First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

Many years ago St. Patrick had only one building on our property, the building we now call FENLON HOSPITALITY CENTER. That one building held everything we did as a parish community. So, Masses would be celebrated and we would break down for formation, meetings, party celebrations, and other rituals or events. There was really no space that could be dedicated solely to quiet prayer. If the building was not in use, then someone could quietly pray in our space, but that did not happen often.

As we studied our new worship place and building, our Building Committee felt strongly about having a space dedicated solely to prayer. We have what is called the BLESSED SACRAMENT CHAPEL. It has our tabernacle where anyone can be in that sacred place anytime our campus is open from first thing in the morning until our very last event on campus, one can find the chapel open. The Liturgical documents of the Church state that tabernacles can have a space dedicated to the reservation of the blessed sacrament, adoration, and prayer. The documents clearly state it does not necessarily have to be behind the altar. In the years that followed, some leaders added that the tabernacle should be located behind the altar. It did not take away from the documents the desire to have a designated place for the Tabernacle elsewhere in the sacred space. This information might help to understand why our place and other parishes have the tabernacle in a special location. It's good to have that knowledge when some people misunderstand and think it is in the wrong place and not located where it should be.

In the meantime please feel free to enter the Blessed Sacrament Chapel from the south side of our main building. The space is quiet, with no meetings, no music, no conversation, just time with our Lord.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

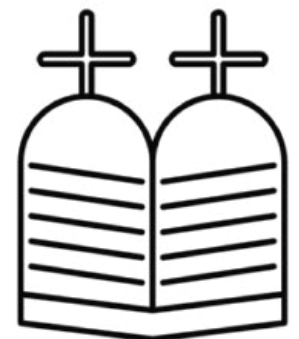

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

The Commandments and The Freedom of Excellence

Our readings today revolve around the idea of following the Lord's commandments and following his teachings. Nobody likes rules and nobody likes being told what to do or what not to do. Especially in the US, we pride ourselves on our freedom and being able to do what we want. We often see rules or mandates as imposing upon our freedom. But the freedom God offers is the freedom for growth and maturity in truth and goodness, it is freedom for excellence. This is exactly what we hear in the first reading today, "Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live." God wants us to live, he wants to bless us. We are missing the point if we look at the commandments and we look at Jesus' teachings and just see them as rules to follow. They are not meant to take away our freedom, on the contrary as our first reading tells us, it is so we may truly live. All the "thou shall not..." of the moral law are ultimately not about restricting our freedom, but about guiding it toward the very thing it was given for: goodness, truth, and love.

As children we often feel like our parents have too many rules to follow. But for parents it is because you love your children that you have rules so they can grow up and be healthy. God loves us the same way. He wants to see us be the best person we can be, he wants to see us be saints. To be a saint begins with knowing God loves you. In the gospel, the Pharisees know God's law but they fail to recognize God's mercy and love. They use the law to hold it over other people and Jesus condemns them for being hypocrites. While they know the law and observe it from the outside, they are far from God on the inside. To avoid becoming like the Pharisees, our second reading from the book of James gives us a great message to keep in mind, "Be doers of the word and not only hearers." Being Catholic isn't just about avoiding sin; rather being Catholic is about doing, it is about sharing the love of God with others. God has given us his law not to restrict our freedom, but to help our freedom be exercised in a way that leads to our ultimate good and happiness. God's will is always for our good. The question is, do we trust him? Are we willing to follow him, knowing that the path of the Gospel is the path that leads to our ultimate fulfillment and happiness?

Reviewing Medicare Coverage

This is important! If your Medicare coverage includes Part D Prescription Drug Plan or Medicare Advantage Plan, be sure to review your health coverage YEARLY!

Plans, coverage, and costs can (and will) change each year, as can your health needs!

When Medicare Open Enrollment begins every year in mid-October, it is the perfect time to review your coverage. You can do this with the help of the Medicare Plan Finder (medicare.gov/plan-compare) to decide which plan is the best for you in 2024.

For assistance with the Medicare Plan Finder and choices for 2024, appointments are available with the Benefits Assistance Program/SHIP Volunteer Counselor at St. Patrick - every Tuesday from October 3 through December 5, 2024.

Please contact Connie Jada at 480-998-3843 ext. 138 to schedule an appointment.

Advanced Theological Studies

with Fr. André

The next meeting will be held on Monday, September 23 at 9 am in Fenlon Hospitality Center.

Please mark your calendars for these upcoming meeting dates: October 21, November 18 and December 16.

Thank You!

Thank you to St. Patrick Catholic Church for your generous donations of backpacks to our refugee families. You are bringing smiles and joy to many!

We are grateful for your generosity. These donations will be helping many refugee families in need and we couldn't do it without YOU!

Thank you, Blessed Bakers

I want to thank all the blessed bakers who have provided baked goods for various events here at St. Patrick. I especially want to thank those who provided desserts for our recent Mental Health First Aid Training. Your desserts were greatly appreciated and enjoyed by all. Your ministry is a perfect example of what genuine hospitality looks like. The baked goods you provide create a welcoming and enjoyable atmosphere that all can enjoy. It may seem like a small gesture to bake desserts, but I can tell you first hand how much people appreciate and enjoy your desserts. As with many ministries you do not hear it enough, but I want to personally thank you for everything you do to support this community. Your generosity and hospitality are what makes St. Patrick stand out as a place of welcome for all. Thank you again.

Sincerely, Eric Tamayo
