First Down with Fr. Eric

Dear Friends,

We have started our formation for children at our Masses called Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) and Young Disciples. On Sundays at our 8:30 am and 10:30 am Masses children from age 4 to grade 4 will be sent forth after the opening prayer to break open the scripture readings for that Sunday. The same readings as the adults are proclaimed, but on their level.

At the beginning of Mass, the children will be invited to gather in front of the altar to be sent forth and parents are always welcome to walk with their child if they need extra assistance.

They will be led in procession by our parishioner catechists to the classrooms in the church. At the offertory time the children will return to their families for the second part of the Mass. The Young Disciples are children from ages 3-5 and they will stay in their classroom for the remainder of the Mass. Parents for Young Disciples will pick their children up from their classroom when Mass is over.

We will soon be inviting more parishioners to come forward to become catechists to lead the children in their session. We want to grow this ministry so that every Mass on the weekend has Children's Liturgy of the Word. The children need to hear the scriptures every time they come to Mass and it is the responsibility of the baptized, all of us, to assure this happens.

It is always a joy to have children at our Masses, learning that being part of a family that serves God and loves others is at the heart of what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ.

Peace in Christ,

Fr. Eric

Stewardship

Prayer

Almighty God, you are all knowing and so good. Please teach me how to trust you more and more each day and help me listen well to your plans for my life. May I be assured in knowing that your plans are good, and you will take care of me always. Amen.

The Christian life is often a battle for perspective. Jesus often challenges us to see things not from an earthly perspective but a heavenly one. The word perspective is interesting in that its definition is also an invitation. From the Latin, the word per, meaning "through," and the word spectare, meaning "to look," join to form perspicere, inviting us to "look through" a situation to gain proper perspective.

We are told this week that "the last will be first, and the first last." Our Lord enjoys a good turn of phrase to make His point to the listeners. It's illogical, though, at first hearing, isn't it? Are the last ever really first on Earth? Don't we cheer for the gold medalist and forget the person in last place? Yes, we do ... on Earth.

God, Himself, is standing in our midst reminding us that heavenly glory and earthly glory are far different. We should not desire personal attention or accolades but, rather, salvation for all (as we see in the Gospel). We should view the little "deaths" and sacrifices in our lives as joys that will help us truly, finally live as St. Paul points out in his letter to the Romans. How often we get hung up on earthly things that don't really matter; heaven is what matters! It is only when we really seek the Lord in prayer and ask His thoughts to become our thoughts that we can take on a divine perspective, seeing through earthly mishaps and problems and allowing the peace of heaven to breathe into and keep calm our earthly hearts and minds.

Reviewing Medicare Coverage

This is important! If your Medicare coverage includes Part D Prescription Drug Plan or Medicare Advantage Plan, be sure to review your health coverage YEARLY!

Plans, coverage, and costs can (and will) change each year, as can your health needs!

When Medicare Open Enrollment begins every year in mid-October, it is the perfect time to review your coverage. You can do this with the help of the Medicare Plan Finder (medicare.gov/plan-compare) to decide which plan is the best for you in 2024.

For assistance with the Medicare Plan Finder and choices for 2024, appointments will be available with the Benefits Assistance Program/SHIP Volunteer Counselor at St. Patrick - every Tuesday from October 3 through December 5, 2023.

Please contact Connie Jada at 480-998-3843 ext. 138 to schedule an appointment.

Social Justice

Two of our pillars here at St. Patrick Catholic Community include Hospitality and Social Justice. Hospitality reaches out not just to the individual person and recognizes their dignity, but it also invites and includes collaboration with those who work in areas of nonprofits, government agencies, and all faith leaders in our community. Then, in part, our Social Justice and Outreach mission reaches out to form relationships and awareness so that systemic change and right justice can be put in place in order for basic needs to be met.

We continue to implement these two pillars during our annual 2023 INTERFAITH BREAKFAST which will be held here on Thursday, October 19 at 7:30 am in Fenlon Hospitality Center. Our topic this year is Resilience: Digging Deeper into Community Resources.

This year we address the challenges of mental health and we have invited speakers to share their resources available to the community and the role that their organizations play in this topic. There will be speakers from Solari Crisis and Human Services, Blue Zones, and the Mental Health and Crisis Response Team from Scottsdale PD.

We hope that you can join us for this focused morning of learning, sharing, and socializing with those who work tirelessly to make our communities stronger and healthier. Please RSVP to Carol Loporto at cloporto@stpatcc.org to reserve your spot for this working breakfast.
