First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

The month of May has traditionally been a time when our children receive the sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist here at St. Patrick. The children have been preparing to receive these two sacraments through formation, guided by their parents and families, and our staff and parishioners. Our Diocese offers these two sacraments in the 3rd grade.

The two dates for these Masses are Saturday, May 3, and Friday, May 9. We welcome Fr. Jess Ty, the Pastor of Our Lady of Joy in Carefree, and the head of our Deanery (parishes in this area), to represent the Bishop at these two Masses. We congratulate all the children on receiving these sacraments.

This coming Friday, our GET ON THE BUS ministry will be welcoming families to the parish to enjoy breakfast and take buses to see their mothers or family members at Perryville prison. Thanks to Katie Woodward, who heads this ministry, along with a good number of parishioners who have been preparing for many months to screen and help the family members get ready to visit their loved ones. This year, we have seven buses ready to go this coming Friday. We will give a report next Sunday at the Masses and invite parishioners to help support the ministry with an offering in envelopes to help cover the expenses of this great outreach.

Next Sunday is Mother's Day, and our parish will welcome all Mothers and have a special blessing for them.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Sacrament of Confirmation

I invite you all to pray for the students in our Confirmation program as they prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation this month. The sacrament of Confirmation is an important moment in the Christian life as they will receive the special outpouring of the Holy Spirit which brings an increase and deepening of baptismal grace. It would be wrong to think of Confirmation as a graduation, rather confirmation marks the start of being a true witness of Christ to the world.

The sacrament of Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace. By the sacrament of Confirmation, we are more perfectly bound to the Church and are enriched with the strength of the Holy Spirit. In this way we become true witnesses of Christ. As witnesses of Christ, we are challenged to spread and defend the faith by both word and deed. During Confirmation the person is anointed with a perfumed oil called chrism. This is the same oil used in baptism. The anointing highlights the name of "Christian" which means anointed and is derived from Christ himself whom God anointed with the Holy Spirit. The traditional use of oil also directs us to a deeper meaning of the sacrament. Oil was often placed on wrestlers preparing for a match to make it more difficult for their opponent to hold onto them. In a spiritual sense the oil used in Confirmation is also meant to make it difficult for the evil one to get a hold of us. Oil cleanses as an anointing before and after a bath. So we are cleansed of sins. Perfumed oil was also used in preparing a body for burial. In this way Confirmation prepares the faithful for whatever lies ahead knowing that both in life and in death we are the Lord's.

As the word Confirmation suggests, this sacrament both confirms and strengthens baptismal grace. By anointing the confirmand receives the "seal" or "mark" of the Holy Spirit. With this mark the confirmed person receives the power to profess faith in Christ publicly in union with the Church. Confirmation is an essential and indispensable part of Christian life. Every baptized person not yet confirmed, can and should receive the sacrament of Confirmation. Confirmation is a sign of unity in Christ and provides the graces we need to be true witnesses of Christ. I invite you, along with the entire community of St. Patrick, to pray for those preparing to receive the sacrament of Confirmation in the coming month.

Stewardship

Stewardship

As we mourn the death of Pope Francis, I am reminded of stewardship through his lens. Pope Francis emphasized that giving, praying, and serving are not mere actions, but expressions of a heart transformed by God's love. He reminds us that true giving involves offering not just material goods, but also time, attention, and compassion to those in need. In prayer, Pope Francis teaches that we encounter God's mercy and are drawn into a deeper relationship that fuels our mission in the world. He viewed serving others—especially the poor and marginalized—as central to living out the Gospel. For Pope Francis, these practices are interconnected and must flow from humility and a sincere desire to imitate Christ. Ultimately, he calls us to make our lives a gift for others, guided by faith and animated by love.

To make a one-time or recurring gift, please go to stpatcc.org/give.
