GOSPEL REFLECTION FOR THE WEEK

Luke 11:1-13

[Jesus said] "If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

Gospel Thought Starter:
What gifts has God given me?
How am I using them?

Gospel for next week:
Luke 12:13-21

First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We invite everyone to take a look at our new and improved Parish Website. Even more friendly with all types of equipment, including cell phones. Looking forward to feedback as we can always find things to correct if people are having any challenges in finding information.

As the COVID numbers increase, we remind parishioners to feel free to wear masks to Mass or any meetings at the parish. At the current time, hospitalizations are up, but ICU stays and deaths are low for now. A reminder for those who are vulnerable to be sure to take good care of themselves and any loved ones at home that you take care of and serve.

We say goodbye to Brian Cannon who has taken a new position up the road at Notre Dame Prep. A new position in working with the youth in ministry and other responsibilities. We thank Brian for sharing his ministry gifts with us through Adult Formation, podcasts and videos, and overseeing some important sacramental ministries. We were blessed with his presence with us.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY MARY PERMODA,
Director of Pastoral Activities

Sr. Maria from our Lady of Mount Carmel joined St. Patrick ministers in serving at Paz de Cristo!

If you want more information about Paz de Cristo or would like to join the team, contact:

Alex Cudzewicz, acudzewicz@aol.com or Rosemary Cudzewicz, Rose008@aol.com.

Did you know?

St. Patrick is built on five pillars: Liturgy, Hospitality, Formation, Stewardship, and Social Justice

What is Liturgy? The word Liturgy comes from the Greek, which means the people's work. It was a public work done for the service of others. In ancient Greece it originally meant the cooperation of all citizens to make society work. The Catholic Church defines Liturgy as public worship for the service of others. Liturgy is public prayer and ritual: it is communal in nature. There is nothing private about the Mass.

Participation in Liturgy

Visitors to St. Patrick always comment that we have life-giving and vibrant Masses and they wish they could take St. Patrick home with them! It is the ultimate compliment that someone can pay to our parish. Our uplifting Liturgies come from an understanding that all members of our Catholic Community take their role as a member of the assembly seriously and each of us has a spiritual responsibility to bring others to Jesus Christ at Mass.

St. Patrick has hundreds upon hundreds of parishioners involved in liturgy from the altar servers, to lectors, Eucharistic ministers, hospitality ministers, sacristans, art and environment members, and music ministers who are at Mass every Sunday simply seeking to bring others to Christ through the Word of God and Eucharist.

As Christians, we are called to be Christ to others. We are called to be of service, and this attitude is required of us at Liturgy. This responsibility to be of service to others comes from our Baptism and it is at the heart of being Catholic. Yet, many times you will hear people say, "I don't get anything out of Mass." If one were to search the scriptures and the sacred tradition of the Catholic Church this attitude is never taught by Jesus or by the Catholic Church. It is in giving the Christ that is found within us at Liturgy to others; that we receive.

Ministry Leaders, Stewardship Council, Finance Council and Staff, mark your calendars for our annual "Combo Leadership Retreat" CALLED TO LEAD, Saturday, August 20 at 9:00 am to 2:00 pm. More information coming, stay tuned!

Stewardship

In our Gospel reading from Luke, some disciples of Jesus ask our Lord to teach them how to pray. Jesus instantly offers them the beautiful prayer which we, of course, call the Our Father.

The Our Father is truly a steward's prayer. In it, we call upon God in an intimate way, as Father. We ask that His will be done (not ours!) and that His kingdom come (not ours!). In other words, we remember that He is our Creator, everything is His, and our focus in life should be on His priorities, not our own. Then we ask Him to supply our needs (to give our daily bread), forgive our sins, and protect us from evil. That is, we proclaim our complete trust in His provision for us and mercy towards us. We, too, commit to extending mercy ourselves (as we forgive those who sin against us).

As we pray the words of the Our Father, we recognize this basic truth about ourselves and God: God is our Father, and we are beloved and infinitely blessed to be His children. This is the basis of a stewardship way of life.

At the end of the Gospel passage, Jesus encourages us to pursue a relationship with the Father: Ask Him, seek Him, knock on His door!

He can hardly wait to bless us, His children. Remember that this week, then go, be a blessing to others! Stewardship is just that simple.

ATTENTION! PARENTS

TUITION RATE INFORMATION

from the Diocese Catholic Schools Office

For parents registering their children for the 2022-2023 school year, please note: In order to receive the school's reduced Catholic Tuition Rate, your pastor must determine whether your family meets the criteria set by your parish for Registered, Active, Participating members. The definition of registered, active and participating varies by parish, but usually includes attending Mass regularly as well as contributing online or with an envelope to the offertory along with participating in the ministry life of the parish. If you have questions about your family's status, please contact the Parish Office.

Note: All Diocesan high school students receiving the reduced tuition rate for the coming year must have their status verified by their home pastor before they can be registered as Catholic.

For St. Patrick Catholic Community Parish School Verification, parishioners must be registered, active and participating members for a minimum of six months prior to submitting their form for verification. For further requirements, please contact Torri Winn at twinn@stpatcc.org.

Early Morning Prayer

I come before you, Lord.

As the sun rises may your hope rise up in me.

As the birds sing may your love flow out of me.

As the light floods into this new day,
May your joy shine through me.

I come before you, O Lord
And drink in this moment of peace,
That I may carry something of your hope, love and joy
Today in my heart.

Amen.

Social Justice

This is our last weekend for the annual Back to School Supply and gift card collection. The school supplies will benefit St. Matthew and Roadrunner Elementary Schools and the gift cards will support children through the prison ministry who have a family member who is incarcerated.

We thank all of you who have contributed to this important ministry through your generous donations or prayer. It touches the lives of many in our community in different ways and gives them the support they need to kick off the school year!

Here is a prayer to reflect upon as we slowly edge toward the opening weeks of school:

Watch over our children as they begin a new school year. Bless their teachers, school administrators, bus drivers, school support staff, friends and classmates.

Keep them safe every day. We pray they may feel Your presence and know that You are always with them. Help them recall loving words of support for them. Give them wisdom to make good choices, and an openness to learn new things. Fill them with knowledge and positive thinking. Help them overcome obstacles and shield them from negativity.

Surround our children with good friends who also know and love You. Help them treat each other with kindness, fairness, and respect. May they treat each person they encounter as another child of God. Grant them the Grace to place their trust in You so they may know Your peace. Amen

Don't get burned! Sunburn happens quickly and can hurt you in many ways.

- ~ It accelerates skin aging.
- ~ Is the leading cause of basal cell, squamous cell, and melanoma in cancers.
- ~ Many people end up in the emergency room for sunburn-related medical treatment.
- ~ Having 5+ sunburns doubles your risk of developing melanoma, one of the deadliest forms of the disease.

Sunburn is bad news, but the good news is that it's totally preventable.

If you are going to be spending time outside protect yourself.

- ~ Wear sunscreen.
- ~ Wear UV protected sunglasses.
- ~ Wear a broad brimmed hat.
- ~ Choose clothing that blocks UV radiation.
- ~ Stay in the shade, especially between 10 am and 4 pm.

Trust...by John Seliga

A number of years ago I went on a business trip that started in Phoenix, flew to Tokyo, then on to Singapore and finally landed in Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia.

How, in our everyday life do we trust automatically without even thinking about it? On that trip I trusted the pilots, traffic controllers, tower operators, radar observers, aircraft mechanics and so many others that we can not even know.

On that same trip I was sent with my team to negotiate a contract with the Royal Malaysian Police to install a communication system throughout their country. They trusted us to do that. We trusted them not to abuse the system.

That trust was a big deal, but there are other everyday things, like passing safely through a green light, taking a drink of water, or following doctors orders. Will the car start? Will the brakes work?

We have childlike trust.

Our U.S. money is stamped with, "In God We Trust"!

We hear people say, "Trust me." What have we done to deserve being trusted?

Throughout the Psalms, and other parts of the Bible, the theme and message of Trust recurs over and over. Such as in Psalm 28:17:

"...the Lord is my strength and my shield. In Him my heart trusts, and I find help;..."

Every person who seeks, finds. And to those who knock, the door will be opened.

In life we pray for guidance. Persistently we ask for things. Not a single request goes unanswered. We just might not recognize the answer!

Trust runs alongside Hope, and with Trust we have Faith and Peace.

We give Thanks for Trust - Hope - Faith - Peace.
