First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

One of the biggest challenges in living as a Disciple of Jesus Christ, and also living in our world, is that sometimes our world gets to set the agenda if something is good or bad, even if it involves the good things of our Christian faith. One example, out of many, is the celebration of Halloween. There can be a fear and a misunderstanding as to why the Church would say Halloween is one of three special days this coming week. Thinking it is about celebrating evil, horror, and bad deeds is not what Halloween is about for Christians.

All Hallow's Eve is the day before All Saints Day, a special day in the Church. It opens the path to three days that come together for us. Halloween (October 31), All Saints Day (November 1), and All Soul's Day (November 2). We remember that Jesus Christ, through his death and resurrection, has conquered sin and death. We mock evil on All Hallow's Eve because it does not have ultimate victory over us. All Saints Day reminds us that we are connected with those who have gone before us and pray for us, it is called intercessory prayer. They are models of our faith while on earth and they pray for us with the Lord. All Soul's Day is a reminder that the Church on earth is joined with the Church in heaven, we are not forgotten, but from the heavenly banquet they consume the same food as we do at our Eucharistic table. They are not just up there somewhere just waiting for us to show up. Rather, they still are connected to us, and just as the Lord did not lose us when we were born on earth, we do not lose those who return to the Lord.

Christians, we remember not to let other people who do not understand our faith set the agenda, the definition of terms, or how we view the world. The Lord Jesus speaks the language of love, mercy, belonging and victory over all sin and even death itself. Let's celebrate well these three holy days.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

Good Stewards Cultivate our Gifts

The Gospel story of Jesus' encounter with Zacchaeus makes for an ideal stewardship reflection. So does today's first reading from the Book of Wisdom. Good stewards have faith in, and give thanks for, an almighty and powerful God who transcends the universe, but who gives personal attention to every human being.

God loves his creation, his people. He lives in them, and through his Holy Spirit, instills a fundamental goodness in them. Good stewards recognize this movement of the Spirit as a gift, and make efforts to cultivate this gift and grow their faith.

Take time this week to stop and look around you, be aware of God's awe-inspiring creation, and give thanks for God's loving care and concern for each of us.

Please visit us at stpatcc.org for more details about our Parish or subscribe to our weekly "Connection" E-newsletter at welcome.stpatcc.org/

Ministry of Care

Ministry of Care reaches out to those Catholics who are away from the community due to short-term or long-term illness. Currently, St. Patrick Catholic Community serves two hospitals, 17 long-term facilities, and our community members that are homebound.

As you can imagine, the ministry of care needs great support. At this time, we need about 60 new ministers to get us back to our numbers before COVID. There are people who are in the hospital, homebound or in one of the 17 facilities we service who would not be able to receive the Eucharist without this important ministry.

One of our ministers of care shared, "My experience as a Eucharistic Minister for hospital patients has been simply unbelievable. It is hard to put into words how much joy it gives me to be able to bring our Lord to the patients."

If the Ministry of Care is something you think you may be interested in joining, please contact Dr. Lenny Kelley at lkelly@stpatcc.org or 480-998-3843.

Contemplative Study Group

The group meets every Tuesday from 9:00 - 10:30 am in the House of Mercy.

The group promotes the spiritual journey of all people and especially those of the St. Patrick Catholic Community through the study of mystical teachers and contemplative prayer, gaining a complete understanding of the Ultimate Mystery and how it affects our relationship with God and one another in community and daily living.

The group is open and welcomes everyone seeking a more intimate relationship with the Divine through study, discussion, and prayer.

For more information, please contact Dr. Lenny Kelley at lkelly@stpatcc.org.

FAMILY TRADITIONS...with Laura Whitney

As I was reading this week's readings, particularly the first reading, I realized how God was speaking to me differently because of my surroundings. So many times we listen to the readings for the first time in church, others read them ahead of time in a prayerful or familiar environment. This week I am in Alabama at the Gulf Shores for fall break. I am sitting on a porch, listening to the waves crash, the palm trees rustling as the wind blows and the laughter and shrieks of children chasing crabs with their nets in the hope of catching one.

The first reading today spoke to me about how the LORD has made so many amazing things and we don't always get the opportunities to appreciate and admire His handy works. During my reflection time my heart revealed how important this annual trip to the Gulf Shores is to me and my family and how important it is to pass this sentiment along.

I would say that I am a very sentimental person. Memories of events and vacations from childhood all the way into my adulthood are cherished and re-lived through the stories I tell my children and the vacations we take. My family each summer would get in the car and drive to see our relatives in Mobile, AL and Toledo, OH. At each destination we reconnected with family and made memories that became family traditions. These family trips have become a tradition I am fortunate enough to pass along to my girls.

A favorite memory from Ohio was catching fireflies in jars, competing to get the most, watching them light up and then let them go. This tradition has been passed along to my girls, with a new spin, we go to Kirksville, MO where my husband is from and do the same thing. The girls even say "this is a tradition we have to do it". Another tradition was to go to the Gulf Shores in Alabama. The girls and I have been blessed to visit the Gulf since they were six months old with my mom, dad and brother (and my husband when he can get away from work). Each year we have had our beach fun but most importantly our tradition of reconnecting with family has become even more important.

This trip we had the opportunity to see our cousins again and the girls were able to visit with their Great Aunt Harriet Jean in person this year. As years pass these traditions will keep memories and our loved ones close to our hearts, no matter where life takes us.

What are your traditions that you cherish, what new ones await? How can you place yourself in a different setting to hear God's voice in a new way? What will He lay on your heart?

Nurses Corner

Breast Cancer Awareness Goes Beyond October!

More women are diagnosed with breast cancer than any other cancer, excluding skin cancer. Early detection and advanced treatments continue to decrease mortality rate.

If breast cancer is found during screening exams and before symptoms appear, the cancer is more likely to be smaller and confined to the breast. When breast cancer is found due to symptoms, it tends to be larger and more likely to have spread beyond the breast. Breast cancer also occurs in men.

Major risk factors: Female, advancing age, family history of breast or ovarian cancer, or breast density.

Other factors: Hormone replacement, birth control pills, early menarche, late menopause, obesity, and alcohol.

Screening can save lives:

Do monthly self exams.

Be alert to lumps, changes in breast size, nipple discharge.

Don't wait to see your Care Provider for further screening.

Interested in sharing your nursing skills in a parish ministry?

We have a nurse at each Mass to assist the Hospitality Ministers when someone becomes ill or is injured.

The role of the nurse is to assess the situation and determine the assistance that is needed.

You select Mass time and date that fits in your schedule.

Requirements: Active Arizona Nursing License, Safe Environment Training, and CPR.

Other activities: Educational programs, writing bulletin articles, and blood pressure screening at different times of the year. You do not have to have an active license to be part of the educational and screening programs.

This week we remember in a special way all the souls of those who have gone before us in the hope of resurrection. Though they have passed away, we believe that we will see them again when they share in the resurrection on the last day. And so, as we keep our lost loved ones in our hearts and minds, we offer up this prayer that comes from the Order of Christian Funerals:

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Burial Shrouds

Did you know that St. Patrick is in need of people who like to sew, trace crosses, cut out crosses and put them together?

There is a small group of people doing the above and are in need of help. We provide the materials and all of the work can be done at home or at our once a month meeting.

The above process, when finished, is used as Burial Shrouds for Fr. Rick in Haiti. Fr. Rick has been working with the poorest of the poor in Haiti for over 25 years. On a monthly basis an average of 15 men, women, and children are buried mostly due to malnutrition. Fr. Rick goes to the morgue to obtain bodies and gives them a proper funeral. As there are no caskets, the Burial Shrouds are placed over the bodies before being interred.

Please call or text Judy Bailey at 248-302-0688 or Judyth Callaghan 480-948-4052 if you are interested. God Bless.
