First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Families with young children are always looking for activities and events where the children can have a good time. At the end of this month, we will host our Annual Fall Festival on October 26 in the evening. We have had great attendance from many people who gather and enjoy games, candy for the kids, food, music, and meeting new people.

We are inviting everyone to mark your calendars for Saturday, October 26. We begin with the Saturday evening Mass at 4:30 pm in the church. Children are invited to wear the costumes they will wear for Halloween to the Fall Festival. The Mass includes the involvement of children with their families. Everyone is invited to attend that Mass.

After Mass, everyone is invited to the east end of our property for all the Fall Festival Activities. We can always use some support from people offering to help with this event. You can call the Parish Office and leave your name and phone number and we will contact you.

This event started a few years ago to reconnect everyone to the parish community and with each other, and this really took off. There was a need to gather and be with each other. This is why we continue this event as it does bring so many people together. This event is for all ages. We hope to see you there to enjoy some great food and music for entertainment.

We will be reminding everyone over the next few weeks to mark their calendars to attend.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Synodality: Listening and Journeying Together

Back in 2021 the Church began a three year process of listening and dialogue as Pope Francis invited the entire church to engage in listening sessions to hear from the people. Pope Francis wanted to hear from the whole Church about what is happening in local parishes and faith communities. The way he proposed doing this is with a synodal process. Synodality means "journeying together" and it involves listening to the Holy Spirit and to each other in order to discern the path we are called to walk together. The synod and these listening sessions are "intended to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make people's hopes flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships to learn from one another, to build bridges, to enlighten minds, warm hearts, and restore strength to our hands for our common mission."

Although the Synod on Synodality will be concluding at the end of this month, here at St. Patrick, we hope to continue developing a culture of listening by holding listening sessions. This weekend there will be synod listening sessions after all Masses in the Mark and Matthew classrooms. There will also be an opportunity to participate October 7 at 9:00 am in the classrooms and October 8 at 6:30 pm in the Pope John room. I can think of no better way to embrace our theme, "I will look twice until I see Christ in you," than by participating in one of these listening sessions.

Please consider taking time to participate after Mass and hear from those around you as well as share your own experience.

In a recent audience, Pope Francis said, "people must reject indifference and embrace their role as a generation of hope and unity to build a better future for the world." He again reminded the people of the dangers behind a growing culture of indifference which turns a blind eye to the most vulnerable. This is exactly why our theme this year is so important and why we hope to continue building a community that recognizes the dignity of every person. We invite you to come to a listening session after Mass. Together, as a community of faith, we can help make St. Patrick a place of listening, understanding, and welcome.

October 15 through December 3, 2024

When Medicare Open Enrollment begins every year in mid-October, it is the perfect time to review your Medicare coverage options. Individuals who have a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan OR are a member of a Medicare Advantage plan should carefully read the Annual Notice of Change sent to them in September; this contains information for 2025, including changes to monthly premium, deductible, cost sharing, and drug formularies.

In 2025, there will be two major changes to Medicare's drug coverage, so reading the Annual Notice of Change is critical this year.

For free assistance with the Medicare Plan Finder and choices for 2025, appointments will be available with the nonprofit Area Agency on Aging Benefits Assistance Program Counselor at St. Patrick – every Tuesday morning from October 15 through December 7, 2024.

Please contact Connie Jada at 480-998-3843 ext. 138 to schedule an appointment.

As the synod for synodality Rome comes to an end soon, we hope to continue growing a culture of listening at St. Patrick. this weekend there will be Synod listening sessions held after all Masses. There will also be a chance to participate in listening sessions October 7 at 9 am and October 8 at 6:30 pm after Mass. This is a great opportunity to embrace our theme by taking the time to listen and see Christ in those around you. This year our sessions hope to gain a deeper insight on what keeps you up at night and the challenges of living out your faith. For more information and for ways to get involved you can contact Denny Pasternak at synod@stpatcc.org.

PRAYER MANDALA

Enjoy taking a few hours out of your busy day to relax and enhance your prayer life by participating in a Prayer Mandala Workshop. Most religious traditions use the Mandala symbol because it represents wholeness, holiness, and all things encompassed by God. The Mandala circle pattern is used as an aid in prayerful meditation.

This workshop will explain the meaning behind the Mandala and give you the opportunity to express your free-form prayer by creating your own simple Prayer Mandala. You absolutely do not have to be an artist!

Social Justice

As pastors of the Catholic Church in the United States, we state as clearly and strongly as we can that violence against women, inside or outside the home, is never justified...The Catholic Bishops of the United States

October is Domestic Violence Awareness month. This type of violence knows no economic, age, race, religious, or gender boundaries. According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV), 1 in 3 women and 1 in 4 men aged 18 and older in the U.S. have been the victim of severe physical violence by an intimate partner in their lifetime. 43% of dating college women report experiencing violent and abusive dating behaviors including physical, sexual, digital, verbal, or other controlling abuse. 9.4% of high school students reported being hit, slapped, or physically hurt intentionally by their partner in the previous 12 months.

A common progression of the abusive relationship unfolds in stages of seducing and charming the victim, to isolation of the victim, and then introducing some type of violence in order to gauge the victim's response. Various signs to be aware of in an abuser include extreme controlling behavior, blaming a victim when something bad happens, extreme jealousy or possessiveness, regularly degrading or humiliating the victim in public or private, not allowing the victim to associate with others, and threats of violence.

During the course of October, different articles will appear in the bulletin and in the weekly Connection to help heighten your awareness of this societal issue that may be affecting you or someone you know. For confidential help available 24/7, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233 (SAFE), or text START to 88788.

If at any time you feel unsafe, immediately dial 9-1-1 and try to remove yourself to a safe area away from the abuser. The operator will stay on the line with you if necessary, and help guide you to safety. Most important, know your location so the police officer can find you if you have left the premises.
