First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

I offer my thanks to the Parish Staff for all the work put in for another successful FALL FESTIVAL. Lenny Kelly was the point person and the parish staff came together and made sure the festival ran smoothly and their presence made people feel welcomed. There were also a good number of parishioners who offered their support with the Trunk or Treat for the kids, the games and booths and of course the Men's Club for providing the delicious free food to all our guests. Please know that I am aware of many people who offered their help and it is that effort that made it a great experience for so many.

Fr. Stephan, our clergy support from the Crosiers Religious Order, did a great job inviting all the kids up front to talk about the Gospel and also celebrating Halloween. The church was filled with many families and the children did another great service at the Family Mass by ministering at our Mass. Stories of people finding out about our parish, families learning about what we offer children throughout the year, and some families never having been to church before, joined us for the 4:30 pm Mass. A reminder that the FALL FESTIVAL is a great tool to reach out to our parishioners and also people in the greater community.

A reminder that we are inviting all parishioners to consider becoming a Eucharistic Minister, offering the Body and Blood of Christ to the people of God. As mentioned in the past homilies, Jesus called forth people to distribute the food and our baptism calls us to serve as needed. Please email liturgy@stpatcc.org to offer your name to be trained and guided to serve. We are inviting more to participate as we desire to offer the chalice (cup) of the Precious Blood at all Masses.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

St. Martin of Tours: An Example of Compassion

On Monday, November 11 the Church celebrates the feast day of St. Martin of Tours. Martin was born in 316 in what is now Hungary. In 313, just before Martin was born, Christianity was legalized ending years of bloody persecution. Martin's father was a pagan military official in the Roman army which led to young Martin being enlisted at the age of 15 to discourage him from pursuing any interest in the Catholic faith. But even service in the military did not discourage Martin as he strove to live a humble and upright life giving much of his pay to the poor.

As a soldier, Martin encountered an unclothed beggar standing in the cold. While the other soldiers passed by, Martin stopped and cut his own cloak into two halves with his sword giving half to the freezing beggar. Later that night Martin had a vision of Christ appearing to him wearing half the cloak he had given to the poor man. Jesus declared, "Martin, a catechumen, has clothed me with his garment." Martin knew it was time for him to join the Church and be baptized. After being released from the military, Martin followed a new path as a soldier of Christ. Martin fully dedicated his life to following Christ and became known for the love and compassion he showed others.

St. Martin provides us with a great example of what it means to show compassion to a person in need. As Catholics we should all strive to emulate the same compassion and love that St. Martin showed the cold beggar. This example of compassion is something we here at St. Patrick hope to model to the community and to the world.

This year I ask you to pray about participating in our Bags of Compassion Advent Mission. Consider donating items, or giving financially to support our mission to bring a little more compassion into the world. Our goal is to gather items and assemble 4,000 bags on December 9, which will be dispersed by parishioners to people experiencing homelessness in our community during the Christmas season.

It can be easy to overlook a person in need. Just think of how many times we drive past someone on the street asking for help. We can all embrace our theme by taking the time to "look twice" at a person in need. May we follow the compassionate example of St. Martin by sharing the blessings God has given us with those in need.

Stewardship

Please check your mailbox for our annual report and commitment card for Commitment Sunday, Nov 17. In this month of gratitude we prayerfully consider how we can respond to God's goodness through giving, praying, and serving.

St. Patrick has partnered with a new online giving platform called Simple. This new platform is simple to use, secure, fully integrated with our member database and will also save us administrative costs.

Our transition process will begin later this month, but we wanted you to be aware so that if you start to see communication regarding Simple, you'll trust the name and not consider it spam or phishing.

If you're a current giver in WeShare, what do you need to do? Nothing at the moment! We will begin reaching out following Commitment/Stewardship Sunday to those filling out a commitment card for 2025. In mid-January, we will reach out to the remaining givers to make the transition to Simple.

Thank you for your faithful stewardship and for partnering with us in all God is doing through St. Patrick! If you have questions regarding the transition, please reach out to Sue Orlando at sorlando@stpatcc.org or call 480-998-3843 ext. 119.
