First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Pope Francis has named Bishop John P. Dolan as the fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Phoenix. Bishop Dolan is currently the Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of San Diego. He will be installed in August as our Bishop.

He has lived most of his life in the San Diego area and studied at the University of San Diego. He received his Masters of Divinity at St. Patrick Seminary in Menlo Park, California and was ordained a Priest in 1989. He is 60 years old and comes from a family with nine children. We have heard from people who know him personally and worked with him, and he was well loved at each of the six parishes he was in. We welcome our new Bishop and we are ready to work with him.

We recently had 150+ children on campus at our Vacation Bible School. It was a very successful week, and many compliments from the parents. I want to thank the parish staff members who worked very hard in making this happen. I also thank the adults and teens who gave of their time to help with the week. I look forward to having more exciting offerings for our children this coming year.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Blessed Bakers you are BLESSED! Our pillar of hospitality is strengthened by these ministers and many others! Blessed Bakers provide HOMEMADE baked goods for our meetings and gatherings. Store bought goodies or home made???? Nothing says love like home baked goodies! Thank you Blessed Bakers!!! For more information on how to become a Blessed Baker contact Rosemary Protocollo at rprotocollo@stpatcc.org.

You are never too young to minister at St. Patrick! Thank you Luke and Fiona Henry for your help during our Summer Water Drive! It is hard to walk past these kiddos and not put something in their water pitcher! Of course we are contributing to help provide water to those who need it, but cute children help make us smile!

Did you know you can buy the Sunday newspaper right here at St. Patrick and help support the Knights of Columbus? Pick yours up after Sunday morning Masses! And thank you Knights of Columbus for your coffee and donut hospitality each Sunday!

One last look at the fun and passion of our youth at vacation bible school! Thank you parents, children, VBS Team and staff for a fantastic (tiring) week!

Stewardship

Today's readings take us back to the basics, inviting us to reflect honestly on our deepest priorities in life.

In today's Gospel, from Luke, Christ refers to the struggle to put Him above all else as He encounters two "would be" disciples on His way to Jerusalem. "Follow me," Jesus says to the first man. "But he replied, 'Lord let me go first and bury my father.'" The other said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." These two want to follow Christ but only on their own terms, only after taking care of some other, more pressing matters (at least in their own minds).

To this, Christ says thanks but no thanks! Following Him requires an unqualified "yes" not a "yes, but...". We are called to put Christ and His kingdom ahead of our own plans if we truly wish to be His disciples and to find victory in the battle of selfishness.

Living stewardship as a way of life can go a long way in arming us for victory. Stewardship living provides us with a custom-made "training plan" — the commitment to a specific offering of our time, talent, and treasure to the Kingdom of God. It is a plan discerned through prayer and by looking at the realities of our unique circumstances, strengths, and limitations. The daily discipline of committing to the plan strengthens us and helps us gradually move away from the "yes, but" attitude and towards an unqualified "Yes!" to Christ and His will.

Do not be afraid to give the best of yourself and your gifts to Christ. He deserves nothing less. And this way of life, while challenging, will be characterized by a joy and peace that only comes from living for Him.

TUITION RATE INFORMATION

from the Diocese Catholic Schools Office

For parents registering their children for the 2022-2023 school year, please note: In order to receive the school's reduced Catholic Tuition Rate, your pastor must determine whether your family meets the criteria set by your parish for Registered, Active, Participating members. The definition of registered, active and participating varies by parish, but usually includes attending Mass regularly as well as contributing online or with an envelope to the offertory along with participating in the ministry life of the parish. If you have questions about your family's status, please contact the Parish Office.

Note: All Diocesan high school students receiving the reduced tuition rate for the coming year must have their status verified by their home pastor before they can be registered as Catholic.

For St. Patrick Catholic Community Parish School Verification, parishioners must be registered, active and participating members for a minimum of six months prior to submitting their form for verification. For further requirements, please contact Torri Winn at twinn@stpatcc.org.

West Nile Virus Information Sheet

What is West Nile Virus (WNV)?

West Nile Virus is a type of virus that mostly infects birds but can also infect horses and humans. WNV did not appear in Arizona until 2003, but since that time the virus has been active in Arizona. In addition to humans, horses, and birds, WNV can affect some other animals.

How can you catch WNV?

WNV is spread by mosquitoes that feed on infected birds. The mosquitoes then bite people or horses, which may or may not show symptoms. Most people who get infected with WNV will not have any symptoms; 1 in 5 infected people will have mild flu-like symptoms. About 1 of every 150 people infected with WNV will develop severe illness, including paralysis. People over age 50 are most at risk for severe illness.

What are the symptoms of WNV?

Usually, symptoms start 2 to 14 days after the bite of an infected mosquito. Symptoms can include:

Milder symptoms (more common)

- Fever
- Headache
- Body aches
- Rash (more common in children)
- Joint pain

Severe symptoms (less common)

- Severe headache
- High fever
- Stiff neck
- Muscle weakness
- Confusion
- Tremors, paralysis or coma

How can you be treated for WNV?

There is no specific medicine to treat WNV. Severe illness may require hospitalization.

How can you prevent WNV?

- When possible, stay inside between dusk and dawn, when mosquitoes are most active.
- Wear clothing that covers your arms and legs.
- Use insect repellent on exposed skin and clothes. Always follow label instructions.
- Fix broken screens in windows and doors.
- Eliminate places where mosquitoes can lay eggs. Empty standing water from places like buckets, flower pots, and old tires. Empty and refresh water in pet dishes every 2 days.

Social Justice

What is Restorative Justice and how can it be related to the seven themes of Catholic Social Teaching (CST)?

Catholic Social Teaching is our guide for how to live as a people of justice and mercy. It brings the teachings of Jesus and his call to discipleship to the larger societal conversation of social justice. The seven CST themes are Dignity of the Human Person; Call to Family, Community, and Participation; Rights and Responsibilities; Preferential Option for the Poor; Dignity of Work and Rights of Workers; Solidarity; and Care for God's Creation.

Restorative Justice focuses on both victim and offender. It focuses on how to repair the harm that wrongful behavior does to the other, to the self, and the fabric of the community. Correction and prevention are best accomplished through relation-building, meaningful accountability and amends. Focus on the common good and seeking resolution that is just and productive are the key elements for the parties involved and the community as a whole.

From whatever the offense was that occurred, Restorative Justice recognizes that lives have intersected through some harmful behavior which violated the dignity of the person in some manner. It does recognize that upholding the rule of laws in society are important and respective punishment does apply, however, it delves deeper into areas of restoration and transformation.

Restorative Justice does not see the victim as being powerless, yet focuses on supporting those in the process of recovering their safety, reclaiming their dignity, and renewing their place as being whole again in the community. It also seeks to establish restoration and transformation for the offender and calling on them to contribute to recovery by making amends for the damage they have caused to the person or the environment that had caused negative effects to a community.

The fundamental starting point of Restorative Justice is a preferential option for the vulnerable. It asks not only what happened but also why it did. Were there conditions in a person, in the environment, or both that encouraged harmful behavior? Therefore, many restorative practices are dedicated to strengthening communities by fostering connection and mutual responsibility and by collaboratively affirming positive community norms and standards. This is where we are all called to solidarity and community participation.

For a more in depth understanding of this topic, go to catholicismobilizing.org/restorative-justice which contains articles, podcasts, and more.

Follower of Christ...it ain't for wimps...with Torri Winn

I had a dear friend named Jean, who has since gone home to Jesus, and when she was struggling with several health issues, she said, "Getting old ain't for wimps!" It kind of seems like that is the message in the readings today - that being a follower of Christ, a Christian Disciple in Mission, ain't for wimps! When things get hard, we all handle it in different ways. Some of us flee, some are ready to fight, like the Sons of Thunder, James and John, in this weekend's Gospel - "Let's rain down fire on them and consume them!" And how does Jesus respond to the obstacle of both James' and John's bad attitude and the people's rejection? He rebukes them - and goes another way.

There is always another way - the better way - the way that we are called to everyday and that is Christ's Way - the Way of Radical Love. Seems easy to say, but we all know it can sometimes be almost impossible to do. So how do we get there - to that place that helps us to come out of our wimpy-ness and follow the way of Radical Love? Prayer. Honest, one-on-one talking with God and getting past ourselves to become more like Jesus.

I came across a quote from Pope Francis and he said: "The saints are men and women who struggle with prayer - letting the Holy Spirit pray and struggle in them." None of us likes to struggle, but some time ago there was an internet story about the value of struggle. It was about a little boy who wanted to help a butterfly emerge from its cocoon - so instead of letting the butterfly struggle to emerge, he cut open the cocoon, but the butterfly couldn't fly. It needed the effort of beating its wings against the walls of the cocoon to strengthen his wings enough to lift its body into the sky. So, struggle has to be part of the story of life - to help strengthen us to become who God created us to be.

In that same quote, Pope Francis goes on to say: "This is the mystery of prayer: to keep crying out, not to lose heart, (we're to be like the butterfly - to keep beating our wings of prayer against the cocoon of our difficulty). He says, "To pray is not to take refuge in an ideal world, nor to escape into a false sense of calm. To pray is to struggle, but also to let the Holy Spirit pray within us..."

So, how do we face this struggle head on so that we can get on with our prayer life? #1 Start Small. Persevere in it; 10-15 minutes might be all it takes to begin. #2 Pay attention to what distracts. For me, it's my phone. I shared with a friend that I couldn't seem to settle enough to pray in the morning. She asked me what my distraction was. I told her - MY PHONE - it's my alarm clock and instead of just turning it off and putting it back on the nightstand, I start scrolling the news, or Tik Tok. So that very same day, she bought me an alarm clock and suggested I put my phone in another room. My distractions vary from day-to-day. I try to pinpoint it and put it away. #3. Try new things. Sitting down in a quiet space and meditating on the word of God might work for me today, the Rosary another day, or walking outside and giving praise to God in His creation. I figure, whatever works to help me be present to God, is how I will pray today. #4. I try to think beyond myself. When I realize that my prayer is starting to become a laundry list of things I'd like God to change in my life, I turn my gaze outward and ask the God to help me to see beyond myself. I heard it said "Having the Bible in one hand and the newspaper in the other" is a good place to start if you don't know where to begin to pray - because there are so many places in the world that need our prayers.

So while we know the struggle is real, let us do as St. Paul suggests in the second reading today, let's live by the Spirit, finding Him in the midst of our struggles and inviting Him into our prayers. He will strengthen us and see us through.

ROCK45

ROCK45 is off for the summer and will resume in the Fall. In the meantime, we'll share some fun, creative ways to nurture your tweens faith this summer. Enjoy!

Puppy - Dog Prayer - My kids know that our dog will be waiting for them when they come home from school. He is always overjoyed to see them. His joy comes from his relationship with our family, and not from the day's happenings while we were away from home.

With that picture of JOY in their minds, I encouraged my kids to start our bedtime prayers with what I call a "puppy-dog" prayer - that is, to begin with all the ways they are joyful. This has become a reminder to greet God joyfully and thank Him for who He is and what He's done for us.
- Jared Hottenstein

EDGE

EDGE had a great time serving at St. Vincent de Paul and hanging out at Glow Putt Mini Golf! Our next FREDGE night will be on July 8, and we will be heading to KTR Scottsdale from 6:00 - 8:00 pm!

If you have any questions, please contact Thomas Bestul at tbestul@stpatcc.org.

LIFE TEEN

It was great to be together for movie night this past Friday! This week we will be off to the Life Teen Leadership Conference at Benedictine College in Kansas. This is an amazing opportunity for our seniors to connect and grow in their faith. Then they return with us to St Patrick, ready to help lead an amazing year. Please join us in praying for these special teens.
