First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

A couple of weeks ago Bishop John Dolan visited St. Patrick to spend time meeting with our Parish Staff. It was his opportunity to tell us about himself and learn a few more things about our parish. I have been fortunate to share a few meals with him and getting to know him. I am grateful for his ability to put people at ease, down to earth and enjoys meeting people. The Bishop shared some of his vision for our Diocese which included having seminarians being formed here in our Diocese. The ability to get to know the people here, and to be formed by people who are good at serving. There is a desire to help parishes be open to increasing baptisms as the numbers have fallen quite a bit. To help families feel welcomed into the community and follow through with staying in contact after baptism. There is the reestablishment of the Liturgy Committee for the Diocese to help give direction on how to improve our Liturgies.

Mental health and Social Justice are important to his vision and St. Patrick fits right into the direction he wishes to take our Diocese. There are just some of the ideas that the Bishop shared and St. Patrick is ready to support the vision of our Bishop. For our parish staff, I have tried to remind them that they are all resources to the Diocese and parishes that seek their knowledge in their ministries. They are to be of service to parishes and Diocese organizations that seek guidance or support of the mission. I am grateful to our staff when they are able to help the greater Church at large.

In the future we hope to have the Bishop come for a weekend to be with us at our Masses.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

How does one measure love? Is it by the number of times you say it to your loved one? Is it by the number of romantic gestures or love notes or “blowing kisses” emojis used in text messages?

Of course not! Because what love requires is far greater than what words can achieve.

It's easy to say “I love you” but living it out requires a whole different level of surrender. This week's Gospel demonstrates this point beautifully. Talk is cheap. The son who says he'll serve the father but fails to is outshone by the one who initially declines but eventually comes to his senses, rises, and heads out. Ezekiel expands on this point, demonstrating how those who live a virtuous life — not those who merely talk about it — will receive their reward, while those who sin do not act in line with the Lord's way and will suffer the consequence. Our actions speak louder than our words because actions matter.

This really is the root of the Incarnation that St. Paul is explaining to the people in Philippi in the second reading. God is not a “do as I say, not as I do” kind of God. No, God says “do what I did.” God humbled Himself by “emptying himself” and “becoming obedient to the point of death ... on a cross.” The cross goes far beyond words. Jesus didn't just say “I love you” to the Father or to us; He lived it out with every action, and His cross was the exclamation point. It's not enough for us to say that we love the Lord; it ought to be readily visible in our daily actions and crosses. If there is no willingness to sacrifice for the other, it is not true love.

Reviewing Medicare Coverage

This is important! If your Medicare coverage includes Part D Prescription Drug Plan or Medicare Advantage Plan, be sure to review your health coverage YEARLY!

Plans, coverage, and costs can (and will) change each year, as can your health needs!

When Medicare Open Enrollment begins every year in mid-October, it is the perfect time to review your coverage. You can do this with the help of the Medicare Plan Finder (medicare.gov/plan-compare) to decide which plan is the best for you in 2024.

For assistance with the Medicare Plan Finder and choices for 2024, appointments will be available with the Benefits Assistance Program/SHIP Volunteer Counselor at St. Patrick - every Tuesday from October 3 through December 5, 2023.

Please contact Connie Jada at 480-998-3843 ext. 138 to schedule an appointment.

Social Justice

"The Catholic Church teaches that violence against another person in any form fails to treat that person as someone worthy of love. Instead, it treats the person as an object to be used."
The Catholic Bishops of the United States

With October being Domestic Violence Awareness Month, it is important to understand the certain aspects of how the law "defines" this societal issue. This definition is taken directly from Arizona Revised Statute ARS 13-3601 which explains the relationship criteria that is used by law enforcement to determine categorically if an act of domestic violence has occurred:

1. The relationship between the victim and the defendant is one of marriage or former marriage or of persons residing or having resided in the same household.
2. The victim and the defendant have a child in common.
3. The victim or the defendant is pregnant by the other party.
4. The victim is related to the defendant or the defendant's spouse by blood or court order as a parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, brother or sister or by marriage as a parent-in-law, grandparent-in-law, stepparent, step-grandparent, stepchild, step-grandchild, brother-in-law or sister-in-law.
5. The victim is a child who resides or has resided in the same household as the defendant and is related by blood to a former spouse of the defendant or to a person who resides or who has resided in the same household as the defendant.
6. The relationship between the victim and the defendant is currently or was previously a romantic or sexual relationship. The following factors may be considered in determining whether the relationship between the victim and the defendant is currently or was previously a romantic or sexual relationship:
 - (a) The type of relationship.
 - (b) The length of the relationship.
 - (c) The frequency of the interaction between the victim and the defendant.
 - (d) If the relationship has terminated, the length of time since the termination.

Watch for more information in our weekly COMMUNITY CONNECTION email.

If you are ever in need of IMMEDIATE help, call 9-1-1 and get to a safe place. For 24/7 confidential assistance call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 800-799-7233 or you may log on to their website at thehotline.org/. Always keep in mind that an offender can monitor computer activity. Another option is to Text "START" to 88788.

Walking with Purpose-Opening Your Heart: The Starting Point

This study explores the fundamental questions of our Catholic faith and our relationship with Jesus Christ. Join us as we examine the core questions that we need to wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us.

- How do I get my priorities in order?
- I've been going through the motions in my spiritual life—how does it relate to my day-to-day life?
- How do I get to know Christ in a personal way?

You are welcome to join us on Mondays from 10:00 - 11:30 am in the House of Mercy, Pope Francis Room.

For more information, contact Patrice Morace at walkingwithpurpose@stpatcc.org.

Let Us Give Thanks to the Lord, Our God

The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy expresses the desire that all the faithful should be led to full, conscious, and active participation in the liturgical celebration of the Mass, and yet if one were to observe the assembly during liturgy it appears there are still many Catholics who are not participating in the responses and singing. The celebration of Mass is an expression of community, the entire congregation is an active component. There is no audience, no passive element in the liturgical celebration.

"The acclamations and the responses of the faithful constitute that level of active participation that is to be made by the assembled faithful in every form of the Mass, so that the action of the whole community may be clearly expressed and fostered."

[Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy]

In the upcoming weeks we will be talking about our participation at Mass; our role and responsibilities, and how our actions give thanks and praise to God.

Just Coffee Ministry

St. Patrick Just Coffee Ministry will be selling fresh and organic coffee in the Narthex next weekend.
