, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." But how do we reconcile this sense of unfairness with the words of Christ, who affirms Mary has chosen the better part?

Many commentaries on this passage highlight both the active and contemplative side of prayer as reflected by Martha and Mary. Martha is active in serving those around her while Mary chooses to spend time listening to the words of the Lord. In this way we see the importance of both aspects of prayer, both contemplative and active. And while this is helpful it doesn't get to the heart of the matter. If we look at the words of Jesus, it becomes clear. Martha is corrected by Jesus because she had become "anxious and worried about many things." Jesus reminds all of us there is only need of one thing. Rather than being worried about many things, Jesus calls us to focus on one thing, namely God himself.

This passage is not a dismissal of Martha's service, it is a call to balance and refocus. In our busy lives, filled with work, responsibilities, and distractions, it is easy to become like Martha: anxious, overextended, and focused on doing. But Jesus reminds us that above all, we are called to be with Him. Mary's posture, sitting and listening, teaches us about the importance of prayerful attentiveness, of making space in our hearts to hear the voice of the Lord.

As we reflect this week, let us ask ourselves: Are we making time to sit at the feet of Jesus? Are we anxious about many things? Do we give priority to His Word in our lives, or do we allow the busyness to drown out His presence? May we, like Mary, choose the better part, not to neglect our duties, but to anchor them in the peace and presence that only Christ can give.

Stewardship

Stewardship

In the gospel today, we encounter Martha and Mary—two sisters who welcome Jesus into their home, each responding differently to His presence. Martha busies herself with hospitality, while Mary sits at Jesus' feet, listening to His words. This reminds us that while active service (like Martha's) is valuable, stewardship begins with prayerful attentiveness to God's Word, as exemplified by Mary. Stewardship is not just about doing but about being—being present to Christ, discerning His will, and allowing that relationship to guide all our actions. Mary chose "the better part," anchoring her service in love and relationship, which must be the foundation of all Christian stewardship. Reflection Question: How can I make more space in my life to listen to the Lord so that my service flows from prayerful discernment rather than stress or obligation?

To make a one-time or recurring gift, please go to stpatcc.org/give.

Family Faith Formation is our at home catechetical program, where we support parents with enriching materials to bring faith alive in the home.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is our weekly formation program for children age 4 through 3rd grade, incorporating Montessori principles to help children hear and respond to the loving call of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who has loved them first and calls them by name. Classes meet after school and early evening for an hour and a half, once a week, September through April. Contact: Renee Genetti at rgenetti@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 ext. 223.

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is taking a summer break! What a wonderful year it's been—filled with joy, learning, and growing together in God's love. We're so grateful for the children who joined us and can't wait to welcome everyone back in September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses. We're also looking for kind and enthusiastic adults to help bring the Word of God to life for our young ones. No experience? No problem! We provide all the training you'll need.

If you're interested in being part of this meaningful ministry, please reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at the parish office: yrodriguez@stpatcc.org. We'd love to have you join the team!

Young Disciples is on summer break! What a fantastic year we've had—full of learning, laughter, crafts, and creativity! We're so grateful for all the little ones who joined us and can't wait to welcome them back this September during the 8:30 and 10:30 am Masses.

Young Disciples is specially designed for potty-trained preschoolers (ages 3–5) to experience the Gospel in a fun and meaningful way—through stories, puppets, drama, and song.

Want to learn more or interested in becoming a volunteer minister? Reach out to Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
