First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We are familiar with the season of Lent, working on turning away from sin and selfishness and increasing our prayer, so we work on our personal lives. We are reminded that we also work on what is called almsgiving and that the spiritual works we do for ourselves lead us to care for our neighbor.

In our Lent/Easter mailing, we included an envelope for Habitat for Humanity. It's a great organization that helps people work towards having a house and continuing to live in a neighborhood where they help others. For 25 straight years, St. Patrick has participated in helping build housing/homes with other churches and organizations. We have helped build 50 houses and we are ready to support our 51st build. I am asking parishioners to please consider making Habitat for Humanity one of your almsgiving for Lent/Easter. The goal to build this home is $25,000. Please use the envelope sent to you, or in the Narthex Habitat for Humanity display, or simply contact the Parish Office to learn how to give to this important project.

One of the blessings of giving to this project is that people are empowered to work alongside those who support them, and after the work is completed, they live in a community where they are encouraged to support their neighbors who are also building their houses. Thank you for your willingness to consider this generosity during the Lenten season.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Way of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross, also known as the Way of the Cross, has long been a devotional practice observed during Lent. The stations grew out of an imitation of the Via Dolorosa in Jerusalem which is believed to be the actual path Jesus walked to Mount Calvary. Tradition holds that Mary, herself led by example in making daily visits to the sites of her Son's sufferings, death and resurrection following his ascension into heaven. For those who could not make a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, this practice developed to take place in churches with markers placed for each station throughout the nave of the church. Praying through the Stations is a great way to contemplate the Passion of Christ as we draw closer to Good Friday. Each station recalls and meditates on a specific event from Christ's last day on Earth as a man. Over the years there have been a number of guides and prayers to help the Christian faithful pray the Stations and view the Passion of Christ with a different perspective. Two of the most popular devotional guides come from St. Francis of Assisi and St. Alphonsus Liguori. There are also very powerful guides written through the eyes of Mary known as Mary's Way of the Cross. Taking the time to reflect on the passion and death of Christ is a great way to unite our suffering and the suffering of others to the hope of the resurrection. The Stations challenge us to examine our lives as we strive to live a life of virtue by looking at the times we fall short and by challenging us to recognize the presence of God in all those we encounter.

During this time of Lent, we are asked to make prayer, fasting, and almsgiving a part of our daily life. If you have never prayed the Stations of the Cross, or if you are still looking for something to do to increase your prayer life during this Lent, I encourage you to take up this practice. I have personally found this form of prayer a powerful experience and a great way to center myself during Lent. Here at St. Patrick we gather every Friday at 6:00 pm throughout Lent in the Church to pray the Stations. We can learn a lot from following the footsteps of Christ.

Stewardship

Stewardship

“He said to his father in reply: ‘Look, all these years I served you.....yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.’”
Luke 15:29-30

The father practiced God’s version of generosity – unearned and unconditional. A steward sees a need and responds without asking questions concerning whether it is deserved or not.

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be? We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life, a 10-week video study program that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation by Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins, and Edward Sri, followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship. We hope you can join us!

Habitat for Humanity and Catholic Social Teaching

Habitat for Humanity is a global nonprofit organization that builds and renovates homes for individuals and families in need, aiming to provide affordable housing to all. Founded on the belief that everyone deserves a decent place to live, Habitat for Humanity brings together volunteers, donors, and communities to build homes and revitalize neighborhoods. Their work aligns closely with the principles of Catholic Social Teaching, particularly the concepts of solidarity and the preferential option for the poor.

Catholic Social Teaching emphasizes the dignity of the human person, the importance of community, and the need for justice. Habitat for Humanity's commitment to addressing the root causes of poverty and its focus on building homes as a means of fostering a better life for families resonate deeply with these values. The organization's efforts to combat housing insecurity align with the Catholic belief that society should care for its most vulnerable members, ensuring that their basic needs are met.

In line with these teachings, our community has supported over 50 home builds through Habitat for Humanity. By volunteering our time, resources, and expertise, we have contributed to the creation of stable, safe, and sustainable homes for families in need, embodying the Catholic call to serve others and work toward a just and compassionate society.

Through continued collaboration with Habitat for Humanity, we strive to uphold the values of human dignity, solidarity, and social justice—principles at the heart of both our faith and this vital work.

For more information on how you can get involved, please email habitat@stpatcc.org

The next meeting will be held on Monday, April 28 at 9:00 am in Fenlon Hospitality Center.

Future Dates: 5/19 and 6/16

The children are busy in the Atrium, exploring the sacred season of Lent. This week, our Level 1 children explore the Empty Tomb. Our Level 2 children are presented with the City of Jerusalem. Our 3-D model of the City of Jerusalem illustrates where the events of the Triduum (Christ's Last Supper, death, and resurrection) took place. As we retell the events of the last days of Jesus, we place materials representing first the walls around the city, the water pools, the Temple in the upper part of the city, the Cenacle where the Last Supper was celebrated in the Upper Room, the Garden of Olives, the residences of the High Priest and Herod, the Palace of Pontius Pilate, and then the Place of the Crucifixion. Here we placed the cross, and then a depiction of the tomb that is closed with a stone. Recalling Jesus' resurrection, we open the tomb and light a candle representing the Light of Christ that now fills those who follow Him.
