First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

The Gospel for Thanksgiving Day is Jesus healing the 10 lepers. All ten were made clean and went to show themselves to the priests as was the custom. Only one, a foreigner, returned back to thank Jesus. Jesus asks, "Where are the other nine? Were not all 10 healed?" Even in the time of Jesus it was important that to give thanks to God was central to one's faith.

We do this through the Eucharist, giving thanks to God for what He has done for us. This week an entire nation will be using the word "thanksgiving." It is usually centered around traveling and a meal. Just like our Mass, we travel to the community table (altar) and we remember all the good deeds that God has done for us. Sometimes we are very grateful and we are aware of the special moment. Other times we take for granted the blessings we have received, yet God still invites us to the table to become in communion with Him and with one another.

On Thursday at 9:00 am we will have Mass on Thanksgiving Day. We invite parishioners to consider beginning the day, if possible, to gather for the Eucharist - giving thanks for God's gifts to us. Our parish Thanksgiving tradition is muffins and coffee after Mass. I hope you can join us to give "thanks" and enjoy fellowship in community.

Usually I would say do not bother with watching the first Thanksgiving Day football game because the Detroit Lions usually lose. This season they really are playing well and they just might win the game on that day. Anyway, know that if you are able to join us, please consider that option on that busy day.

Know your tables at home, or wherever you eat that day, are a table of blessing and thanksgiving.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

Saying that you can truly trust another person is one of the highest compliments that can be paid. Think about the people in your life who you trust completely...with everything: your fears, anxieties, doubts, vulnerability, PIN number, passwords, etc. How many people in your life do you trust with absolutely everything and everything? How many people do you know everything about? Probably not a ton.

Trust is a key component in our relationship with God and with one another. If we do not trust God, our faith will ultimately be in ourselves, which is a dead end (literally). If we do not trust others, our existence will become self-focused and empty. Today's Gospel is a great example of what happens when God trusts us but we don't trust in Him or in the abilities He has given to us. The failure to act on the part of the person with one talent demonstrated a lack of trust and a sin of omission. Our faithfulness demonstrates a trust in God and our foolishness denotes a lack of trust in God and in the abilities and talents that He's entrusted to us.

The righteous woman depicted in Proverbs is the one who her husband can trust completely: Her grace-filled and Spirit-led life, her consistent trust in God, and her own trustworthiness. Likewise, the good friends seen in the second reading — the "children of the light" — are faithful and solid and can be counted upon at all times. This consistency and steadiness shown in both the first and second reading become, then, an example of the types of souls we must become and live out at all times. Sooner or later the Lord is coming back and the ones who will be chosen (and not cast into the darkness) are the ones who "knew the Master" well enough to trust Him in all manners and to be confident in the skills and blessings entrusted to them for His glory.

Christ in Our Neighborhood

Break open the Sunday Scriptures this advent with Christ in our Neighborhood (CION). Our Bishop created CION to help his flock enrich their lives by praying with Scripture. CION makes understanding scripture super easy, and the community you pray with will make reading scriptures fun.

All you need to do is get together once a week starting this week download the CION information from our website or the Diocese of Phoenix Website, and do exactly what it tells you to do. That's it! Super EASY.

There is no cost. CION is FREE!

For more information or to REGISTER, contact Ken Blakeman at cion@stpatcc.org.

You can view the first week in Advent scripture resource at: stpatcc.org/cion.

Nurses Corner

Nurses - Parish Nurse Ministry Needs Your Help with sharing your nursing assessment skills.

We have a nurse at each Mass to assist the Hospitality Ministers when someone becomes ill or is injured at Mass. The Nurse's role is to assess the situation and determine what assistance a person might need.

Time commitment: You can select Mass time and dates.

Requirements: Active Arizona Nursing license, Safe Environment Training, and CPR.

The Ministry is also involved in educational programs at different times of the year. An active license and CPR are not necessary to be part of the educational programs.

If you are interested in being a part of this ministry contact Kathleen Trilk at 480-998-3843 ext. 108 or ktrilk@stpatcc.org.

Get smart about risks and diabetes prevention.

With early detection and awareness, you can take steps to prevent or delay the onset of type 2 diabetes. Small changes lead to big results

Research shows that CDC-recognized lifestyle change programs can help people cut their risk of developing type 2 diabetes by more than half, proving that preventing or delaying type 2 diabetes is possible through small changes over time.

Here are just a few ways small changes can make your life better:
You will feel healthier and have a better quality of life.
You will learn how to deal with stress.
You will be able to stay independent, healthy and active as you age.

For more information contact the American Diabetes Association at diabetes.org.
