First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

On the weekend of September 2 and 3, I invited parishioner, Maggie Lauder, to offer a reflection at our Masses. Maggie, a theology/ministry teacher at Brophy Prep, spoke on the Feast Day of St. Phoebe. Mentioned by St. Paul in his letter to the Romans (Chapter 16), she is called a benefactor (helper) and minister who is believed to carry St. Paul's letter to Rome. Maggie offered the reflection regarding the importance of all women in ministry and leadership in our Church. She reminded us that Pope Francis is calling all Catholics to listen to one another and to listen to the Holy Spirit.

The role of women in the Church also came out of our parish listening sessions and a group of parishioners have been meeting ever since to discern and develop ways to recognize the role of women in our Church.

In case you were not present that weekend, please listen to her talk on our podcast section on our parish website stpatcc.org, or view it on our YouTube Channel for St. Patrick Scottsdale. I am grateful to the many good comments that Maggie received and knowing there will be more shared regarding women serving the Church in the coming months.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Christian Disciples in Mission Living Beyond Sunday

BY MARY PERMODA,
Director of Pastoral Activities

What is the Prayer Shawl Ministry You Ask?

Prayer Shawl Ministry combines compassion, love of knitting/crocheting and fellowship into a prayerful ministry that reaches out and provides physical and spiritual comfort to those in our community who are hurting. For the Monday Afternoon Group, 1:00 - 3:00 pm, contact Barbara Hendrickson at 602-373-2162, prayershawlmonday@stpatcc.org. For the Tuesday Evening Group, 6:00 - 8:00 pm, contact Chris Bond at 480-433-2012 or prayershawltuesday@stpatcc.org.

Some kind words for the Prayer Shawl Ministry...

Your thoughtfulness in gifting me the shawl has been an unexpected blessing. Wearing the shawl and knowing God's love is embracing me has helped me in my times of sadness. I will treasure it for the rest of my life. Again, thank-you.

Are You Listening? The Synod is more than listening - it is a way of being church. Please join us for this hour of prayer!

Synod
2021

For a synodal Church
communion | participation | mission

Many of us at St. Patrick have participated in Synod discussion sessions over the past several years. Documentation of those discussions has been shared with the bishop and authorities in Rome. Meetings will be held in Rome from October 4 - 29 to further discern the direction of the Church on many important issues. Lay men and lay women have been invited to the meeting as voting members.

We here at St. Patrick have scheduled a Prayer Hour to add our support to this important gathering. Our Synod Prayer Hour will be held: Wednesday, September 20, from 6:30 - 7:30 pm in the Daily Mass Chapel.

Stewardship

Lord God, sometimes I am so complacent in my faith. I don't really work hard, and I take for granted the peace I do have in my life. Please give me the clarity this week to see in what areas of my life I have found myself comfortable. Please help me to grow in faith this week, although it may cause me a little bit of discomfort. Amen.

How badly do you want the Lord to forgive your sins? How far are you willing to go for God's mercy?

Usually the answers to these questions are directly proportional to how seriously we take and view our own sins. If we view our sins as deadly and our salvation as a work in progress, we will seek the Lord, daily, and in the confessional, often. If, however, we view our sins as "not that big a deal" or "not as bad as other people's sins" we grow slothful in our faith life and prayer. We won't seek God's mercy and, in turn, won't readily offer mercy to those who have wronged us.

Sirach is as practical and wise as ever in this first reading. We are given a glimpse into the fate that awaits those so filled with anger. The "tighter we hug" wrath and anger, the more we open ourselves up to God's just vengeance. The Lord is kind and merciful, though, as we hear in the psalm, so where would vengeance come into this? When we refuse to offer mercy to others, we close ourselves off to God's mercy toward us, as we see in the Gospel. We must "forgive from our hearts," we are reminded, because in doing so we are with the Lord. And those who "live for the Lord" and "die for the Lord" "are the Lord's."

Thank the Lord this week for His great mercy by offering mercy to those in your life who least deserve it but most need it.

St. Patrick Women's Bible Study

Women today lead busy lives while caring for their families and communities. Peace, hope, and love answer life's biggest questions in God's word – The Holy Bible. Join other women like yourself for the St. Patrick Women's Bible Study! Beginning on September 26, we will meet on Tuesday mornings from 9:30 -11:30 am in the House of Mercy Pope Francis Room.

Parishioner Gail Melone has been attending Bible Study for the past three years: "I love getting together with other women to learn and talk about things that matter. It has deepened and strengthened my faith and love of God. Our experienced leader, Barbara, uses a curriculum and structured discussion to guide us in learning how to apply the truths of scripture to our daily lives; this has equipped me to share my faith with others better. And after class, there's often time for fun, fellowship, and making new friends for anybody who wants to join us for lunch at a nearby restaurant."

Moms

AT ST. PATRICK

Moms at St. Patrick is an open, accepting place for all mothers, from pregnancy through grown children, to come and experience authentic community, personal growth, practical help and spiritual hope. Come experience companionship with women who understand how much it takes to be a mother.

At Moms at St. Patrick we are working to build circles of women who love each other like family, because raising humans is beautiful and hard, and having each other to lean on is life-giving. We invite you to meet with us to laugh, pray, cry, and embrace the journey of being a mom.

Ministry of Care

Ministry of Care includes taking Holy Communion to the elderly, the sick, and the infirm. It involves sharing in prayer and the word of God during these visits. These visits may occur in the home, at the hospital bed, or in any institution that provides basic care and day-to-day living arrangements for the elderly or those in need.

If you are interested in serving as a Minister of Care, please contact Dr. Lenny Kelley at lkelly@stpatcc.org.

Social Justice

Peace is freedom from disturbance. It takes on the characteristic of tranquility and is free from any type of turmoil. When peace abounds, there is an underlying coherent unity which encourages a positive momentum of productivity of work that benefits the common good. Traditionally, the United Nations has taken the approach of looking at the annual International Day of Peace under the lens of calling for peace from periods of war.

This year the International Day of Peace 2023 takes place on September 21. The theme for this year is Actions for Peace. It is a call to action that recognizes both our individual and collective responsibility to foster peace. The UN General Assembly has declared this as a day devoted to strengthening the ideals of peace, through observing 24-hours of non-violence and cease-fire. At 12:00 noon in all time zones across the world, a one-minute moment of silence will be observed on September 21. This minute of silence is known as "The Peace Wave". This began in 1982 and has continued to spread throughout the world in multiple ways.

"True peace requires standing up for the human rights of all the world's people. Let us stand up for human rights for all in the name of peace for all."

– UN Secretary General António Guterres
