First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We had our first FAMILY MASS of the year on October 2 at the 10:30 am Mass. The children proclaimed the scripture readings and prayers, sang with our music ministry as the Singing Angels, and helped prepare the altar at the offertory time. The entire assembly was amazed at the talent of the children lectors, and singing of the psalm at the ambo. The community was so moved they clapped after a few seconds of reflection. I thought the affirmation was needed at that time as it has been a journey to recall all that we had before and are experiencing again. To have the children come forward for the homily and learn the lesson from the Gospel of the day is a great witness to all the community. Every Sunday at the morning Masses we will continue to have Children's Liturgy of the Word and Young Disciples that help the children to worship on their level.

Our next Family Mass will be Saturday, October 29 at the 4:30 pm Mass. We want parents/grandparents to bring their children for Mass and come forward for the homily. After Mass, the entire family and everyone is invited to our FALL FESTIVAL on our parish grounds. Food, games, and Trunk or Treat will be available for everyone who wants to gather and enjoy this holiday time of the fall season.

Please mark your calendars and bring the children to enjoy their time at the parish.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

SERVING

Pope Francis General Audience at the Vatican on October 20, 2021:

"Jesus tells us, 'If you do not become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of God.' It is the courage to be close to the Lord, to be open to the Lord, to not be afraid of the Lord. I thank this child for giving this lesson to all of us," the Pope said.

"There is no freedom without love," Pope Francis said. "The selfish freedom of doing what I want is not freedom because it comes back to yourself, it isn't fruitful."

"It is Christ's love that has freed us, and again it is love that frees us from the worst slavery, that of the self; therefore, freedom grows with love," he said.

The freedom St. Paul writes about does not imply "a libertine way of living, according to the flesh or following instinct, individual desires or one's own selfish impulses," the Pope said. Rather, the apostle speaks of a freedom that is "fully expressed in love."

"It is the love that shines out in gratuitous service, modeled on that of Jesus, who washes the feet of his disciples and says, 'I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you; to serve one another,'" the Pope said.

HEY CATHOLICS!

Did you know 72% of people who joined adult initiation did it because their family invited them to the Church? If you didn't know, now you do. Please ask your family and friends to join our Adult Initiation Inquiry process. We meet immediately following the 8:30 am Mass in the House of Mercy in the Dorothy Day room.

Our Adult inquiry is perfect for your family members or friends seeking a deeper meaning in life. To encourage your family members, you may join them during the inquiry portion of adult initiation.

If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Lenny Kelley at ikelley@stpatcc.org, or call 480-998-3843 x-104.

Ministry of Care

Ministry of Care reaches out to those Catholics who are away from the community due to short-term or long-term illness. Currently, St. Patrick Catholic Community serves two hospitals, 17 long-term facilities, and our community members that are homebound.

As you can imagine, Ministry of Care needs great support. We need about 60 new ministers to get us back to our numbers before COVID. There are people who are in the hospital, homebound or in one of the 17 facilities we service who would not be able to receive the Eucharist without this important ministry.

One of our ministers of care shared, "My experience as a Eucharistic Minister for hospital patients has been simply unbelievable. It is hard to put into words how much joy it gives me to be able to bring our Lord to the patients."

If the ministry of care is something you think you may be interested in joining, please contact Dr. Lenny Kelley at ikelley@stpatcc.org or 480-998-3843 x-104.

REST AND RELAXATION...with Gerri Porteous

In Matthew 11:28, Jesus tells us "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."

The past two summers I had the good fortune to journey to places where there was not much to do, but enjoy nature and some relaxation. My recent two week journey to the Finger Lakes region of New York State to visit my brother, Tom, was no exception! Tom has an adorable home on 36 acres, near the top of a mountain, with neighbors who are acres and acres away from each other. His home is without WiFi, washing machine, limited television and no air-conditioning.

Wow! This is just what I was longing for.

However, we had also planned several day trips, the Corning Museum, the Adirondack Museum, and the most beautiful, but most strenuous, was a hike "down" the Falls in Watkins Glen. We both knew they would have to send a search party for us if we had hiked "up". We found ourselves doing lots of walking instead of relaxing. Other days time was spent shooting guns at targets (I wasn't very good at that). I was much better at shooting a crossbow and operating a four-wheeler.

It was Tom's vacation, too, but with owning acres of farmland, chores needed to be done. So, while Tom mowed his fields, I got my chance to just sit and relax, soaking in the beauty of the area. I remember feeling like I was sitting up in the beautiful blue sky and that I could just reach out and touch one of the fluffy white clouds. Observing nature all around me and the peace God wanted me to have, my senses were filled and my mind soothed.

Like me, do you find yourself asking, "Why is it so hard to hear the call of God to rest in Him?"

Remembrance of Lost Loved Ones Photo Display

At all the Masses on the weekend of October 29/30, we would like to remember all of our loved ones who have passed away by displaying framed photos of them around the altar area. You are invited to bring in your framed photos ahead of time to be included in this display (max. 4 photos per person).

Please include the following on the back of the photo frame:

- Your name (name of contact)
- Your email address
- Your phone #

There are 2 ways we will collect photos:

- Weekend of Oct. 22/23 - Before and after all the Masses, a table will be set up in the Narthex; an Art & Environment committee member will be present to receive your photo from you.
- Weekdays Oct. 24-28 - A table will be set up in the Parish Office. Please place your photo in one of the boxes.

Thank you for helping our community remember and pray for our lost loved ones!

Do you have a child ready to prepare for
First Reconciliation, Confirmation or First Communion?

Parent Orientation

Sunday, October 16th, 3 PM
Fenlon Hospitality Center

Sacrament Orientation is for parents and geared towards adults, so if you need to bring a child for childcare purposes, you are welcome to do so, but plan accordingly.

Sacramental Prep

In order to prepare for the Sacraments of Reconciliation (typically 2nd grade), First Communion, and Confirmation (typically 3rd grade), you must:

- Have prepared for and celebrated Baptism (and Reconciliation for Confirmation & First Communion).
- Be participating in formation or enrolled at a Diocesan Catholic School. Formation includes Family Faith Formation OR Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS/Atrium) OR ROCK45 (youth in 4th or 5th grade only).
- Have one parent or more attend a Parent Orientation.

Registration for Sacraments follows attendance at a Parent Orientation.

ST. PATRICK

Member of the Diocese of Springfield

If you have any questions regarding Elementary Sacrament registration or the program itself, please contact Renée Genetti for Reconciliation at rgenetti@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 x223 or Gabi Franzoni for Confirmation & First Communion at gfranzoni@stpatcc.org, 480-998-3843 x208

Social Justice

One tool or option to help keep an abuser away from you is to obtain an Order of Protection (OP) which can be issued from Superior court, any Justice of the Peace court (JP), or any Municipal court in Arizona during normal business hours. A law enforcement officer can help you obtain an Emergency Order of Protection after business hours or on holidays. An OP is only valid for 12 months after it has been served. If the person served violates the stipulations within this order, he or she can be arrested and jailed for this violation.

When applying for this order, you can and should stipulate that the person is to have no contact whatsoever either in person, by phone, electronically, or through social media. This order must be served by a process server (at your cost) or by a law enforcement officer (no cost). Once the order is served to the offender, the paperwork will be forwarded to the Maricopa Co. Sheriff's Office and is kept on file; you should keep a copy as well. Keep in mind, however, that an OP is merely a piece of paper that obviously will not physically restrain someone from staying away should they choose to violate the order. It does not guarantee safety, so always be cognizant of your surroundings.

An OP seeks protection from someone you have lived with now or in the past. This applies to a current or former spouse, someone with whom you are having a romantic relationship, one party pregnant by the other party or have a child in common, your relative (ask the court for specifics), or one of the parties is a parent, grandparent, in-law, or sibling. Go to azpoint.azcourts.gov/ to get started.

For any emergency, call 9-1-1 and get to a safe place. For any other non-emergency concerns around domestic violence, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline 24/7 at 1-800-799-7233 (SAFE).

You may also text "START" to 88788 or go to thehotline.org

In the United States: 63% of breast cancer cases are diagnosed at a localized stage for which the 5-year survival rate is 99%.

Although rare, men get breast cancer too. In 2021, an estimated 2,650 men were diagnosed with breast cancer.

One in eight women will be diagnosed with breast cancer in her lifetime. Breast cancer is the most common cancer in American women, except for skin cancers.

There are over 3.8 million breast cancer survivors. On average, every two minutes a woman is diagnosed with breast cancer.

We're back...

Just Chocolate ministry is deliciously returning this weekend for our seventh year and we are excited to be back selling Divine Chocolate products!

We would love to have you join our ministry team for weekend sales. There are 13 various weekends to choose for the 2022-2023 ministry year when we will be selling Divine Chocolates. Sales begin in October and wrap up for Mother's Day, 2023. It is a great way to meet other parishioners and support the education of women and children in Ghana.

Please come by and say "hello" to your ministers of Just Chocolate: Linda Biondo, Lisa and Randy Johnson, Eric and Mary Kay Inglett, Emily and Joe Smith, Kris Jacober. We would love to see you!

For more information, dates, and sign-up, please contact Katie Woodward at 480-225-0225. The time commitment is 30 minutes before and after your selected Mass.

Thank you for your continued support.

ROCK45

ROCK45 will meet on Monday, Oct. 17 from 6:30 - 8:00 pm, in the Church. We will continue breaking open our semester theme of VIRTUES, this week centering on Justice. Specifically, asking ourselves "How do I treat others fairly?"

EDGE

After taking last week off, EDGE is starting back up this Monday, October 17, from 6:30 - 8:00 pm in Fenlon Hospitality Center. All 6th, 7th, and 8th graders are welcome to join us as we continue our semester on the virtues. The night's theme is based on Dr. Strange, and we will break open the virtue of temperance. It will be a great time filled with games, discussions, and community!

Our next FREDGE is happening this Friday, October 21, in our Youth Garage from 7:00 - 8:30 pm for an action-packed nine square tournament! All middle schoolers are welcome to join us for a fun night filled with healthy competition and fun memories. Dinner will be provided.

Also, don't forget the EDGE is heading to Prescott November 11-13 for our Fall Retreat! Registration is now open!

If you have any questions about EDGE, please contact EDGE Coordinator, Thomas Bestul, at tbestul@stpatcc.org.

LIFE TEEN

Life Teen is back tonight! We will meet in our Fenlon Hospitality Center for a night on drama and relationships. As always, we meet following the 5:00 pm Youth Mass and dinner is always served! We end at 8:15 pm.

It is time to sign up for our Fall Retreat in Prescott, happening Nov 11-13. Space is limited, so be sure to sign up today at splifeteen.org
