First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

St. Patrick understands the importance of making sure that funeral Masses and services are done well. Staff member Torri Winn is responsible for coordinating information from family members and overseeing the ministers who will be present at the funeral. Looking at the number of funerals for last year we had close to 100 funeral services. The interesting fact is about half of the funerals were for parishioners. The other half was for those who were not parishioners. It is important that a parish does what it can to ensure that any person is able to have the dignity of a Christian burial. At St. Patrick, some of the reasons for that number is we encounter people at two Honor Health Hospitals and care facilities within our parish boundaries. For some, they either have not attended a parish for a while or were unable to be part of the community because of health reasons. Our ministers and I make sure that families are always welcome to consider St. Patrick for a possible funeral service if they choose to have one.

The St. Patrick funeral ministry makes every effort to welcome parishioners, Catholics from other parishes, Christian brothers and sisters, and those who come from different faith traditions. We take the time to not only welcome, but guide everyone on what is happening in our rituals and know all have a role in the Mass/service. For those who do not receive communion, they are invited to come forward for a blessing. The number of people who choose to do this is amazing. To not be part of the Catholic family, but to feel welcomed to leave their pews and come forward for a blessing gives great witness to how hospitality is central to our Catholic liturgies.

We are open to offering funeral receptions and there is no charge for the reception. The only reminder is Fenlon Hospitality Center may not be available on the date of the funeral based on the many activities happening in our parish, but we do our best to make that happen.

More and more people in our country are choosing to have nothing when a loved one dies. I invite parishioners to know our belief in the Resurrection, the dignity of human life that comes from God, and being a member of the Body of Christ makes it right and good that everyone should have the honor of a Christian burial as we ask God to give kind admittance into his Kingdom.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Adoration: Spending Time in His Presence

Our faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist extends beyond the celebration of the Mass on Sundays. One of the beautiful things about the Catholic Church is that no matter where you are in the world when you walk into a Catholic Church you will always find a tabernacle and know that the Lord is there. There is something truly special about being able to sit and pray in the presence of the Lord in adoration. Christ is always speaking to us but many times we struggle to listen in the midst of the world. Having a time of silence dedicated to prayer and adoration helps us hear God guiding us. If you are struggling to know God's plan in your life, if you are trying to deepen your spirituality, or if you simply need to experience the love of Christ in your life, I would say go to Adoration.

St. John Paul II especially recognized the need for Eucharistic worship in the Church and the world. He proposed our adoration of the Lord should never cease. I have heard some people argue, "why do I need to go to church to pray," or "why do I need to go to adoration if God is everywhere?" While I agree God is everywhere and we should incorporate prayer into every aspect of our life, as humans we need a place set apart. Life is full of distractions and things fighting for our attention and so it makes all the difference to dedicate time being with the Lord.

The first fruit of Eucharistic contemplation is discovering the immense love of Christ and the gift he has given us in the Eucharist.

The Catechism says, "Adoration is the first attitude of man acknowledging that he is a creature before his Creator. It exalts the greatness of the Lord who made us and the almighty power of the Savior who sets us free from evil. Adoration is the homage of the spirit to the King of Glory, respectful silence in the presence of the ever-greater God."

If you have never been to Eucharistic Adoration or even if it has been a long time since you have gone, I encourage you to go this week. Spend time with the Lord. With elections approaching, throughout the month of October we will have time for Adoration in the Daily Mass Chapel to pray for our country and our nation's leaders.

Adoration will be available Tuesday evenings following 5:30 pm Mass until 7:00 pm and on Thursday mornings following 8:00 am Mass until 11:00 am. The Lord is waiting, it is up to us to respond.

MEDICARE & YOU
Medicare Open Enrollment

October 15 through December 10, 2024

When Medicare Open Enrollment begins every year in mid-October, it is the perfect time to review your Medicare coverage options. Individuals who have a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan OR are a member of a Medicare Advantage plan should carefully read the Annual Notice of Change sent to them in September; this contains information for 2025, including changes to monthly premium, deductible, cost sharing, and drug formularies.

In 2025, there will be two major changes to Medicare's drug coverage, so reading the Annual Notice of Change is critical this year.

For free assistance with the Medicare Plan Finder and choices for 2025, appointments will be available with the nonprofit Area Agency on Aging Benefits Assistance Program Counselor at St. Patrick – every Tuesday morning from October 15 through December 10, 2024.

Please contact Connie Jada at 480-998-3843 ext. 138 to schedule an appointment.

Social Justice

Arizona Protective Order Initiation & Notification Tool

One tool or option to help keep an abuser away from you is to obtain an Order of Protection (OP) which can be issued from Superior court, any Justice of the Peace court (JP), or any Municipal court in Arizona during normal business hours. A law enforcement officer can help you obtain an Emergency Order of Protection after business hours or holidays. An OP is only valid after it has been served and is valid for 24 months. If the person served violates the stipulations within this order, he or she can be arrested and jailed for this violation.

When applying for this order, you can and should stipulate that the person is to have no contact whatsoever either in person, by phone, electronically, or social media. This order must be served by a process server (your cost) or a law enforcement officer (no cost). Once the order is served to the offender, the paperwork will be forwarded to the Maricopa Sheriff's Office and kept on file. You should keep a copy as well. Keep in mind, however, that an OP is merely a piece of paper that obviously will not physically restrain someone from staying away should they choose to violate the order. It does not guarantee safety, so always be cognizant of your surroundings.

An OP seeks protection from someone you have lived with now or in the past. This applies to a current or former spouse, someone with whom you are having a romantic relationship, one party pregnant by the other party or have a child in common, your relative (ask the court for specifics), or one of the parties is a parent, grandparent, in-law, or sibling.

Go to azpoint.azcourts.gov to get started. There is no fee.

For any emergency, call 9-1-1 and get to a safe place. For any other non-emergency concerns around domestic violence call the National Domestic Violence Hotline 24/7 at 1-800-799-7233 (SAFE).

Nurses Corner

Did you know...sleep is as important for good health as diet and exercise?

During sleep, your body is working to support healthy brain function and maintain physical health. In children and teens, sleep also helps support growth and development. Lack of sufficient sleep can impair your abilities to concentrate, think clearly and process memories.

Exercise

A brisk walk every day will not only keep you fit, but will also keep you sleeping better. Keep an eye on the timing of your workouts. Exercise too close to bedtime can be stimulating.

Eat, but not too much

A grumbling stomach can keep you awake, but so can an overfull stomach. Avoid eating a big meal within two to three hours of bedtime.

Keep it comfortable

Make sure your bedroom is as comfortable as possible.

Start a sleep ritual

Sleep rituals help signal the body and mind that it's time for sleep. Turn off electronics, try drinking some warm milk or relax by taking a bath. You can also listen to calming music before bed to relax.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) is our weekly formation program for children age 4 through 3rd grade, incorporating Montessori principles to help children hear and respond to the loving call of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who has loved them first and calls them by name. Classes meet after school and early evening for an hour and a half, once a week, September through April. Contact: Renee Genetti at rgenetti@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 ext. 223.

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) is looking for caring adults who can help facilitate the program during Sunday Mass times. No prior knowledge is needed and training is provided. Please contact Yasmine Rodriguez (yrodriguez@stpatcc.org) at the parish office if you would like to find out more about CLOW.

Young Disciples is a program for potty-trained preschool aged youth, 3-5 years old to encounter the gospel through story, puppets, drama and song. Contact: Yasmine Rodriguez at yrodriguez@stpatcc.org.
