First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

This Tuesday, the 2nd of August, our Diocese will have the installation of our new Bishop, John Dolan. Through the Diocesan social media and website, one can view the installation Mass, and we will forward the YouTube video through our email Connection. We welcome our new Bishop and look forward to his vision for our Diocese. We ask God's blessings on Bishop Olmsted as he begins his retirement. We keep him in our prayers on his new stage of life.

We say thank you and goodbye to Brian Cannon as he moves to a new job at Notre Dame Prep. Brian is very gifted and we are grateful for the talents that he shared with our community. We also say thank you and goodbye to Fernando Gomez who has accepted the position of Philanthropic Advisor at the Catholic Community Foundation. We thank you for all that you have done for St. Patrick. Our best wishes for both.

Signs at our entrance will remind parishioners that they are free to wear masks if they wish. The numbers of a new variant are up, and we are coming across a good number of parishioners who have caught the variant and suffered through the illness. Currently the ICU stays and deaths find the numbers are not high.

We remind everyone to take good care of vulnerable people in our families, in the people we encounter. Our Sunday Mass is still online to view if, for any reason, one cannot attend Mass in person. Disciples always serve the vulnerable.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY MARY PERMODA,
Director of Pastoral Activities

Staff Update:

It is bittersweet to say goodbye to Brian Cannon, Director of Adult Formation and Evangelization. Brian has taken a position at Notre Dame Preparatory. But, you will still see him and his family around as they are still parishioners! Thank you Brian for sharing your passion and love for your faith with the St. Patrick Catholic Community. We wish you all the best!

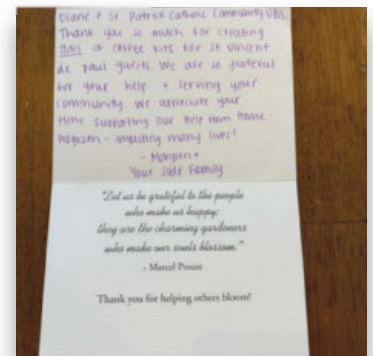

Congratulations Fernando Gomez! Fernando has accepted the position of Philanthropic Advisor at the Catholic Community Foundation in our Diocese. Fernando's last day was July 29. We thank you for your service here at St. Patrick, and wish you nothing but the best as you listen and respond to God's call!

Christian Disciples in Mission!!!

We received a lovely thank you card from St. Vincent de Paul thanking our Vacation Bible School (VBS) for the TONS of coffee kits we made for their guests. The coffee kits were made on Tuesday of VBS, while in service with Megan and Sara. The kits are a snack size ziploc with a packet of coffee creamer, sugar, a napkin, coffee stirrer and a note with the St. VdeP services/resources that are available. These kits are handed out each morning when they distribute coffee to those on the streets. I estimate we made around 800-850 coffee kits that day.

Join the Name Tag Sunday table host ministry!
This is a great opportunity for individuals and families to host a name tag table once per month prior to your regular weekend mass time.
For more information email Gina Accola at Callingministry@stpatcc.org

We made these in the Spring at ROCK45 and it was such a great tangible service project for the kids that we decided to do it at VBS.

Stewardship

Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about "stuff" as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.

TUITION RATE INFORMATION

from the Diocese Catholic Schools Office

For parents registering their children for the 2022-2023 school year, please note: In order to receive the school's reduced Catholic Tuition Rate, your pastor must determine whether your family meets the criteria set by your parish for Registered, Active, Participating members. The definition of registered, active and participating varies by parish, but usually includes attending Mass regularly as well as contributing online or with an envelope to the offertory along with participating in the ministry life of the parish. If you have questions about your family's status, please contact the Parish Office.

Note: All Diocesan high school students receiving the reduced tuition rate for the coming year must have their status verified by their home pastor before they can be registered as Catholic.

For St. Patrick Catholic Community Parish School Verification, parishioners must be registered, active and participating members for a minimum of six months prior to submitting their form for verification. For further requirements, please contact Torri Winn at twinn@stpatcc.org.

Beginning of School Year Prayer

God of wisdom and might,
we praise you for the wonders of
our being, for mind, body, and spirit.
Be with our children as they begin
a new school year.
Bless them and their teachers and staff.

Give them strength and grace as their bodies grow; wisdom and knowledge to their minds
as they search for understanding;
and peace and zeal to their spirits.

We ask this through
Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

CHRISTIAN DISCIPLES IN WISDOM

Presents our new course:

BLOOMING IN HOLINESS: ESSENTIALS FOR A LIFELONG ADVENTURE IN HOLINESS.

HOLINESS IS A WORD THAT WE, CHRISTIANS, HEAR A LOT. WE ARE TOLD THAT WE ARE HOLY, THAT HOLINESS IS IMPORTANT AND THAT WE NEED TO GROW IN HOLINESS. AS WE BEGIN THIS BLOOMING IN HOLINESS COURSE, THE FIRST THING WE NEED TO CONSIDER IS: WHAT IS HOLINESS?

THE WORD HOLY MEANS SET APART FOR A SPECIAL PURPOSE BY AND FOR GOD. ARE WE CALLED TO HOLINESS? ISAIAH 43:1 TELLS US THAT WE HAVE BEEN CALLED BY NAME AND THAT WE BELONG TO GOD. WE ARE ALSO TOLD IN JEREMIAH 29:11 THAT GOD HAS A PLAN AND A PURPOSE FOR OUR LIFE, TO BRING A FUTURE OF HOPE. IF WE HAVE BEEN CALLED, BELONG TO GOD, AND HE HAS A MISSION FOR US, WE ARE DEFINITELY CALLED TO HOLINESS.

THIS COURSE WAS DESIGNED JUST FOR YOU AS ONE OF THE TOOLS TO SUPPORT YOU ON YOUR JOURNEY TOWARD HOLINESS. EACH LESSON WILL HELP YOU TO INCREASE IN VIRTUE, TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE AND CONTINUE TO BLOOM IN HOLINESS!

All women are welcome!

Social Justice

Today, July 31, is the feast day of St. Ignatius of Loyola who was a Spanish priest and theologian who founded the Jesuit order in 1534. Known for its missionary, educational, and charitable works, the Jesuit order also is dedicated to the foot of justice in social ministry. St. Ignatius Loyola's Spiritual Exercises takes a holistic view of the world. The three main elements are Experience, Reflection, and Action.

The motto of the Jesuits is "Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam" (AMDG) meaning "for the greater glory of God". St. Ignatius encouraged the practice of seeing God in all things and being "men and women for others". Service to others and inner reflection completes the whole self. Thus, the Daily Examen is a practice still commonly used to help us slow down and allows time to speak to God and give thanks.

the DAILY EXAMEN

Decompress and process your day in a framework of gratitude.

Make time at the end of each day to do the 5 steps.

Consider adding a lunchbreak Examen to your day.

The Daily Examen can be done through prayer and/or journaling.

5-step prayer of gratitude

1. Become aware of God's presence.
2. Review your day with gratitude.
3. Pray about one aspect from the day.
4. Pay attention to your emotions.
5. Look toward tomorrow.

What happens if you get sunburn - what could you do?

Adults:

Near pool or lake - take a few seconds to dip in the water, cover up and get out of the sun. Then use cool compresses or very short cool shower.

While skin is damp apply a gentle moisturizing lotion. Reapply for the next couple of days.

Decrease inflammation. If it is safe for you to do so, take ibuprofen, naproxen or aspirin. Use over-the-counter 1% cortisone cream as directed. Aloe Vera may help. Wear loose clothing to avoid skin irritation and stay out of the sun entirely until the sunburn heals.

Stay hydrated while burn heals.

For adults and children: See a doctor if you have severe blistering over a large part of your body, have fever and chills or are confused. Do not pop blisters which could lead to infection.

Children:

Bathe in clear, tepid water.

Less than 1 year old, sunburn should be treated as an emergency. Call your doctor immediately.

For a child 1 year or older, call your doctor if there is severe pain, blistering, lethargy or a fever 101 degrees F or higher.

Sunburn can cause dehydration. Give your child water or juice. Contact the doctor if the child is not urinating regularly; this is an emergency.

Apply light moisturizing lotion to soothe the skin, but don't rub it in.

Dabbing on plain calamine lotion may help, but don't use one with an added antihistamine.

Do not apply alcohol, which can over-cool the skin.

Do not use any medicated cream such as hydrocortisone or benzocaine unless a doctor prescribes it.

Keep your child out of the sun entirely until the sunburn heals.

Important note: Babies under six months of age should never be exposed to the sun. Babies older than six months should be protected from the sun, and should wear UV-blocking sunglasses to protect their eyes.

Your only true treasure is the treasure you give away...by Brian Cannon

Luke 12:13-21, which is sometimes called the Parable of the Rich Fool, warns us against material prosperity's false sense of security. Lately we've been having some pretty big storms out in our neck of the woods in Gilbert. One particular storm hit with no notice bringing torrential rain and high winds. In a moment, huge 30-year-old trees were toppling on people's houses and cars. There was absolutely nothing to do, except watch the trash cans blown by the wind race each other down the street and wait for the storm to pass. Stuff can always be taken away. Treasures can be depleted with a dip in the market caused by real or imagined fears and speculation about the future. So long as those things remain the center of our lives we will live in a constant tension between lusting after more and being terrified of losing what we have. That's really no way to live.

*"There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest.
He asked himself, 'What shall I do,
for I do not have space to store my harvest?'
And he said, 'This is what I shall do:
I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones.
There I shall store all my grain and other goods
and I shall say to myself, Now as for you,
you have so many good things stored up for many years,
rest, eat, drink, be merry!'"*
But God said to him,
*'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you;
and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?'
Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."*

What matters to God? The gospel values are treasures that increase as they are given.

Forgiveness.

Understanding.

Love.

The more you spend, the more you have.

ROCK45

Attention all 4th & 5th graders, ROCK45 is for YOU!! ROCK45 is ministry to 4th & 5th graders, which includes games, service, fun, fellowship and faith building! ROCK45 resumes in September, on Monday nights from 6:30 - 8:00 pm. We'd love to have YOU join us!

Registration for all formation programs will begin on August 7. Formation team members will be available before & after all Masses the weekends of August 13/14, 20/21 & 27/28 to answer any questions.

Here's what parents & kids are saying about ROCK45...

"I really like going to ROCK45 and look forward to going so I can meet other kids my age & have fun with them. My favorite part is meeting new people." - Luke, 5th grader

"ROCK45 breaks open the word of the Lord at a child's level and makes it easy for them to comprehend. My daughter counts down the days each week until they meet on Monday nights. The activities that the children are a part of are fun, engaging and enjoyable. As a parent, I also enjoy being a part of some of the activities by volunteering. We love ROCK45!" - Dori, ROCK45 parent
