First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We have recently been hearing from the Gospel of John, Chapter 6, in what is called the Bread of Life discourse. Jesus offers himself, his Body, and his Blood to be consumed for eternal life—a gift to the world, yet not understood by many of his disciples. Some no longer stayed with him as they found this teaching too difficult.

Yet here we are today having the opportunity to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. When one receives the Body of Christ, our theology teaches that we receive both the body and the blood, since the body does contain blood. When the cup of the Blood of Christ is offered at Mass it is a further sign to follow the instructions to take and eat, take and drink. Drinking from the cup is always optional. Our Liturgy team has wanted to bring back the cup for the community to receive. A large number of Eucharistic Ministers are needed so that both the Body and the Blood may be received. One lesson I learned years ago is that it is best to teach the community what our faith calls us to do and I think we need to do some good teaching on what a Eucharistic Minister is, who is called to this ministry, and why it is good to have a LARGE number of parishioners called to serve the community in this service.

So this Fall we will offer a teaching at Masses to call forth more parishioners to live their baptismal call by coming forward and committing to serve.

I see so many parishioners in the pews that would be excellent in this ministry and I believe all they need is to be personally invited to serve. This I know about parishioners, when asked, they very rarely say no or I cannot. Many say YES I will serve the community.

Our Liturgy team will be meeting to finalize plans for this Fall and we will begin our teaching soon.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY ERIC TAMAYO,
Pastoral Associate

Catechetical Sunday: Who do you say that I am?

In the Gospel this week, Jesus asks his disciples "who do you say that I am?" It is a question we should all take seriously and take the time to reflect upon. If Jesus walked up to you right now how would you respond? What would you be able to tell a stranger about your faith and who Jesus is? Our ability to answer this question is closely connected to our own catechesis and faith formation.

This weekend the church celebrates Catechetical Sunday. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word meaning "to echo, or resound." Catechesis is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world. A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church. Although you might not think of yourself as a catechist, parents and guardians are truly the primary catechists of their children. We are all called to bring the Church's teachings to the world.

At St Patrick we have a wonderful Family Faith Formation program led by some amazing catechists. Family Faith Formation is our at home catechetical program, where we support parents with enriching materials to bring faith alive in the home. Whether you are a parent, a grandparent, an uncle or aunt, we are all called to be catechists to those we encounter. We are all called to be catechists by the way we share our faith with others. Our Family Faith Formation program provides some great resources such as seasonal flyers which guide prayer, family activities, offers recipes, and simple exercises to bring faith back into the household. You can find these flyers available in the Narthex of the church.

If you can confidently answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?", then I would encourage you to share your faith with your family and maybe even consider forming others as part of our faith formation programs. If you are not as confident then I would say being a catechist is exactly what you need to help. Every catechist I have spoken to will always say they learned so much more themselves from teaching their faith. If you are interested in being a part of Family Faith Formation you can contact Diane Kar at dkar@stpatcc.org. Please take this invitation to pray and take some time to reflect on Jesus' question to you this week, "Who do you say that I am?"

You are invited to attend the St. Patrick Women's Fellowship Ministry Book Club

Purpose/Mission

Through a shared love of the written word, the Book Club endeavors to promote friendship, fellowship, and spiritual growth in a casual, social atmosphere.

On Sept. 19 we will discuss The Women by Kristin Hannah, a richly woven story of one woman that shines a light on all women who put themselves in harms' way while serving in Vietnam. Their sacrifice and commitment to their country has too often been forgotten.

Oct. 17 we will discuss My Heart Will Triumph by Mirjana Soldo, who, at 16 encountered a woman identified as the Virgin Mary near Medjugorje. This is her story of the prophetic secrets Mary shared with her and five other children. Future meetings will be on Nov. 21, and Dec. 19. We will meet in the Dorothy Day Library in the House of Mercy from 6:30 to 8:00 pm. Watch the bulletin for more info or email womensgroup@stpatcc.org to be included in our informational email list.

Advanced Theological Studies with Fr. André

The next meeting will be held on Monday, September 23 at 9 am in Fenlon Hospitality Center.

Please mark your calendars for these upcoming meeting dates: October 21, November 18 and December 16.

Social Justice

The FullCircle Program 12-step youth & parent support organization has begun weekly Tuesday evening meetings here at St. Patrick. Meetings take place from 7:00 - 8:15 pm in the Youth Garage and House of Mercy. FullCircle is a fellowship organization made up of young people and parents who share their experiences, love, and understanding of common addictive behavioral issues.

Through solution-focused, peer-led support groups for young people, along with separate sessions for their parents and guardians, FullCircle aims to offer chemical-free alternatives for young people while fostering a supportive community for sustained recovery and holistic well-being. Their modified 12-step program addresses the specific needs of this demographic, emphasizing the identification of behaviors leading to life challenges. Their meetings are fun and enthusiastic, centered around topics which address all areas of change: physical, spiritual, and emotional.

Fr. John Bonavitacola and his FullCircle staff will also be presenting at our annual Interfaith Breakfast on October 17 here at St. Patrick.

To learn more or to reach a FullCircle staff member, contact Richard in the office at 480-993-3843 ext. 107, or visit their website at fullcircleprogram.com.

Suicide claims more lives than war, murder, and natural disasters combined. It is the 10th leading cause of death in the U.S.

Many suicide loss survivors struggle with the outmoded belief that those who die by suicide are condemned to hell.

As Bishop Dolan of the Diocese of Phoenix writes: "The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us... we should not despair of the eternal salvation of persons who have taken their own lives."

Far less than 5% of suicide and substance loss survivors receive the support they need. Those left behind are often stigmatized, isolated, or forgotten. They can lose hope or sadly seek relief in the very thing that took their loved one.

Featured Retreat.

Broken and Blessed Retreat for Suicide Loss Survivors

Marianne Gouveia and Greg Eckerman

October 4 - 6, Friday - Sunday

A retreat for those who have lost a loved one to suicide. When someone dies by suicide, their loved ones left behind after this tragedy are devastated. In the wake of this devastation, we face existential questions about the mysteries of life and death — Where is God in my pain? Why did God let this happen? Where is my loved one, and are they OK?...

The ROCK45 Fall Semester is off and running! We had a wonderful time meeting new friends at last week's Kick-Off Night! Parents and 4th & 5th grade youth, it's not too late to join the fun; registration is still open on the parish website!

This Monday, we will kick off our semester theme of Sacraments as we LOOK CLOSER at the special gifts and grace we receive through the Sacraments. Sacraments have visible signs of water, oil, bread, etc. but what they communicate is anything but ordinary. We will LOOK CLOSER at What is a Sacrament?, similar idea to how a TELESCOPE allows things that are far away to be seen much closer and clearer.

THANK YOU to the amazing team of ministers who answered our call to journey with our 4th & 5th graders this year at ROCK45! My cup runs over with the overwhelming response of adults & high school teens who are part of our ROCK45 Core Team, who the Lord has placed here to work with our youth. Thank you to each and everyone of you for your "yes" to answer your Baptismal call to minister and grow in faith alongside our youth! We could not do what we do without YOU!
