First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We are seeing a good number of children, young families, teens, and young adults in all our Masses. They are spread out attending different Masses. Our parish wants to bring them and all parishioners together for our ANNUAL FALL FESTIVAL. On Saturday, October 26 beginning with the 4:30 pm Mass, it will be our Family Mass and children are invited to come and even dress in their favorite Halloween costumes. After Mass from 5:30 - 7:30 pm we will gather on the east end of our property for food, games, Trunk or Treat, entertainment, and other offerings. Parents are always looking for safe activities for their kids, teens can gather with their friends and enjoy our Youth Garage with games and food. Parents and older adults can meet new people and see their friends here. It is an evening of fun for everyone.

I am grateful to our Parish Staff, and parishioners who are making sure the evening is good for all who gather.

A reminder to everyone that Halloween does have religious roots. The name means the day or evening before the Holy Day in our Catholic faith, ALL SAINTS DAY, November 1. The ancient practice for Halloween was mocking evil, saying it has no power over us because of our God. The holiday leads us to honor men and women who have lived lives that we honor by serving God and his people, the Saints. The following day, November 2 is ALL SOULS DAY where we remember all those who have died. They are the ones who have gone before us to eternal life and we honor their lives and know we will see them again in God's kingdom.

Everyone is invited to the free Fall Festival and please feel free to invite neighbors and friends to come along with you.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Eucharistic Ministers: Bringing Christ to Others

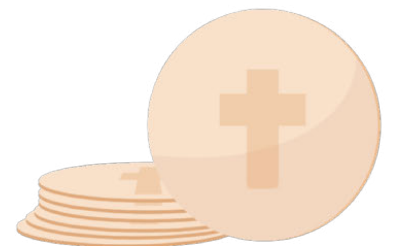

As we come to Mass each week it can be easy to forget those who work behind the scenes and contribute to making the Mass a beautiful celebration and a place of welcome for all. The truth is everyone plays a special role in the celebration of the Mass, from the priest to the cantor, lectors, gift bearers, the choir and congregation, to the Eucharistic ministers. Even from the pews we are called to actively participate in the Mass through our prayers, through our singing, and by bringing our gifts to the altar. Through our very baptism we are called to actively participate in the Mass every Sunday. One great way to get more involved and become a part in serving the community is by becoming a Eucharistic minister.

In 1910, Pope Pius X called for Catholics to receive Holy Communion frequently. With a growing need to distribute Communion more frequently and to a growing population, in 1973 Pope Paul VI released Immensae Caritatis, allowing lay persons to act as ministers of Communion as in the early centuries of the Church. There has been a long history of Eucharistic ministers in the church, but the primary role of a Eucharistic minister is to assist at Mass in distributing the Body and Blood of Christ to the community.

Here at St. Patrick, we are currently looking for Eucharistic ministers to help distribute the Precious Body and Blood of Christ during Mass.

As you know due to COVID, we paused distributing the precious blood at Mass. It is our hope to bring back Holy Communion under both species of bread and wine. But in order to do this, we need more Eucharistic ministers. Being a Eucharistic minister may not be in your comfort zone, but God rarely calls us to be comfortable; rather he challenges us to give of ourselves to serve and love those around us. Becoming a Eucharistic minister can deepen your own devotion to the Eucharist while also being an example to the rest of the faithful by their piety and reverence to the sacrament of the altar.

If you have a love for the Eucharist or are looking for a new way to bring the celebration of the Mass alive, I invite you to consider becoming a Eucharistic minister and contact Frank Dominguez at fdominguez@stpatcc.org. This week consider how God might be inviting you to bring Christ to others.

Get on the Bus AZ Friday, May 9, 2025

The Get on the Bus Story

Get on the Bus (GOTB) unites children with their incarcerated Mothers for Mother's Day. Started in 2017, GOTB had 6 families participate. In 2024, we had 94 families engaging 353 participants served by GOTB with several other Ministries and supported by our Parish.

We expect the program to grow in 2025 as we unite more families increasing our costs. It cost $15,000 in 2024 and is anticipated to be $20,000 in 2025. We see the remarkable difference this day makes in these families and their mothers.

Please Help Us Support this Ministry - Ways to Donate:

- Check made to St. Patrick noting "Get on the Bus" on memo line.
- Use the QR Code on this page.
- If you need to take an IRA withdrawal for 2024, please consider Get on the Bus as a charitable contribution.

We thank you as always for your generosity and ministry support!!

If you would like to be involved with Get on the Bus:

Sign-ups for meetings and roles will be held after all Masses Dec. 14/15.

Please visit getonthebusaz.com for more history and information. Also, contact Katie Woodward at 480-225-0225 with any questions.
